

BEYOND THE KINGDOM — Series Format Bible

Document 01 · Locked Canon · Format & Production Rules

In-universe "today": Monday, January 3, 2005 (Premiere Day)

1. Locked Facts (Canon — Do Not Change)

Item	Locked Value
Title	Beyond the Kingdom
Format	Daytime soap opera (serial drama), Monday–Friday
Series premiere (in-universe)	Monday, January 3, 2005
Present day	2005 — the story moves forward in real time from here
Setting	A fictional, private, gated luxury community in the affluent Atlanta, Georgia area
Core family	The Donohues — Victor, Joan, Jasmine, Natasha, and Alvin
Family identity	A "powerful and prestigious multigenerational family" — "Black Royalty"
Cast	Primarily African American, with a few non-Black characters
Storytelling tools	Screenplay-format scenes + in-world news/media headlines + 2005-era internet & fan reaction
Deliverables	Every document is also delivered as a PDF

Premise: Set in a fictional gated community in the affluent Atlanta area, Beyond the Kingdom tells the story of a wealthy Black family in a posh, gated community. At the center of the story is the Donohue Family — Victor, Joan, Jasmine, Natasha, and Alvin — a powerful and prestigious multigenerational family known as "Black Royalty."

Character bios, birthdays, and backstories arrive in the next document (Document 02 — Character Bible).

2. Episodes Per Year — 250

Answer: 250 new episodes per year.

- A real daytime soap airs every weekday — about 260 airdates per year.
- In 2005 there are 255 weekday airdates after the usual holiday preemptions (Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, and the Christmas observance).
- Taking out about 5 more days for real-world preemptions (breaking news, sports, presidential addresses) leaves 250. That is the real network daytime standard for a one-hour soap.

- Every broadcast week is 5 episodes, and the story moves on each weekday.

3. Season Numbering — The Broadcast-Season Model

Answer: Number seasons by the U.S. broadcast TV season, which runs from mid-September to mid-September. Number episodes cumulatively and never reset them.

Real daytime soaps work this way. They don't restart at "Episode 1" each season. The episode counter runs continuously (for example, Episode #5,000), and "seasons" are industry bookkeeping tied to the fall broadcast season. A soap that premieres mid-season (like ours, in January) has a shortened first season.

Season	Broadcast Window	Airdate Slots	New Episodes	Episode Numbers
Season 1 (Premiere Season)	Mon Jan 3, 2005 – Fri Sep 16, 2005	182	180	#0001 – #0180
Season 2	Mon Sep 19, 2005 – Fri Sep 15, 2006	254	250	#0181 – #0430
Season 3 and beyond	Mid-September to mid-September	~255	250	Continues cumulatively

How to reference an episode: Season 1 · Episode #0001 · Monday, January 3, 2005

Holidays with no new episode in Season 1: Memorial Day (Mon May 30, 2005), Independence Day (Mon Jul 4, 2005), Labor Day (Mon Sep 5, 2005). The two real-world preemptions are locked:

Thursday, January 20, 2005 (Presidential Inauguration coverage) and Friday, September 2, 2005 (Hurricane Katrina news coverage).

Sweeps periods (ratings months — the biggest cliffhangers, weddings, deaths, and reveals land here):

- February 2005 sweeps: about Feb 3 – Mar 2, 2005
- May 2005 sweeps: about Apr 28 – May 25, 2005
- November 2005 sweeps: about Oct 27 – Nov 23, 2005
- Season finale: Friday, September 16, 2005 — the biggest Friday cliffhanger of the year

4. Serialized vs. Standalone — 95% / 5%

Answer: 95% serialized, 5% standalone.

- 95% serialized: Every episode continues the storylines from the day before. Storylines overlap, pick up where they left off, and pay off weeks or months later. This is the real daytime formula.
- 5% "standalone-feel" specials: About 12–13 episodes a year. They still count in continuity, but each one centers on a single event or format:

- Holiday episodes (Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's Eve)
- Flashback / "family history" episodes about the Donohue legacy
- A wedding, funeral, or gala shown across one full hour
- "Two-hander" episodes (a single long confrontation between two characters)
- Anniversary episodes
- Continuity rule: Nothing is ever "reset." Every event, injury, secret, marriage, birth, death, and lie is permanent canon unless the story itself changes it (a reveal, a lie exposed, a return).

Continuity Protocol

1. Master Timeline Log: Every scene carries a date and time stamp.
2. Age Tracker: Ages are calculated from locked birthdays and change on each birthday. A character's age on any date is always exact.
3. No SORAS without an on-screen reason. ("Soap Opera Rapid Aging" is a common soap trick. We avoid it to keep it real.)
4. Story Ledger: An ongoing list of open secrets (who knows what, and since when).
5. Relationship Map: Marriages, divorces, affairs, and paternity, all dated.

5. Genre, Subgenres, Rating & Runtime

Category	Answer
Primary Genre	Daytime Soap Opera / Serial Drama
Subgenres	Family saga · Dynasty/wealth drama · Romantic melodrama · Corporate & political power drama · Mystery/suspense · Legal drama · Crime thriller
Themes	Legacy, power, loyalty, betrayal, secrets, class within the Black elite, faith, ambition, love
Tone	Glamorous, high-stakes, emotional, realistic — "Black Royalty" behind the gates
Rating	TV-14 (D, L, S, V) — suggestive dialogue, strong language, sexual situations, violence (within daytime network standards)
Timeslot	One-hour weekday broadcast (e.g., 1:00–2:00 PM ET)
Runtime	60-minute slot · about 42 minutes of story (2005 network daytime hours ran about 18 minutes of commercials, promos, and credits)

6. Episode Titles

Answer: Real daytime soaps don't give episodes titles. Each episode is identified by its episode number + air date, plus an internal production number.

Official format:

BEYOND THE KINGDOM — Episode #0001

Air Date: Monday, January 3, 2005

Prod. #BTK-0001

Special exception: Landmark episodes get an in-world promo "event name" for press, ads, and fans. Examples:

- "The Premiere" (Ep #0001)
- "The Donohue Gala" (a sweeps event)
- "The 100th Episode" (Ep #0100)
- "Season Finale" (Ep #0180)

These names appear only in marketing, soap-magazine headlines, and fan chatter. They never replace the number and date.

7. Script Length, Acts & Scenes

Element	Standard
Script length	75–90 pages (target: 80 pages) for a one-hour daytime episode. Daytime scripts are dialogue-heavy and multi-camera, so they run longer than a primetime hour.
Structure	Teaser (Cold Open) + 6 Acts
Scenes	24–30 scenes per episode (target: 28)
Storylines per episode	3–5 storylines rotated through the acts
Scenes per act	Teaser: 1–2 · Acts 1–6: 4–5 each
Act breaks	Every act ends on a "hook" (a reveal, a slap, a stare, a doorbell). Act 6 ends on the day's cliffhanger.
Friday rule	The Friday cliffhanger is the biggest of the week. It keeps the audience coming back Monday.

Episode Template

1. Title Card: Episode #, air date, production #, in-universe dates covered
2. TEASER (Cold Open): Picks up exactly where the last episode ended
3. Main Title Sequence
4. ACT ONE – ACT SIX: Scenes rotate between storylines
5. Cliffhanger Tag
6. "Next on Beyond the Kingdom" preview
7. Media & Fan Layer: News headlines, press, and fan posts reacting to that episode's events

Screenplay Scene Format

INT. [LOCATION] - [DAY/NIGHT]
[Day, Month Date, 2005 – Time]

[Action lines in present tense.]

CHARACTER NAME (age)
(parenthetical)
Dialogue.

