

BEYOND THE KINGDOM — Episode #0010: Media & Fan Layer

Companion to Script #BTK-0010 · Air Date: Friday, January 14, 2005

A lab report from Quantico. Two lots on Auburn Avenue. A love song played from a parked car on West Paces Ferry. The world reacts from Friday morning to Saturday.

WBKG CHANNEL 8 ACTION NEWS — WBKG.com

Posted 5:48 p.m., Friday, January 14, 2005

FBI LAB: 'ONYX COIN' STONE TRACED TO SOUTH AFRICA

The black onyx coin found with Piedmont Park victim Lamar Whitlock was cut from stone mined in South Africa, according to an FBI laboratory analysis shared with the Atlanta Police Department on Friday, two law enforcement sources told Channel 8.

The finding appears to support Chief Elxa Jackson's reported belief that the coins are counterfeits. APD declined to comment.

Deputy Chief Warren Hughes, APD's new liaison to the FBI, was seen leaving the Bureau's Century Parkway field office Friday morning. Reached by phone, Hughes said only: "Ask the Chief. It's her case."

>> POLL: Do you now believe Blackwater is being framed?

Yes — 58% · No — 19% · Still don't trust anybody — 23%

(12,006 votes. This is not a scientific poll.)

THE ATLANTA SENTINEL — Saturday, January 15, 2005 · Weekend Edition · 75¢

FRONT PAGE

'MADE IN SOUTH AFRICA': FEDS, APD CLOSE RANKS ON COIN KILLINGS

Chief and FBI agent seen together as lab links fake coin to foreign stone

By Renee Holloway, Staff Writer

A week after federal agents took custody of the "Onyx Coin" evidence under a court order, Atlanta's police chief and the FBI's lead agent on the case appear to have put their public feud aside.

Chief Elxa Jackson and Special Agent Kathleen Doyle were seen sharing a back booth at Manuel's Tavern on North Highland Avenue on Friday evening. Neither would comment on the meeting. A regular at the bar said the Chief "drank a Coca-Cola and left a twenty-dollar tip."

BUSINESS · D1

SMILLEYS MAKE FIRST MOVE ON SWEET AUBURN

Smiley International has secured an exclusive option on two parcels at 441 and 443 Auburn Avenue, steps from the historic Hotel Donohue, according to people familiar with the transaction. The deal was brokered by Harmony Divine of Keel & Associates, the 22-year-old named this week to lead the company's $2 billion Atlanta acquisition program.

City Hall has not confirmed long-rumored plans for a major Sweet Auburn redevelopment.

Friday's closing prices (publicly traded Donohue affiliates):

Ticker	Company	Close	Change
DFN	Donohue Financial	$185.30	+0.2%
DNRG	Donohue Energy	$97.90	-0.2%
DPHR	Donohue Pharmaceuticals	$146.05	+0.6%
DTEC	Donohue Technologies	$62.45	+0.6%

LIVING · "BEHIND THE GATES" by Bernadette Sinclair

Friday Night Views.

- The Sun Dial, 8:32 PM. The Chairman's grandson and a certain weekend anchor in a red dress had the best window table in Atlanta, seventy-two floors up, while the city turned beneath them. My waiter tells me they talked about "nothing," darling, which is what people say when they're talking about everything.
 - Auburn Avenue. Mr. Leroy Reese, 76, who signed away his late brother's lots on Sweet Auburn to the Smilleys on Friday, asked me to print one sentence. I'm happy to. "Auburn Avenue remembers who tipped."
 - West Paces Ferry, 7:05 PM. A car was parked outside a certain white house with lions on the gate, playing Minnie Riperton with the windows down. In January. For exactly one song. Then it drove away. I don't know what it means. I only know I haven't heard anything that romantic on Paces since 1967.
-

CRESTWATCH — crestwatch.blogspot.com

"All the news the gates keep out."

Friday, January 14, 2005 — 11:58 PM

CHEESE STRAWS, A CONGRESSWOMAN, AND A CLOSED DOOR

- The palazzo, 6:33 PM. A certain attorney came home with a box from Henri's Bakery for his wife. Cheese straws. Our source in the kitchen says the lady of the house "looked at that box like it was a subpoena." CrestWatchers, we told you on Monday somebody delivered cheese straws to a Peachtree Street law firm. Now they've come home. Do the math.
- The Olson estate, 8:00 PM. The Congresswoman flew home two days early. At dinner, she asked her son and daughter to "give us the room." Then the dining-room doors stayed closed for forty minutes. Our source says the Congresswoman walked out alone, and the doctor didn't come out at all.
- The Olson girl is grounded for two weeks. Somebody played her a song from the street anyway.

