SMILLEY INTERNATIONAL NAMES EXCLUSIVE ATLANTA BUYER'S BROKER FOR $2 BLN REAL ESTATE PROGRAM

ATLANTA (Dow Jones) — Smilley International Inc., the Chicago-founded consumer and hospitality conglomerate that moved its headquarters to Atlanta this month, said Tuesday it will deploy up to $2 billion in Atlanta-area real estate over the next 12 months.

The privately held company named Harmony Divine, 22, of Keel & Associates Realty, Buckhead, as its exclusive buyer's representative for the program. Terms weren't disclosed.

A company spokeswoman said the program will include office, retail, residential and land acquisitions "across the urban core."

SMILLEYS BET $2 BILLION ON ATLANTA, AND ON A 22-YEAR-OLD

Little-known broker lands one of the largest buy-side mandates in city history

By Nathan Greenlee, Business Writer

Until Tuesday morning, Harmony Divine was best known in Atlanta real estate circles, if at all, for moving starter condos in Lindbergh and Grant Park. By lunchtime, she held a mandate that veteran commercial brokers called "unprecedented" and "frankly insulting."

"There are forty brokers in this city who have done nine-figure deals," said one, who asked not to be named because he hopes to do business with Smilley International. "They picked a kid."

Industry sources estimate that a customary buy-side fee of 1 to 1.5 percent on $2 billion in closed transactions would total $20 million to $30 million.

Divine and Esther Smiley, president of Smiley International Atlanta, were roommates at Northwestern University. Divine declined to comment. Keel & Associates broker Donna Keel said the firm was "thrilled and not at all surprised."

Donohue Global Holdings declined to comment.

Tuesday's closing prices (publicly traded Donohue affiliates):

Ticker	Company	Close	Change
DFN	Donohue Financial	$183.20	-0.6%
DNRG	Donohue Energy	$97.45	+0.4%
DPHR	Donohue Pharmaceuticals	$145.10	+0.1%
DTEC	Donohue Technologies	$61.30	-0.4%

Donohue Financial fell for the second time in three sessions. Analysts cited "general uncertainty" about downtown commercial real estate after the Smiley announcement.

HAND-DELIVERED: NORTHSIDE RESIDENTS RESPOND TO DA'S COLD-CASE LETTERS

At least 19 of the roughly 40 households that received the District Attorney's letters Monday have responded, according to a spokesman. Investigator Carla Mims said she expects to begin interviews "this week, starting at the beginning."

LIVING · "BEHIND THE GATES" by Bernadette Sinclair

The Girl in the Navy Suit.

Darlings, the valet at Smiley Tower tells me that at 8:51 Tuesday morning, a dented silver Honda Civic pulled up in a line of Bentleys, and a young woman in a navy St. John handed him the keys and said, "It pulls a little to the left."

By 9:48 she was the most important real estate agent in Atlanta.

I have been asked all day who Harmony Divine is. I will tell you. She is the daughter of a Grady nurse and a MARTA driver on Route 71. She is the sister of a young man who walked off Northside Drive on New Year's morning three years ago and never came home. And she is, I am told, the best friend of the most powerful 22-year-old woman in the South.

In this town, darling, that is a résumé.

THREE LITTLE GIRLS ON A QUILT

We have a photograph, CrestWatchers.

The morning room at Ravenhurst, about 5:15 this afternoon. Three little girls on a quilt, building a block tower. Two of them are the Smilley heiress's famous twins, in velvet. The third, in purple with a stuffed giraffe, is the daughter of the Smilleys' brand-new two-billion-dollar broker.

[Photo: three toddlers on a quilt, seen through a window. Faces blurred by CrestWatch. We have standards.]

Ask yourself: Why does a girl from Lindbergh get two billion dollars and a playdate at Ravenhurst on the same day? And whose little girl is that in purple? (Everybody in the gates knows. Nobody in the gates will say. So we won't either. Yet.)

Also today:

- The Smilley board voted 70 to 12. The eldest son said a word we can't print. The Chairman voted with his left hand. Our Chicago source says he's right-handed. Just noticing.
- Night six in the Manor library, and our source says the lady of the house carried in two cups of tea tonight. Two. CrestWatchers, that's a thaw.
- A florist van from Buckhead delivered white peonies to a Lindbergh townhouse at 7:36 PM. Peonies. In January. That's not a florist, CrestWatchers. That's a procurement operation.

Current mood: overwhelmed

Current music: Kirk Franklin, "Looking for You"

I don't know how to write this one.

This morning I had eleven dollars in my checking account. Tonight I have a job that the Sentinel says is "frankly insulting" to forty old men with yachts.

I want to be clear about something. The job is real estate. It's my job. It's not Dee's case. Nothing about Dee changes. Friday at four is still Friday at four. Ms. Mims is still coming. Mama is still making a pound cake.

But I'm going to say this, because Dee would have.

Dee, you told me in 2001 that I was "going to be somebody's boss one day." I told you to shut up and pass the hot sauce.

You were right. You were always right about me.

Now come home and gloat.

grady_nurse_lo (Loretta Divine): Your daddy cried at the kitchen table. Don't tell him I told you.

E.O.S.: Told you. Flats tomorrow.

cascadecutz: FROM LINDBERGH TO THE TOP. i'm so proud and i don't even know you northside_nanny: I called Ms. Mims. She's coming to see me Thursday.

Thread: A SISTA FROM LINDBERGH GOT A $2 BILLION CONTRACT

Started by ATLien_4Life — 01/11/2005 11:02 AM

ATLien_4Life: thirty MILLION in commission. from the SMILLEYS. she was selling condos last week. somebody tell me how to get a college roommate like that HonestAbe_ATL: Nepotism isn't only a problem when the Donohues do it.

ChiTownDiva: It's not nepotism. They're not related. It's LOYALTY. Esther Smiley is known in Chicago for two things: she never forgets a slight, and she never forgets a friend.

WestEndWill: wait. harmony divine. isn't that the "find dee" girl? the missing brother?

Mama_Dees_Biggest_Fan: yes. and she said on her blog nothing changes about dee's case. that's a real one

ConspiracyKeith: the smileys are buying downtown. downtown is DONOHUE. this is a war and the donohues haven't fired a shot yet. that's what scares me

ATLien_4Life: keith. please. one week off

Subject: Deputy Chief budget hearing tomorrow

Posted by FultonDem_Daryl — 1/11/05 7:22 PM

FultonDem_Daryl: Council budget hearing tomorrow at 9. All four APD deputy chiefs testify. Somebody ask Hughes how many years he's been waiting for the corner office.

RetiredAPD_Sarge: Warren Hughes is a good cop. He ran into a burning building on Hollywood Road for a baby in '88. Show some respect.

GA_Taxpayer1952: A good cop who got passed over for a 24-year-old because her grandfather made a phone call. I'd be angry too.

RetiredAPD_Sarge: Angry is fine. Angry is human. It's what a man does with it that makes him.