8. Storytelling Layers (2005 Period Accuracy)

The story is told through three layers:

A. Screenplay Scenes — character-driven dialogue that drives the drama.

B. News & Media (2005 outlets and formats)

- Local Atlanta print and TV news, business pages, society columns, and gossip columns
- National Black media (magazines, cable entertainment news, radio)
- Business press for Donohue corporate storylines
- Soap magazine coverage (weekly soap digests, covers, spoilers)

C. The Internet & Fans — only what existed in 2005

- Available in 2005: Soap message boards and forums, AOL, email chains, fan sites, LiveJournal, Xanga, BlackPlanet, MySpace, Blogger/blogs, text messaging (SMS), two-way pagers/Sidekicks/BlackBerrys, flip phones (e.g., Motorola RAZR)
 - Facebook: Limited to college students in 2005
 - YouTube: Launches in 2005 (public beta in spring). Not usable in January 2005.
 - Not yet available — never use in 2005 scenes: Twitter (2006), iPhone (2007), Instagram (2010), smartphone apps, hashtags as a trend culture, streaming services

9. Timeline & Age Rules

- Every scene carries an in-universe date and time (e.g., Monday, January 3, 2005 — 7:42 PM EST).
- Atlanta is in Eastern Time. EST applies until DST begins on Sunday, April 3, 2005, then EDT until Sunday, October 30, 2005.
- Ages are calculated from each character's exact birthday. A character born June 10, 1950 is 54 on January 3, 2005 and turns 55 on June 10, 2005.
- Birthdays are on-screen events when they matter to the story.

- One airdate usually covers one story day. Timelines can compress (several episodes covering one gala night) or skip (a time jump announced on screen).

10. Quick Reference Summary

BEYOND THE KINGDOM — Character Bible

Document 02 · Locked Canon · Core Families & Principal Characters

All ages are exact as of Premiere Day: Monday, January 3, 2005

How to Read This Bible

- Age (1/3/05) is the exact age on premiere day. Next birthday shows the age they turn during 2005. Run `python3 tools/ages.py YYYY-MM-DD` for any date.
 - "Black Don't Crack" rule: Every character looks noticeably younger than their age. A Looks line gives the on-screen appearance age range for casting and description.
 - SECRET marks canon that is hidden from other characters, and sometimes from the audience. Nothing marked SECRET may be revealed on screen without a planned story arc.
 - All principal characters in this document are African American.

THE DONOHUE FAMILY

Alexander Josiah Donohue — The Founder (Deceased)

- Born: March 14, 1905, Americus, Georgia · Died: December 31, 1999, 11:58 PM, Donohue Manor, Belmont Crest (aged 94)
- Founder of Donohue Global Holdings and co-founder of Belmont Crest. He was born the son of sharecroppers and walked into Atlanta at 16 with three dollars sewn into his coat lining. He built the largest fortune in human history.
- He died two minutes before the year 2000. Family legend says he "refused to see a century he didn't build."
- His 1996 Codicil to the Crown Trust named his great-grandson Marc-Anthony the Heir Apparent. That decision still divides the family (see Document 03).
- Quote carved over the Manor fireplace: "They closed every door, so I built the house."

Simone Toussaint Donohue — The Queen Mother

- Born: November 2, 1910, New Orleans, Louisiana · Age: 94 · Looks: early 70s
- Creole of color and a licensed pharmacist (Xavier University of Louisiana, Class of 1931). Her apothecary formulas became the seed of Donohue Health & Beauty.
- Co-founder of Belmont Crest. In 1959 she stood on her porch with a shotgun while a cross burned at the front gate. The next morning she served the reporters coffee.
- She lives in the Dowager House at Belmont Crest. She still attends every Crown Council meeting and still has a vote. Everyone, including Victor, is afraid of her.
- Holds: "The Savannah Letter," the one document that proves what really happened between Alexander and Cornelius Smilley in 1952 (see Document 05).
- Voice: Soft Creole lilt, devastating one-liners, never raises her voice. "Baby, I buried a husband, a century, and three governors. Don't try me before lunch."
- Relationship to Marc-Anthony: He is her "Sunshine." He has Sunday dinner with her every week without fail.

Theodore Alexander Donohue — The Passed-Over Son

- Born: July 31, 1934 · Age: 70 · Looks: late 50s
- Eldest son of Alexander and Simone. Howard University School of Law. Fulton County District Attorney 1971–1987, then senior counsel to Donohue Global Holdings until he retired in 1999.
- Respected, powerful, influential, corrupt, and ruthless. As DA he buried cases for friends, built cases against enemies, and kept files on everyone in Georgia. Those files still exist, in a climate-controlled vault under his house.
- The wound: In 1966 Alexander made Victor, the younger son, CEO of the newly formed Donohue Global Holdings. In 1996 he gave Victor the chairmanship too. Theodore has smiled at every family dinner for 39 years and has forgotten nothing.
- Married: Three times. His current wife is Constance "Connie" Donohue (38; see Document 07). His son is Reginald Donohue (47; see Document 07).
- THE EXILE (2003–2005):
 - In March 2003, Theodore sued to break the Codicil in Fulton County Superior Court. He lost.
 - Simone banished her eldest son from the Summit for two years.
 - Theodore, Connie, and Reginald have lived in Monte Carlo, Monaco ever since. Reginald runs Donohue Realty from London.
 - Ashgrove (3 Sovereign Way) sits shuttered and dark.
 - Theodore votes on the Crown Council by written proxy only.
- SCREEN RULE: Theodore and his family do not appear on screen until Episode #176 (Monday, September 12, 2005), the final week of Season 1. They become Core Contract Cast in Season 2. Until then, the audience hears only Martin's side of his calls to "overseas."
- SECRET: Theodore is quietly advising Martin Olson on how to take the Heir Apparent designation away from Marc-Anthony. He plans to use Martin to put Theodore's branch of the family back on the throne.
- Voice: Courtroom baritone, Southern gentility, velvet threats. "I don't hold grudges, nephew. I hold receipts."

Victor Donohue — The King

- Born: May 30, 1936 · Age: 68 · Looks: mid-50s
- Youngest son of Alexander and Simone. Morehouse College '57, Harvard Business School '59.
- Former CEO, Donohue Global Holdings (1966–1996). In 30 years he turned his father's Auburn Avenue businesses into the largest company in the world.
- Chairman, Donohue Global Holdings (1996–present).
- Respected, powerful, influential, ruthless, dangerous, and astronomically wealthy. He negotiates by staying silent. Senators take his calls on the first ring, and his enemies sometimes hear from him only after their companies are gone.
- Married: Joan Mercer on Saturday, June 20, 1959, in the first wedding ever held at Belmont Crest Chapel.

- Children: Jasmine (1960), Natasha (1961), Alvin (1970).
- With Marc-Anthony: Victor sees himself in his grandson and worries about that. Victor privately suspects Marc is hiding something enormous. He hasn't asked, because he isn't sure he wants the answer.
- Voice: Measured, low, final. "In this family we don't raise our voices. We raise our prices."

The Honorable Joan Mercer Donohue — The Judge

- Born: April 17, 1938, Atlanta (Vine City) · Age: 66 · Looks: early 50s
- Spelman College '59. Married Victor two weeks after graduating. She was one of the few Black women in her Howard University School of Law class and graduated in 1964.
- Civil rights litigator from 1964 to 1979. She argued desegregation, voting rights, and fair-housing cases across the Deep South.
- U.S. District Judge, Northern District of Georgia (1979–2003), appointed by President Carter. She took senior status and retired in 2003.
- Respected, powerful, influential, astronomically wealthy philanthropist. She chairs the Donohue Foundation.
- The moral center of the family, and the only person who can make Victor apologize. She believes in the law, which puts her in quiet, permanent conflict with her husband, her son-in-law Robert, and (without her knowing it) her favorite grandson.
- Voice: Precise, warm, withering. "Objection, sustained, and sit down."