Posted by CrestWatch at 11:58 PM · 267 comments

KingdomKween404 said... THE CHEESE STRAWS CAME HOME. i'm screaming. this is chess

BuckheadBarbie said... "give us the room" is the scariest sentence a mother can say at a dinner table

PeachStateTea said... minnie riperton from a parked car... the DJ... it's the DJ... i'm unwell ChiTownDiva said... Somebody in that family is lying to somebody. Every family in these gates is.

Anonymous said... leave the doctor alone. doctors get calls at dinner

"FIND DEE" — finddee.livejournal.com

Friday, January 14th, 2005 — 10:37 pm

Current mood: hopeful

Current music: Donny Hathaway, "A Song for You"

She came. Ms. Mims. Four o'clock.

She ate two slices of Mama's lemon pound cake and one of the plain. Daddy told her about Dee's shop, "Divine Intervention Auto," and she didn't laugh at the name. She said it was wonderful. (It's a terrible name.) (It's a wonderful name.)

Daddy told her something I didn't know. Dee always walked down to the Texaco at Northside and West Paces to call for a ride. Always. So now she knows which way he was walking.

Mama gave her Dee's pager. We've paid that bill for three years, every month, in case he calls. Ms. Mims held it with both hands.

Mama said, "Bring him back."

Ms. Mims said, "I'll find out what happened to him. I've never broken that one."

I believe her.

Tags: dee, carla mims, texaco, pager, pound cake

128 comments

grady_nurse_lo (Loretta Divine): She took a slice for her husband too. I wrapped it in foil.

E.O.S.: The Texaco. Northside and West Paces. Somebody drove that road that night. Somebody always does. <3 cascadecutz: route 71 driver took the afternoon off. whole bus was talking about it northside_nanny: I worked the Hendersons' that night. Upstairs. I told Ms. Mims everything I remember.

wiseblood_71: God sees what's hidden. And now so does she.

BLACKPLANET FORUMS — Atlanta > Local News & Politics

Thread: SOUTH AFRICA?!?!

Started by WestEndWill — 01/14/2005 6:02 PM

WestEndWill: the fake coin is made from SOUTH AFRICAN rock. who in atlanta even knows somebody in south africa

ConspiracyKeith: people with MONEY know people in south africa. diamonds. shipping. mining. follow the ships

ATLien_4Life: keith i hate that that makes sense

SouthsideSaint_78: word on campbellton is the merriweathers and blackwater are looking for the SAME dude. a white dude. tall. talks funny

Mama_Dees_Biggest_Fan: mama dee said "whoever he is, he better hope the police find him first." then she went back to frying chicken

HonestAbe_ATL: Two criminal organizations running a manhunt in our city and the police are drinking Coke at Manuel's. Great.

ChiTownDiva: The police AND the FBI are drinking at Manuel's. Together. That's the headline. The Chief is building a team.

AOL MESSAGE BOARDS — Local > Atlanta > Current Events

Subject: Smilleys bought land on Auburn Ave

Posted by GA_Taxpayer1952 — 1/14/05 9:10 PM

GA_Taxpayer1952: Two lots next to the old Donohue hotel. Told you they were buying Sweet Auburn.

FultonDem_Daryl: Two empty lots. Grass and a chain-link fence. That's not a war, that's a toe in the water.

RetiredAPD_Sarge: You don't buy the lots next to a man's grandfather's hotel by accident. Victor Donohue will have heard by breakfast.

GA_Taxpayer1952: And what's he going to do about it?

RetiredAPD_Sarge: Son, I've watched Victor Donohue for forty years. He doesn't do anything about it. He waits until you think he isn't going to, and then he does everything at once.

MYSFACE BULLETINS

From: Q IN THE ATL — Jan 14 2005 11:20 PM

Subject: two weeks

Played one song tonight. Not in a club. For one person, from a parked car, on a very cold street with some very ugly lions. Two weeks. I can wait. Wednesday Velvet is still mine, but it's going to be a slow set.

From: GRACE BULLOCK (Official) — Jan 14 2005 11:45 PM

Subject: grounded cousins club

My cousin is grounded and somebody is playing her love songs from the STREET. I have never been so jealous of a grounded person in my life. Also: Monday is MLK Day. See y'all at Greater Crest. <3 G

AIM AWAY MESSAGES (Friday night)

MarcAnthonyB: we let her look.

ghost_000: 0 of 11 left. sleeping. do not IM.

Amond_B_Ops: somebody's building with a crane.

HarmonyDivineRealty: 441 & 443. my name's on it. auburn remembers who tipped.

KiaraB_BCA: helped my mother write a letter. i'm basically a lawyer now

MalloryO_Spelman: window's still open.

jjackson_apd: parade ground.

CeleVaughnWBKG: the sun dial turns. so do stories.

SaintsCarWash: monday.

End of Media & Fan Layer, Episode #0010. Continued with Episode #0011 (Monday, January 17, 2005 — Martin Luther King Jr. Day).