THE DONOHUE FAMILY

Alexander Josiah Donohue — The Founder (Deceased)

- Born: March 14, 1905, Americus, Georgia · Died: December 31, 1999, 11:58 PM, Donohue Manor, Belmont Crest (aged 94)
- Founder of Donohue Global Holdings and co-founder of Belmont Crest. He was born the son of sharecroppers and walked into Atlanta at 16 with three dollars sewn into his coat lining. He built the largest fortune in human history.
- He died two minutes before the year 2000. Family legend says he "refused to see a century he didn't build."
- His 1996 Codicil to the Crown Trust named his great-grandson Marc-Anthony the Heir Apparent. That decision still divides the family (see Document 03).
- Quote carved over the Manor fireplace: "They closed every door, so I built the house."

Simone Toussaint Donohue — The Queen Mother

- Born: November 2, 1910, New Orleans, Louisiana · Age: 94 · Looks: early 70s
- Creole of color and a licensed pharmacist (Xavier University of Louisiana, Class of 1931). Her apothecary formulas became the seed of Donohue Health & Beauty.

- Co-founder of Belmont Crest. In 1959 she stood on her porch with a shotgun while a cross burned at the front gate. The next morning she served the reporters coffee.
- She lives in the Dowager House at Belmont Crest. She still attends every Crown Council meeting and still has a vote. Everyone, including Victor, is afraid of her.
- Holds: "The Savannah Letter," the one document that proves what really happened between Alexander and Cornelius Smilley in 1952 (see Document 05).
- Voice: Soft Creole lilt, devastating one-liners, never raises her voice. "Baby, I buried a husband, a century, and three governors. Don't try me before lunch."
- Relationship to Marc-Anthony: He is her "Sunshine." He has Sunday dinner with her every week without fail.

Theodore Alexander Donohue — The Passed-Over Son

- Born: July 31, 1934 · Age: 70 · Looks: late 50s
- Eldest son of Alexander and Simone. Howard University School of Law. Fulton County District Attorney 1971–1987, then senior counsel to Donohue Global Holdings until he retired in 1999.
- Respected, powerful, influential, corrupt, and ruthless. As DA he buried cases for friends, built cases against enemies, and kept files on everyone in Georgia. Those files still exist, in a climate-controlled vault under his house.
- The wound: In 1966 Alexander made Victor, the younger son, CEO of the newly formed Donohue Global Holdings. In 1996 he gave Victor the chairmanship too. Theodore has smiled at every family dinner for 39 years and has forgotten nothing.
- Married: Three times. His current wife is Constance "Connie" Donohue (38; see Document 07). His son is Reginald Donohue (47; see Document 07).
- THE EXILE (2003–2005):
 - In March 2003, Theodore sued to break the Codicil in Fulton County Superior Court. He lost.
 - Simone banished her eldest son from the Summit for two years.
 - Theodore, Connie, and Reginald have lived in Monte Carlo, Monaco ever since. Reginald runs Donohue Realty from London.
 - Ashgrove (3 Sovereign Way) sits shuttered and dark.
 - Theodore votes on the Crown Council by written proxy only.
- SCREEN RULE: Theodore and his family do not appear on screen until Episode #176 (Monday, September 12, 2005), the final week of Season 1. They become Core Contract Cast in Season 2. Until then, the audience hears only Martin's side of his calls to "overseas."
- SECRET: Theodore is quietly advising Martin Olson on how to take the Heir Apparent designation away from Marc-Anthony. He plans to use Martin to put Theodore's branch of the family back on the throne.
- Voice: Courtroom baritone, Southern gentility, velvet threats. "I don't hold grudges, nephew. I hold receipts."

Victor Donohue — The King

- Born: May 30, 1936 · Age: 68 · Looks: mid-50s
- Youngest son of Alexander and Simone. Morehouse College '57, Harvard Business School '59.
- Former CEO, Donohue Global Holdings (1966–1996). In 30 years he turned his father's Auburn Avenue businesses into the largest company in the world.
- Chairman, Donohue Global Holdings (1996–present).
- Respected, powerful, influential, ruthless, dangerous, and astronomically wealthy. He negotiates by staying silent. Senators take his calls on the first ring, and his enemies sometimes hear from him only after their companies are gone.
- Married: Joan Mercer on Saturday, June 20, 1959, in the first wedding ever held at Belmont Crest Chapel.
- Children: Jasmine (1960), Natasha (1961), Alvin (1970).
- With Marc-Anthony: Victor sees himself in his grandson and worries about that. Victor privately suspects Marc is hiding something enormous. He hasn't asked, because he isn't sure he wants the answer.
- Voice: Measured, low, final. "In this family we don't raise our voices. We raise our prices."

The Honorable Joan Mercer Donohue — The Judge

- Born: April 17, 1938, Atlanta (Vine City) · Age: 66 · Looks: early 50s
- Spelman College '59. Married Victor two weeks after graduating. She was one of the few Black women in her Howard University School of Law class and graduated in 1964.
- Civil rights litigator from 1964 to 1979. She argued desegregation, voting rights, and fair-housing cases across the Deep South.
- U.S. District Judge, Northern District of Georgia (1979–2003), appointed by President Carter. She took senior status and retired in 2003.
- Respected, powerful, influential, astronomically wealthy philanthropist. She chairs the Donohue Foundation.
- The moral center of the family, and the only person who can make Victor apologize. She believes in the law, which puts her in quiet, permanent conflict with her husband, her son-in-law Robert, and (without her knowing it) her favorite grandson.
- Voice: Precise, warm, withering. "Objection, sustained, and sit down."