Alvin Mercer Donohue — The Prince of Nightlife

- Born: October 8, 1970 · Age: 34 · Looks: late 20s
- Youngest son of Victor and Joan. He was a "surprise" baby born nine years after Natasha, and he has been spoiled rotten from the start.
- A literal party boy. He owns stakes in three Atlanta nightclubs (Velvet, Sanctuary, and The Onyx Room), a strip club he swears he doesn't own, and a Miami yacht nicknamed "The Alibi."
- Deeply involved in politics: He's a top Democratic fundraiser, bundles donations for city council, the state house, and Congress, and knows where every politician in Georgia drinks.
- Deeply involved in the underworld: He owes money and favors to Silas Merriweather, Atlanta's old-school kingpin (see Document 07). He launders club cash for people Victor has never heard of.
- Sleeps around and never uses protection. Nobody knows how many children he has, including Alvin.
 - SECRET (seeded): Tremaine Banks (12), son of Rochelle Banks of College Park, is Alvin's son. Rochelle has never asked for a dime. Tremaine has the Donohue eyes. More possible children are held in reserve for future stories.
- SCREEN RULE: Alvin has spent the past year in Miami on his yacht "The Alibi," dodging a federal grand jury subpoena and a debt to Silas Merriweather. He is mentioned but never seen until Episode #90 (Monday, May 9, 2005), the halfway point of Season 1, when his helicopter lands on the Summit.

- With Marc-Anthony: Alvin is Marc's favorite uncle and a terrible influence. Marc has quietly cleaned up three of Alvin's messes, and Alvin has no idea who did it.
 - Voice: Loud, charming, a little too drunk. "Mama says I'm the family's black sheep. I said, Mama, I'm the family's whole farm."

THE OLSON FAMILY

Congresswoman Jasmine Donohue Olson — The Politician

- Born: March 23, 1960 · Age: 44 · Looks: mid-30s
- Eldest child of Victor and Joan. Spelman '81, Georgetown Law '84.
- U.S. Representative from Georgia (1987–present). She was sworn in January 1987 at age 26, among the youngest women ever elected to Congress. She represents the north-metro Atlanta district that includes Belmont Crest. (Following soap convention, the district is never given a real number on screen.)
- She sits on the House Ways and Means Committee and is openly mentioned as a future Senate candidate. Privately she has vice-presidential ambitions.
- Married: Dr. Peter Olson, Saturday, June 14, 1980. Their marriage is a genuine love match that is also a political partnership.
- Children: Martin (1981), and Mallory (1985), her "miracle child." Mallory came after a devastating 1983 miscarriage and doctors telling her she would never carry again.
- Blind spot: She sees Martin's hunger as ambition and cannot see that it's something darker.
- Voice: Poised, polling-tested, lethal off-mic. "I have 700,000 constituents, Martin. Don't make me choose."

Dr. Peter Olson — The Surgeon

- Born: November 13, 1959, Detroit, Michigan · Age: 45 · Looks: late 30s
- Son of an auto-plant foreman and a schoolteacher. He earned everything himself: University of Michigan '80, Johns Hopkins MD '84, residency and fellowship at Emory.
- Chief of Plastic Surgery, Atlanta Presbyterian Medical Center. Founder of Olson Facial & Aesthetic Surgery in Buckhead. He is dual board-certified in Plastic Surgery and Otolaryngology (ENT).
- Respected, powerful, insanely wealthy. Half the faces in Buckhead society are his work, and he keeps all of their secrets.
- SECRET: In April 2001, Peter was paid $5 million in cash to rebuild the destroyed face of an anonymous masked patient at a private clinic in Cancún. He asked no questions. The patient was Vaughn "Silk" Harlow, who survived the Blackwater Syndicate in 2000 (see Document 06).

- Loves Jasmine deeply and worships Mallory. Where Martin is concerned he is quietly afraid, because he once saw what Martin did to a dog when Martin was nine.
- Voice: Gentle Midwestern calm. "I can fix anything but a face that lies."

Martin Donohue Olson — The Rival

- Born: May 15, 1981 · Age: 23 · Looks: early 20s
- Eldest child of Peter and Jasmine, and the eldest grandchild of Victor Donohue. He was born eight months before Marc-Anthony and believes that makes the throne his by right.
- Princeton '02 (economics, summa cum laude). Senior Vice President of Strategic Development, Donohue Global Holdings.
- Marc-Anthony's fierce rival and sworn enemy. Their rivalry started over toys, grew over grades, and became permanent on Sunday, October 13, 1996, when the Codicil was read aloud and Martin, then 15, heard his 14-year-old cousin named Heir Apparent.
- He wants to be the Donohue Heir and take over the company.
- Astronomically deadly. Martin is an expert marksman and a trained fighter who has studied poisons, and he has no conscience at all.
 - SECRET: Martin has killed three people as of 2005, each an "accident": a Princeton rival (1999), a blackmailing girlfriend (2002), and a DGH whistle-blower (2004). None of the deaths has been connected to him.
 - SECRET: He employs a private operator, Cyrus Knox (see Document 07), and has quietly started talks with Desmond Smilley, a Donohue enemy.
 - SECRET: Martin is hunting for the identity of "Sovereign," the boss of the Blackwater Syndicate, so he can destroy the organization and take credit for it. He has no idea Sovereign is Marc-Anthony. When he finds out, the war begins.
- Voice: Smooth, courteous, cold. "Everyone loves Marc. That's what makes it so easy."

Mallory Simone Olson — The Miracle Child

- Born: June 5, 1985 · Age: 19 · Looks: late teens
- Youngest child of Peter and Jasmine, and their "miracle."
- Very intelligent and business-savvy. Spelman College junior (economics), taking a lighter course load to run her father's practice as Office Manager of Olson Facial & Aesthetic Surgery. She has grown its revenue 40% in 18 months.
- Spoiled and a daddy's girl. She has a black AmEx, a white Range Rover, and she calls Peter "Daddy" in board meetings.
- Planning to launch her own business with her cousin Grace: "GRACE & GLORY", a luxury beauty and lifestyle brand of skincare, fragrance, and cosmetics built on Great-Grandmother Simone's original 1930s apothecary formulas.
- A virgin. Her choice, her values, her business. It's never played as a joke.

- Story seed: She is falling, against every rule, for Quentin Smilley (see Document 05), a party boy from the enemy family.
 - Voice: Bright, fast, a little bratty. "Daddy, I didn't spend the money. I invested it in my happiness."

THE BULLOCK FAMILY

Robert Lee Bullock, Esq. — The Fixer

- Born: February 10, 1959, Savannah, Georgia · Age: 45 · Looks: late 30s
- Son of a longshoreman. Morehouse '80, Yale Law '83.
- Founder & Managing Partner, Bullock & Associates, LLP (1985–present). It's the most feared criminal-defense firm in the South, with offices in Atlanta, Miami, New York, D.C., and Los Angeles.
- Respected, powerful, influential, astronomically corrupt, astronomically ruthless, and insanely wealthy. He has never lost a murder trial. Rumor says that's because some witnesses never make it to trial.
- Married: Natasha Donohue, Saturday, September 19, 1981. They're a power couple, and more partners in crime than a romance. They still genuinely want each other.
- Children: Elxa (1980, born before the wedding; a family "scandal" that's now a punchline), Marc-Anthony (1982), Grace (1984).
- SECRET: Robert has a long-running affair with his senior partner Camille Rhodes (see Document 07).
- SECRET: In late 2004, Robert and Victor privately leaned on the mayor to make Elxa Chief of Police. Elxa doesn't know.
- Voice: Silk and gravel. "Innocent? Son, innocent is a price point."

Natasha Donohue Bullock — The Empress

- Born: June 2, 1961 · Age: 43 · Looks: early 30s
- Middle child of Victor and Joan. Spelman '82, Wharton MBA '85.
- CEO, Donohue Global Holdings (1996–present). She runs the world's largest, most valuable company, a $10 trillion empire, day to day. Her personal passion is still the family's original business, the 3,100+ hotels of Donohue Hotels & Resorts.
- Respected, powerful, influential, ruthless, dangerous, insanely wealthy.
- She likes to bend the rules, and her son gets it from her. She has bribed a Monaco zoning board, blackmailed a Las Vegas regulator, and once bought a Caribbean island to win an argument.
- With Marc-Anthony: He's her heart and her co-conspirator. She suspects he has secrets and has decided never to ask. "A mother knows when not to know."

- Voice: Glamorous, blunt, amused. "Rules are for people without lawyers. I married a lawyer."

Chief Elxa Bullock Jackson — The Law

- Born: August 29, 1980 · Age: 24 · Looks: early 20s
- Eldest child of Robert and Natasha. She was a gifted student who skipped two grades. Georgia State University B.S. in Criminal Justice (1999, age 18) and M.S. in Criminology (2001).
- Joined the Atlanta Police Department as soon as she met the minimum age. She rose through the ranks at a speed nobody in APD had ever seen:
 - Patrol officer (2001), then Detective in the Major Crimes/Homicide unit (2002).
 - Solved the "Peachtree Strangler" murders (2003) and made Lieutenant, Homicide (2004).
 - Her unit's clearance rate was the highest in APD history.
- Chief of Police, Atlanta Police Department. Appointed by Mayor Josephine Whitaker and sworn in Monday, December 20, 2004. She's the youngest big-city police chief in American history.
 - Storyline: Her appointment is a firestorm. Critics call her the "Nepotism Chief" (her father-in-law is the retiring chief and her family is the Donohues). Supporters point to her record, which is spotless.
 - SECRET: Her father and grandfather quietly pushed the mayor to appoint her. Elxa believes she earned it on merit alone, and her record says she did.
- The complete opposite of her brother. Elxa does everything by the book, and the book is her religion.
- Married: Detective Jeremy Jackson, Saturday, October 16, 2004, at Belmont Crest Chapel.
- Her #1 case: The Blackwater Syndicate. She has promised the city she will bring down "Sovereign." She has no idea she's hunting her little brother.
- Voice: Clipped, controlled, cop-flat. "I don't do favors, Marc. I do warrants."

Marc-Anthony Bullock — The Heir Apparent

- Born: Tuesday, January 5, 1982, Crawford Long Hospital, Atlanta · Age: 22 (turns 23 on Wednesday, January 5, 2005, in Episode #0003) · Looks: early 20s
- Second child and only son of Robert and Natasha. Grandson of Victor and Joan. Great-grandson of Alexander and Simone.
- Billionaire Heir and Primary Heir Apparent of the Donohue family, named by Alexander's 1996 Codicil. Under its terms he becomes eligible to take the Vice Chairmanship of Donohue Global Holdings on his 25th birthday (January 5, 2007) and the Chairmanship when Victor steps down. The clock is ticking, and Martin knows it.
- The Golden Boy of the Donohue Family.
- Education:
 - Graduated Belmont Crest Academy at 12 (1994).

- Morehouse College, B.S. Mathematics and B.A. Economics, 1997 (age 15).
- Harvard, joint J.D./M.B.A., 2001 (age 19).
- IQ: A reported 250, the highest ever recorded. He has a reputation for exceptional intelligence: he reads a 400-page contract in 20 minutes, speaks nine languages, and plays chess against three people at once while roasting all of them.
- Founder, Chairman & CEO, Blackwater Security International (BSI), 2002–present (see Document 06).
- SECRET (maximum clearance): Founder & Boss of the Blackwater Syndicate (2000–present), known only as "SOVEREIGN." Only the Syndicate's inner circle, "The Seven," know his face. Arianna Cummings knows but is not a member.
- Net worth: Forbes' publicly estimated figure is $38.6 billion (2005). The true figure is much higher. Forbes can't see his sealed DGH trust interests ($150B; see Document 13) or anything off the books. His future personal net worth will pass $990 billion and keep rising every single day.
- Personality:
 - The sweetest, kindest, most loving, compassionate, innocent, and pure man in the world. He tips waiters 100%, remembers every staff member's kids' birthdays, and cries at movies.
 - But hurt someone he loves and he becomes a monster: a dangerous, unstoppable man. There's no middle setting.
 - A certified crash-out. (Writers' shorthand only: Harry Potter and Percy Jackson times 2000. In-universe, Percy Jackson won't be published until June 2005.) When he snaps, cars flip, buildings burn, and companies vanish by morning.
 - Bends the rules and takes creative liberties whenever the rules or laws are unjust, unfair, or ridiculous. His motto: "The law is a floor, not a ceiling." He's the complete opposite of his older sister Elxa.
 - Exceptionally outgoing and charismatic. He's a natural in the spotlight and on camera, and the tabloids love him.
 - Natural appearance, distinctive features, and effortless charisma.
 - Genuinely hilarious. His comedy is unhinged, unfiltered, and offensive, and nobody is safe, including himself and his grandfather.
- His #1 ultimate dream: A family, a big, gigantic family. Kids are non-negotiable. He believes in generational wealth.
 - Kids love him and he loves kids. He mentors 40 boys through the Donohue Foundation, reads to the pediatric ward at Eggleston Children's Hospital every other Thursday, and is godfather to Lyric Solace Baker.
 - SECRET (dramatic irony): He already has two daughters, twins Emma and Victoria Smilley, and has absolutely zero idea.
- Love interest / soulmate: Esther Smilley. They have not met yet as themselves, and their story won't start right away.

- SECRET: They met exactly once, masked, on the night of Saturday, September 1, 2001, at a Labor Day weekend masquerade (see Esther below). Marc remembers only a gold mask, a laugh, and the smell of jasmine. He has quietly looked for "the woman in the gold mask" ever since.
- Relationships: Ride-or-die with Grace. Brotherhood with Amond. Unbreakable friendship with Arianna. Loving, argumentative war with Elxa. Blood feud with Martin. Adores Simone, Joan, and Nana Ruby (the Bullock housekeeper). Currently on-and-off with news anchor Celeste Vaughn (see Document 07).
- Residences:
 - The Bullock Pavilion, 25 Sovereign Way, Belmont Crest.
 - The 58th-floor penthouse of BSI Tower in Midtown.
 - A villa in St. Barthélemy.
- Voice: Sweet, fast, filthy, brilliant. "I'm the nicest man you'll ever meet. Now touch my sister again and meet the other guy."

Grace Natasha Bullock — The Star

- Born: April 12, 1984 · Age: 20 · Looks: late teens
- Youngest child of Robert and Natasha.
- Respected and powerful actress and singer.
 - Starred as "Keisha" on the UPN sitcom Sweet Tea (2000–2004).
 - Her debut album Amazing Grace (Oct 2004) went platinum in six weeks. The lead single is "Crown Me."
 - She's now shooting her first major studio film.
- Planning to launch her own business with her cousin Mallory: GRACE & GLORY (see Mallory).
- Ride-or-die with her brother. She would literally hide a body for him.
 - SECRET: On the night of Saturday, July 15, 2000, when she was 16, Marc and Amond saved her from men who drugged her at a Buckhead party. She knows the men were never seen again. She has never asked what happened. That night is the reason the Blackwater Syndicate exists (see Document 06).
- Voice: Sunny, sassy, fierce. "I love my brother. I own a shovel. Those facts are unrelated."

Detective Jeremy Jackson — The Boy Scout

- Born: December 2, 1980 · Age: 24 · Looks: early 20s
- Son of former APD Chief Harold Jackson (see Document 07). Clark Atlanta University '02.
- Senior Detective, APD Homicide. He's the department's best interrogator.