Alvin Mercer Donohue — The Prince of Nightlife

- Born: October 8, 1970 · Age: 34 · Looks: late 20s
- Youngest son of Victor and Joan. He was a "surprise" baby born nine years after Natasha, and he has been spoiled rotten from the start.
- A literal party boy. He owns stakes in three Atlanta nightclubs (Velvet, Sanctuary, and The Onyx Room), a strip club he swears he doesn't own, and a Miami yacht nicknamed "The Alibi."

- Deeply involved in politics: He's a top Democratic fundraiser, bundles donations for city council, the state house, and Congress, and knows where every politician in Georgia drinks.
 - Deeply involved in the underworld: He owes money and favors to Silas Merriweather, Atlanta's old-school kingpin (see Document 07). He launders club cash for people Victor has never heard of.
 - Sleeps around and never uses protection. Nobody knows how many children he has, including Alvin.
 - SECRET (seeded): Tremaine Banks (12), son of Rochelle Banks of College Park, is Alvin's son. Rochelle has never asked for a dime. Tremaine has the Donohue eyes. More possible children are held in reserve for future stories.
 - SCREEN RULE: Alvin has spent the past year in Miami on his yacht "The Alibi," dodging a federal grand jury subpoena and a debt to Silas Merriweather. He is mentioned but never seen until Episode #90 (Monday, May 9, 2005), the halfway point of Season 1, when his helicopter lands on the Summit.
 - With Marc-Anthony: Alvin is Marc's favorite uncle and a terrible influence. Marc has quietly cleaned up three of Alvin's messes, and Alvin has no idea who did it.
 - Voice: Loud, charming, a little too drunk. "Mama says I'm the family's black sheep. I said, Mama, I'm the family's whole farm."

- Arianna knows Marc is Sovereign. She's not a member. She protects him with plausible deniability, and he protects her with silence.
- Voice: Crisp, brilliant, guilty. "Justice is blind, Marc. That's why I keep one eye open."

THE WOMAN IN THE GOLD MASK

Esther Odessa Smilley — The Heiress

- Born: September 20, 1982, Chicago, Illinois · Age: 22 · Looks: early 20s
- Billionaire heiress of the Smilley family. Youngest of three children of Lucius and Vivienne Smilley. Full family in Document 05.
- Her parents' designated heir to Smilley International, chosen over her older siblings Luke and Delphine. They have never forgiven her.
- Northwestern University, B.S. (2004), and the youngest person ever admitted to Kellogg's Executive MBA program. President, Smilley International Atlanta, the division leading the company's January 2005 headquarters move from Chicago to Atlanta, straight into Donohue territory.
- 1000% ruthless and corrupt. She'll bribe, blackmail, seduce, sabotage, and smile the whole time.
- The most beautiful and attractive woman in the world, all natural. She's been on the cover of Vogue, Essence, Ebony, Jet, and Forbes.
- Her best friend and sister: Harmony Divine, her freshman roommate at Northwestern.
- Love interest / soulmate: Marc-Anthony Bullock. He doesn't know it yet, and their story won't start right away.
- SECRET (the show's biggest secret):
 - On Saturday, September 1, 2001, Labor Day weekend, Esther, just shy of 19, went to a private masquerade at a Sag Harbor Hills estate on Long Island. She wore a gold mask, drank too much, and spent the night with a funny, beautiful stranger in a black mask. He gave her a fake name ("Tony").
 - She found out who he really was 11 weeks later, when she saw Marc-Anthony Bullock laughing on the cover of Black Enterprise. He's the heir of the family her family hates most.
 - She was pregnant with twins. She decided alone to keep the secret and raise the girls as Smilleys.
 - Cover story: She publicly chose IVF with an anonymous sperm donor. The tabloids called her "the youngest billionaire single mother by choice," and the world believed it.
 - Only Esther knows the truth. Even Harmony believes the donor story.
- Why it matters (see Document 03): Under the Crown Trust Codicil, the Heir Apparent's line of succession runs through his children. Emma and Victoria are Donohue heirs. If the secret comes out, the two warring dynasties are joined forever.
- Avoidance pattern: Esther has skipped every event where Marc might appear, including Lyric's christening (where Marc became godfather). She always has a different excuse.
- Voice: Silk over steel. "I don't need a man, a donor, or your permission. I need you out of my building."

 - Missing brother: Darnell "Dee" Divine vanished on New Year's Eve 2001. Harmony has posted flyers, bothered APD, and run a LiveJournal called "Find Dee" every week for three years. She has no idea the District Attorney killed him.
 - Love interest: Amond Baker. It's on-again, off-again, toxic, and irresistible.
 - Voice: Warm, funny, relentless. "I'm not pushy. I'm motivated. There's a difference and it's a commission."

- Eldest daughter of Marc-Anthony Bullock and Esther Smilley. Older twin by 6 minutes.
- Future canon: 1000% a daddy's girl, spoiled by him endlessly, but she understands the true meaning of hard work. Respectful and responsible.
- Nearly all of her talent and personality is inherited from Marc.
 - At 2 she's already reading picture books aloud, doing 24-piece puzzles face-down, and correcting adults' grammar.
 - She has his dimples and his laugh. Esther hears it every day and it scares her every time.

Nobody at Ravenhurst knows it matches the Donohue matriarch's name. It's a coincidence nobody has noticed yet.