- A Boy Scout (literally an Eagle Scout) who does things 100% by the book. He has never taken a free coffee.
 - Married: Elxa, October 16, 2004. Storyline: His wife is now his boss's boss's boss. His marriage, his career, and his pride are on a collision course.
 - Likes Marc personally but doesn't trust him. He is the first person to notice that the Blackwater case and the Bullock family keep crossing paths.
 - Voice: Earnest and stubborn. "Rules are what keep us from becoming them."

THE INNER CIRCLE

Amond Baker — The Right Hand

- Born: February 10, 1982 · Age: 22 · Looks: early 20s
- Son of Dr. Curtis Baker (dentist) and Gloria Baker (high school principal). They're an upper-middle-class family in the Magnolia Terrace section of Belmont Crest (see Documents 04 and 07).
- Marc-Anthony's best friend, brother, and right-hand man since kindergarten at Belmont Crest Academy. Morehouse '04 (business).
- Publicly: Senior Vice President of Strategic Operations, BSI.
- SECRET: Underboss of the Blackwater Syndicate, "The Right Hand." He's second only to Sovereign.
- He wants to become a respected, powerful, ruthless, dangerous, and corrupt businessman. He grew up next to billionaires and is tired of being "the dentist's son."
- Father of Lyric Solace Baker.
 - Lyric was conceived in July 2001 after one night with Harmony Divine at a Midtown club.
 - Harmony tracked him down in February 2002, and a DNA test confirmed he's the father. Amond acknowledged Lyric immediately and pays generous support through attorneys.
 - Marc-Anthony is Lyric's godfather.
 - But Amond and Harmony don't really know each other. They co-parent through lawyers, nannies, and 10-minute handoffs in the Phipps Plaza parking deck.
- Love interest: Harmony Divine. Their story becomes an on-again, off-again, toxic, electric relationship once they finally have to talk to each other.
- Voice: Cool, calculating, hungry. "Marc was born a king. I have to be made one."

District Attorney Arianna Cummings — The Right Hand Woman

- Born: October 25, 1982 · Age: 22 · Looks: early 20s

- Daughter of media mogul Franklin Cummings and cardiologist Dr. Yvette Cummings. They're an upper-class family on Kingsridge Drive, Belmont Crest (see Document 07).
 - Marc-Anthony's female best friend, sister, and right-hand woman.
 - A prodigy:
 - Spelman College at 14, B.A. at 16 (1999).
 - Emory University School of Law, J.D. at 18 (2001).
 - Passed the Georgia Bar in July 2001 and was admitted October 2, 2001, three weeks before turning 19.
 - Fulton County District Attorney.
 - Won the November 2, 2004 election over incumbent DA Lawrence Tate, who collapsed after a bribery scandal broke in September.
 - Georgia requires three years of active bar membership. She qualified by exactly 31 days.
 - Sworn in Saturday, January 1, 2005, two days before the premiere.
 - She wants to become Attorney General of Georgia.
 - SECRET (maybe, maybe not): She has skeletons in her closet that Marc helped bury.
 - The truth: On New Year's Eve 2001 (early Tuesday, January 1, 2002, at about 2:40 AM), Arianna, 19 and drunk, hit and killed a man on a dark stretch of road off Northside Drive. She called Marc, not 911. By sunrise the car had been crushed and the body was gone. The victim was never reported found.
 - SECRET within the secret: The man was Darnell "Dee" Divine, the missing older brother of Harmony Divine. Harmony has been searching for him for three years.
 - SECRET within the secret within the secret: Marc also knows who tipped off the Tate scandal that got Arianna elected, because he did it.
 - Arianna knows Marc is Sovereign. She's not a member. She protects him with plausible deniability, and he protects her with silence.
 - Voice: Crisp, brilliant, guilty. "Justice is blind, Marc. That's why I keep one eye open."

THE WOMAN IN THE GOLD MASK

Esther Odessa Smilley — The Heiress

- Born: September 20, 1982, Chicago, Illinois · Age: 22 · Looks: early 20s
- Billionaire heiress of the Smilley family. Youngest of three children of Lucius and Vivienne Smilley. Full family in Document 05.
- Her parents' designated heir to Smilley International, chosen over her older siblings Luke and Delphine. They have never forgiven her.

- Northwestern University, B.S. (2004), and the youngest person ever admitted to Kellogg's Executive MBA program. President, Smiley International Atlanta, the division leading the company's January 2005 headquarters move from Chicago to Atlanta, straight into Donohue territory.
- 1000% ruthless and corrupt. She'll bribe, blackmail, seduce, sabotage, and smile the whole time.
- The most beautiful and attractive woman in the world, all natural. She's been on the cover of Vogue, Essence, Ebony, Jet, and Forbes.
- Her best friend and sister: Harmony Divine, her freshman roommate at Northwestern.
- Love interest / soulmate: Marc-Anthony Bullock. He doesn't know it yet, and their story won't start right away.
- SECRET (the show's biggest secret):
 - On Saturday, September 1, 2001, Labor Day weekend, Esther, just shy of 19, went to a private masquerade at a Sag Harbor Hills estate on Long Island. She wore a gold mask, drank too much, and spent the night with a funny, beautiful stranger in a black mask. He gave her a fake name ("Tony").
 - She found out who he really was 11 weeks later, when she saw Marc-Anthony Bullock laughing on the cover of Black Enterprise. He's the heir of the family her family hates most.
 - She was pregnant with twins. She decided alone to keep the secret and raise the girls as Smilleys.
 - Cover story: She publicly chose IVF with an anonymous sperm donor. The tabloids called her "the youngest billionaire single mother by choice," and the world believed it.
 - Only Esther knows the truth. Even Harmony believes the donor story.
- Why it matters (see Document 03): Under the Crown Trust Codicil, the Heir Apparent's line of succession runs through his children. Emma and Victoria are Donohue heirs. If the secret comes out, the two warring dynasties are joined forever.
- Avoidance pattern: Esther has skipped every event where Marc might appear, including Lyric's christening (where Marc became godfather). She always has a different excuse.
- Voice: Silk over steel. "I don't need a man, a donor, or your permission. I need you out of my building."

Harmony Divine — The Best Friend

- Born: June 19, 1982 (Juneteenth) · Age: 22 · Looks: early 20s
- Daughter of Calvin Divine (MARTA bus operator) and Loretta Divine (Grady Memorial ER charge nurse). They're a middle-class family from the Cascade Heights neighborhood of southwest Atlanta (see Document 07).
- Went to Northwestern on a full academic scholarship, where she roomed with Esther Smiley. They've been sisters ever since.
- Wants to become a respected and powerful real estate broker. She got her Georgia real estate license in 2004 and is an agent at a small Buckhead brokerage, where she's hungry and underestimated.

- Mother of Lyric Solace Baker with Amond Baker. See Amond for how that happened.
 - Missing brother: Darnell "Dee" Divine vanished on New Year's Eve 2001. Harmony has posted flyers, bothered APD, and run a LiveJournal called "Find Dee" every week for three years. She has no idea the District Attorney killed him.
 - Love interest: Amond Baker. It's on-again, off-again, toxic, and irresistible.
 - Voice: Warm, funny, relentless. "I'm not pushy. I'm motivated. There's a difference and it's a commission."

THE CHILDREN

Emma Alexandra Smilley — The Elder Twin

- Born: Friday, May 10, 2002, 4:12 AM, Northwestern Memorial Hospital, Chicago · Age: 2 · Looks: 2
- Eldest daughter of Marc-Anthony Bullock and Esther Smilley. Older twin by 6 minutes.
- Future canon: 1000% a daddy's girl, spoiled by him endlessly, but she understands the true meaning of hard work. Respectful and responsible.
- Nearly all of her talent and personality is inherited from Marc.
 - At 2 she's already reading picture books aloud, doing 24-piece puzzles face-down, and correcting adults' grammar.
 - She has his dimples and his laugh. Esther hears it every day and it scares her every time.

Victoria Simone Smilley — The Younger Twin

- Born: Friday, May 10, 2002, 4:18 AM, Northwestern Memorial Hospital, Chicago · Age: 2 · Looks: 2
- Daughter of Marc-Anthony Bullock and Esther Smilley. Younger twin.
- Future canon: 1000% a daddy's girl, endlessly spoiled, but she knows the true meaning of hard work. Respectful and responsible, and a literal wild child (contained).
- Nearly all of her talent and personality is inherited from Marc.
 - She has already escaped two cribs, one nanny, and a Four Seasons presidential suite.
 - She's funny on purpose at age 2.
- Name note: Esther named her after "victory." She doesn't know that Victor Donohue is the girls' great-grandfather. The middle name "Simone" was Esther's grandmother Odessa's suggestion. Nobody at Ravenhurst knows it matches the Donohue matriarch's name. It's a coincidence nobody has noticed yet.

Lyric Solace Baker — The Angel

- Born: Saturday, April 20, 2002, Piedmont Hospital, Atlanta · Age: 2 · Looks: 2
 - Daughter of Amond Baker and Harmony Divine. Goddaughter of Marc-Anthony Bullock.
 - A literal sweetheart and an angel. She sings to strangers, shares every snack, and hugs dogs, security guards, and the occasional mall Santa.
 - Dramatic irony: Lyric's best playmates are "Emmie and Tori," Aunt Esther's twins. The three little girls play together every week, and Marc's goddaughter is best friends with Marc's secret daughters.

How the empire is built:

- Donohue Global Holdings is the financial umbrella above everything. It rarely operates companies directly.
 - It holds controlling interests through subsidiaries, investment vehicles, trusts, and controlling stakes.
 - Donohue Enterprises is the family's operating empire, the management company that runs the day-to-day businesses.

Part One — The Boy From Americus (1905–1923)

- Tuesday, March 14, 1905: Alexander Josiah Donohue is born in a two-room sharecropper's cabin outside Americus, Sumter County, Georgia. He is the fourth of seven children of Josiah and Hattie Donohue.
 - He learns arithmetic by counting the landowner's cotton weights and catches the landowner cheating his father by 11 pounds a bale. When he is ten, he tells his father so. His father whips him for saying it out loud, then quietly starts weighing his own cotton.
 - 1921: At 16, after the landowner's son beats his younger brother, Alexander leaves home. He walks and rides freight trains 135 miles to Atlanta with three dollars sewn into his coat lining. He later says that was the only money he ever kept "just in case."
 - 1921–1923: He works as a redcap porter at Atlanta's Terminal Station. He sees Black travelers step off trains with no taxi willing to carry them and no hotel willing to house them, and he sees an industry that doesn't exist yet.

Part Two — Sweet Auburn (1924–1945)

- 1924 — Donohue Transfer Company: With $200 in porter's tips, Alexander buys a used Model T and starts a jitney service carrying Black passengers from Terminal Station to Auburn Avenue. By 1926 he has 14 cars and a moving-wagon line.
- 1927 — The Donohue House: He buys a 12-room boarding house on Auburn Avenue. Every guest gets clean sheets, a hot breakfast, and a shoeshine. It's full every night.
- October 1929 — The Crash: Alexander doesn't trust white banks and has kept his savings in cash in a floor safe. When the market collapses, he's one of the few men in Atlanta with money. From 1930 to 1933 he buys 31 distressed Auburn Avenue and Old Fourth Ward properties at pennies on the dollar.
- Monday, November 2, 1931 — Donohue Enterprises, Inc. is incorporated in the State of Georgia with a capital of $41,000. Alexander is 26.
- 1932: In New Orleans on business, Alexander walks into the Toussaint Apothecary on Dumaine Street to buy headache powder. He meets the pharmacist, Simone Toussaint, 21 and one of the first Black women licensed as a pharmacist in Louisiana. She charges him double because he's rude, and he comes back every day for two weeks.
- Saturday, June 10, 1933: Alexander marries Simone at St. Augustine Church in New Orleans. She moves to Atlanta and brings her formulas with her.
- July 31, 1934: Son Theodore is born.
- 1935 — Toussaint Laboratories: Simone founds a hair- and skin-care company that sells door to door through a network of 3,000 "Toussaint Ladies" across 11 states. It later becomes Donohue Health & Beauty, the foundation of Donohue Pharmaceuticals.
- May 30, 1936: Son Victor is born.
- Saturday, August 1, 1936 — The Hotel Donohue opens: 150 rooms on Auburn Avenue with a rooftop supper club and a ballroom that seats 600. It appears in the first edition of The Negro

Motorist Green Book. The Black press calls it "the Waldorf of Sweet Auburn." Duke Ellington, Cab Calloway, Joe Louis, and Lena Horne stay there over the years.

- 1938 — Donohue Savings & Trust Company is chartered. It lends to the Black homeowners and businesses that white banks turn away. It later becomes Donohue Financial.
 - 1941–1945 — World War II:
 - Donohue Victory Services wins contracts for laundry, catering, and transport at segregated military installations across the Southeast.
 - Alexander buys war bonds by the million, on the condition that the newspaper photograph the purchase.

Part Three — The Green Book Empire & The Savannah Betrayal (1946–1957)

- 1946–1952: The Donohue Hotel chain spreads across the segregated South to Birmingham, Memphis, Charleston, Durham, Jackson, Nashville, and New Orleans. Each one is the best hotel a Black traveler can legally sleep in.
- 1948 — Donohue Mutual Life Insurance Company is founded.
- The Rival: In Chicago, Cornelius Smilley, a former Pullman porter, has built the Smilley Hotel Company, the Green Book giant of the North (see Document 05). The two men are the most powerful Black hoteliers in America.
- Friday, March 7, 1952 — The Savannah Betrayal:
 - Alexander and Cornelius meet at a private house on Jones Street in Savannah to sign the merger that would create Donohue-Smilley Hotels, a coast-to-coast Black hospitality monopoly.
 - At the last minute, Alexander tears up the contract.
 - The Donohue version: Alexander learned Cornelius had secretly agreed to sell the combined company to a white-owned national chain. That chain would have fired every Black manager and turned the hotels into "colored annexes."
 - The Smilley version: Alexander used the negotiations to steal Cornelius's expansion plans, then walked away and built hotels in every one of Cornelius's target cities.
 - The truth (LOCKED, SECRET): Both stories are partly true. Cornelius was talking to the white chain, but only to get a better price out of Alexander. Alexander did use Cornelius's plans, which Simone copied from Cornelius's briefcase the night before. Simone kept the proof: "The Savannah Letter," Cornelius's handwritten note explaining the bluff, which Simone intercepted and hid. Alexander died without ever reading it.
 - The two families have been at war ever since.
- 1955–1957: Alexander begins secretly buying land in northwest Buckhead through white intermediaries (see Document 04, Belmont Crest).

Part Four — Belmont Crest & the Movement (1958–1970)

- 1958: Alexander and Simone found Belmont Crest (see Document 04).
- 1960–1965 — The Civil Rights Years:
 - The Donohues quietly bankroll the movement: bail money for the 1960 Atlanta Student Movement sit-ins, buses and hotel rooms for marchers, and legal fees for voting-rights cases.
 - Alexander never allows his name on a donor list. "The Klan can read."
 - Joan Mercer Donohue, not yet a lawyer, types movement legal briefs through the night while pregnant with Natasha (born June 2, 1961). She graduates from Howard Law in 1964.
- 1964 — Civil Rights Act: Legal segregation ends. Alexander's advisers expect the Green Book hotels to die as Black travelers go to the white chains. Alexander bets the opposite: that Black travelers will want luxury, not just permission.
- Monday, January 3, 1966 — Donohue Global Holdings, Ltd. (DGH) is formed as the parent company over Donohue Enterprises and every family business. Alexander, 60, becomes Chairman. Victor Donohue, 29, is named Chief Executive Officer. Theodore, 31, is passed over. The brothers' cold war begins.
- Saturday, April 13, 1968: The Donohue Atlanta opens on Peachtree Street: 52 stories and 1,100 rooms, the most luxurious hotel in the South. The opening is held in quiet mourning nine days after Dr. King's assassination. Victor dedicates the lobby's eternal flame to him.
- 1969–1970: DGH's hotel division, Donohue Hotels & Resorts, opens The Donohue in New York (Fifth Avenue), Washington, D.C., and Nassau.

Part Five — Going Global (1971–1989)

- Monday, March 1, 1971 — The Crown Trust is created to hold 100% of DGH's voting shares forever. Under CEO Victor, DGH officially goes global.
- 1971: Theodore becomes Fulton County District Attorney. Alexander calls it "a consolation prize with a badge."
- 1973 — The Oil Crisis: DGH buys oil and gas stakes in Texas, the North Sea, and Nigeria. Donohue Energy is born.
- 1975–1979: Hotels open in London (Park Lane), Paris, Lagos, Accra, Nairobi, Rio, and Tokyo. Victor refuses every offer to build in apartheid South Africa: "We'll open in Johannesburg the day Mandela checks in." (The Donohue Johannesburg opens in 1995, and Mandela attends.)
- 1979: Joan Donohue is appointed to the U.S. District Court.
- 1980–1985:
 - Donohue Media launches the Donohue Broadcast Network (DBN), a cable network, in 1983, and buys radio groups and magazines.

- Donohue Technologies is founded in 1982, as the personal computer arrives.
 - 1985: Robert Bullock founds Bullock & Associates. DGH becomes its first client.
 - Monday, October 19, 1987 — Black Monday: The market crashes 22.6% in one day. Alexander, 82, repeats 1929. DGH spends $19 billion in 10 days buying blue-chip stakes at the bottom.
 - 1987: Jasmine Donohue Olson takes her seat in Congress.
 - 1988–1989: Donohue Aerospace & Defense is created through acquisitions. Donohue Shipping & Logistics buys a global fleet.

Part Six — The Tower, the Codicil & the Millennium (1990–1999)

- 1992: Donohue Tower opens in Buckhead: 88 stories, the tallest building in the Southeast.
 - 1990s: DGH expands into pharmaceuticals, biotechnology, telecommunications, satellites, commercial real estate, agriculture, food and beverage, sports, and private equity.
 - 1996 — The Year of Succession:
 - Monday, June 3, 1996: Alexander, 91, steps down as Chairman. Victor, after 30 years as CEO, becomes Chairman of DGH. Natasha, 35, becomes Chief Executive Officer of Donohue Global Holdings, the first woman to run the world's largest company.
 - July–August 1996: The Centennial Olympic Games come to Atlanta. DGH is a founding patron, and Donohue Hotels & Resorts hosts 60 national delegations. It's Natasha's first global triumph as CEO.
 - Sunday, October 13, 1996 — The Codicil: At Sunday dinner at Donohue Manor, the family attorney reads Alexander's Codicil to the Crown Trust aloud. It names Marc-Anthony Bullock, age 14, as Heir Apparent. Alexander has watched the boy for years: his genius, his heart, and the fact that he once organized a strike by the Manor's household staff for better pay and won.
 - The room goes silent. Martin Olson, 15, walks out. Theodore stays and smiles.
 - Friday, December 31, 1999, 11:58 PM: Alexander Josiah Donohue dies at Donohue Manor, aged 94, holding Simone's hand. Marc-Anthony, 17, is at his bedside. Alexander's last words are to him: "Don't let them make you small."
 - His funeral at Belmont Crest Chapel on Friday, January 7, 2000, draws two former presidents, 41 heads of state, and 12,000 mourners lining West Paces Ferry Road.

Part Seven — The Modern Empire (2000–2005)

- 2000–2002: After the dot-com crash, DGH buys distressed technology companies.
- After September 11, 2001: Donohue Aerospace & Defense and Donohue Technologies grow enormously. DGH is also among the first contract clients of Blackwater Security International (founded 2002). The board votes 12–1 to hire the Heir Apparent's new company. The one "no" vote comes from a trustee who sits for Theodore's branch of the family.

- 2003: DGH's valuation passes $8 trillion. March 2003: Theodore sues to break the Codicil and loses. Simone banishes him from the Summit for two years ("The Exile").
 - 2004: DGH's valuation reaches $10 trillion. The company commits $25 billion to rebuilding HBCU campuses nationwide.
 - December 2004: Smiley International announces it will move its world headquarters from Chicago to Atlanta. Victor reads the news, sets down the paper, and says only: "Tell my mother."

The Crown Trust & the Rules of Succession (LOCKED)

- The Crown Trust (the Alexander & Simone Donohue Family Trust) holds 100% of DGH's voting shares. Family members hold non-voting economic interests and receive dividends. Only the Trust votes.
- The Crown Council is the Trust's governing body. It has nine seats:

Seat	Holder (2005)
1	Simone Donohue (Founder's Seat, for life)
2	Victor Donohue (Chairman)
3	Joan Donohue
4	Theodore Donohue (votes by written proxy from Monaco during his 2003–2005 exile)
5	Jasmine Donohue Olson
6	Natasha Donohue Bullock
7	Alvin Donohue
8	Marc-Anthony Bullock (Heir Apparent's Seat, non-voting until age 25)
9	Independent Trustee — Judge Harlan Whitcomb Jr. (the son of Alexander's white 1950s land intermediary)

The 1996 Codicil — Key Clauses

1. The Heir Apparent is Marc-Anthony Bullock.
2. Age of Accession: He takes a full vote and becomes Vice Chairman-designate at 25 (January 5, 2007). He becomes Chairman when Victor retires, dies, or is incapacitated.
3. The Disgrace Clause: If the Heir Apparent is convicted of a felony or proven by a two-thirds Council vote to have "brought ruin or disgrace upon the name," the designation passes to the next eligible heir chosen by the Council.
 - Martin's whole strategy is built on this clause. Proving Marc is Sovereign would trigger it.
4. The Line of Issue: After the Heir Apparent, succession passes "to his issue, of body, in order of birth."

- SECRET BOMB: Emma Smilley (born first by 6 minutes) is second in line to control the most valuable company on Earth. Victoria is third.
- Martin, the Olsons, and Theodore's branch all fall behind two toddlers being raised by the rival family.

5. The Founder's Veto: While Simone lives, she can veto any Council decision once per calendar year. She has never used it.

THE HISTORY OF BELMONT CREST

1955–1957: The Buckhead Gambit

- In 1955 the U.S. Supreme Court rules in Holmes v. City of Atlanta that Atlanta's public golf courses must desegregate. On the first integrated day, a white man spits on Alexander's shoes at the North Fulton course. Alexander goes home and tells Simone: "I'm done asking to play on their land. We'll buy our own."
- Black families in 1950s Atlanta are pushed to the south and west side. The real estate industry quietly makes sure no white Buckhead seller will sell to a Black buyer.
- Simone's plan:
 - Alexander hires a young white attorney, Harlan Whitcomb, who hates the Klan more than he likes money.
 - Through Whitcomb and eleven shell companies (named after Simone's favorite flowers: Magnolia Land Co., Camellia Holdings, Jasmine Trust, and so on), the Donohues quietly buy 1,140 acres of Chattahoochee bluff forest from 23 owners over 26 months.
 - The sellers think the buyer is a "Northern timber syndicate."

1958: The Founding

- Saturday, March 15, 1958: The deeds are consolidated. The Belmont Crest Association, Inc. is chartered.

- The name comes from Belmont, Simone's family's plantation-era origin story (her great-grandmother was enslaved on a Louisiana estate called Belmont). Simone insisted: "We will take the name they owned us under and make it mean something they can never touch."
- "Crest" is for the bluff, and for the family crown.
- Monday, May 5, 1958: At a press conference at the Hotel Donohue, Alexander reveals that the owner of the largest private landholding in Buckhead is a Black man.
 - The Atlanta Daily World runs the headline "DONOHUE BUYS BUCKHEAD."
 - White Buckhead panics.
- Summer 1958:
 - Groundbreaking on the Dowager House (then simply "Simone's House") and the main gate.
 - Neighbors petition the city to rezone the land as "unsuitable for residential use."
 - Harlan Whitcomb wins in court.

1959: The Fire at the Gate

- Saturday, June 20, 1959: Victor Donohue marries Joan Mercer, the first wedding at Belmont Crest Chapel. 600 guests attend.
- Saturday, October 24, 1959, 1:15 AM: Klansmen burn a 12-foot cross at the Crown Gate.
 - Simone, 48, stands on the Dowager House porch in her nightgown with a shotgun until dawn.
 - Theodore (25) and Victor (23) guard the gate with rifles beside her.
 - At 7:00 AM, Simone serves the reporters coffee and biscuits and says: "Tell them we're not going anywhere. Tell them we're just getting started."
 - The scorched gate pillar has been preserved ever since. A bronze plaque reads: "October 24, 1959. We stayed."

1960s: The Kingdom Builds

- 1960: Donohue Manor is completed. Victor and Joan move in with newborn Jasmine.
- Saturday, April 15, 1961: The Belmont Crest Country Club opens. It is the first Black-owned private country club in the South with a championship course.
- 1962: Belmont Crest Academy opens.
- 1963: The Magnolia Terrace Charter passes. Simone insists that 40 lots be permanently reserved and sold at cost to Black teachers, doctors, dentists, nurses, and ministers: "A kingdom with no teachers is just a fortress." That's why the Bakers (a dentist and a principal) live there.
- Throughout the Civil Rights Movement, Belmont Crest quietly shelters movement leaders, lawyers, and entertainers in Atlanta, behind gates the Klan can't get through.

1970s–1980s: "Black Royalty"

- 1971: Ebony runs a 12-page spread, "Inside Belmont Crest: America's Black Royalty," which gives the family its lasting nickname.
- 1974–1988: Kingsridge and Riverbend fill with Black athletes, entertainers, judges, and executives. A home in Belmont Crest becomes the ultimate status symbol in Black America.
- 1985: Lifestyles of the Rich and Famous is denied entry at the Main Gate. Robin Leach reports from the sidewalk.

1990s–2004: The Modern Era

- 1992: Belmont Crest Academy's championship debate team, including 10-year-old Marc-Anthony Bullock, wins the national title.
 - 1996: During the Olympics, Belmont Crest hosts a private gala for 40 heads of state.
 - 1999: Alexander dies at Donohue Manor.
 - 2002: Community security is contracted to Blackwater Security International, the new company of 20-year-old Marc-Anthony Bullock. Crime inside the gates drops from "almost none" to exactly none.
 - 2003: The Bullock Pavilion is built at 25 Sovereign Way.
 - 2004: Elxa Bullock marries Jeremy Jackson at the Chapel on October 16.

Life Behind the Gates: Tone Notes for Writers

- Belmont Crest is paradise with sharp edges: manicured, silent, and watching.
- Security logs every entry. BSI controls the security logs. That matters.
- Staff see everything. The housekeepers' and drivers' network is the fastest gossip system in Atlanta.
- The Smilleys' estate, Ravenhurst, sits just outside the gates, across the Nancy Creek ravine off West Paces Ferry Road, bordering Belmont Crest's eastern wall (see Document 05). The two families can see each other's lights at night.

THE SMILLEYS & SMILLEY INTERNATIONAL

Document 05 · Locked Canon · The Secondary Family, Their Empire & the Feud

Family motto: "The Smile Is Ours."

Who They Are

The Smilleys are Chicago's Black royalty. The Donohues are Southern old money: land, faith, legacy. The Smilleys are Northern new money turned old: glamour, jazz, fashion, and velvet cruelty. The Donohues build kingdoms. The Smilleys build brands.

They are the second-wealthiest family in the world and the Donohues' fiercest rivals and competitors. The two families have been at war since the Savannah Betrayal of March 7, 1952 (see Document 03). In January 2005, the Smilleys move their headquarters from Chicago to Atlanta, into Donohue territory.

Item	Detail
Family fortune	About $640 billion (second in the world)
Company	Smilley International, Inc. (privately held; family holds 100% of votes and 33.7% of the equity. Full share distribution in Document 13.)
Valuation	About $1.9 trillion
Atlanta estate	Ravenhurst , 4 Ravenhurst Lane NW, Atlanta, GA 30327. A 1920s French château bought in 2004 on 90 acres just east of Belmont Crest's wall.
Chicago estate	Hart House , 4900 S. Greenwood Ave., Kenwood, Chicago (still owned; Odessa's favorite)

SMILLEY FAMILY TREE (Ages as of Monday, January 3, 2005)

- Cornelius Smilley (1908–1987) + Odessa Hart Smilley (84)
 - Lucius Smilley (55) + Vivienne Beaumont Smilley (49)
 - Lucius "Luke" Smilley Jr. (28) + Noelle Smilley (26)
 - Delphine Smilley-Ashe (25) + Gideon Ashe (29)
 - Esther Smilley (22)
 - Emma Smilley (2) and Victoria Smilley (2), secretly fathered by Marc-Anthony Bullock
 - Desmond Smilley (48), divorced
 - Quentin Smilley (21)

THE FOUNDER

Cornelius Augustus Smilley (Deceased)

- Born: Saturday, August 8, 1908, Vicksburg, Mississippi · Died: Thursday, February 19, 1987, Chicago (aged 78)
 - Left Mississippi in 1925 during the Great Migration. Worked as a Pullman porter from 1926 to 1937 and was a proud member of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters.
 - Pullman porters were forced to answer to "George" and to smile for tips. Cornelius smiled for eleven years. The family name was originally "Smiley." He added the second "L" in 1938 when he opened his first hotel: "They made me smile for them. Now they'll pay to see me smile, and they'll spell it my way."
 - A brilliant showman who treated hotels as theater. Doormen in white gloves, a jazz orchestra every night, and fresh roses in every room.
 - His wound: The Savannah Betrayal (1952). He died believing Alexander Donohue robbed him.
 - Died of a heart attack the day after the Donohue Chicago opened directly across from his flagship. The Smilleys call it murder by hotel.

THE FAMILY

Odessa Hart Smilley — The Dowager Empress

- Born: January 24, 1920, Chicago (Bronzeville) · Age: 84 (turns 85 on Monday, January 24, 2005) · Looks: mid-60s
- A former torch singer at the Regal Theater and the Smilley Hotel's supper club, the Crystal Room. She married Cornelius in 1946. He was 37 and she was 26.
- Simone Donohue's nemesis. The two queens met exactly once, at a 1963 NAACP gala. Their 90-second conversation is still discussed in Chicago and Atlanta.
- She's convinced Simone holds proof of what really happened in Savannah. She's right.
- Named Esther's middle name ("Odessa"). She suggested "Simone" as Victoria's middle name, saying it was after "a French jazz singer I once loved." It was really a private dig at her rival. She has no idea the baby is Simone's great-great-granddaughter.
- Voice: Gravelly, grand, cruel. "Simone Donohue has been ninety years old since 1950."

Lucius Cornelius Smilley — The Chairman

- Born: November 30, 1949 · Age: 55 · Looks: early 40s
- Howard University '71, University of Chicago MBA '74. Chairman & CEO of Smilley International (1987–present).

- Charming, cultured, and vindictive. He grew Smilley International from $40 billion to $1.9 trillion. He has hated the Donohues since he was two years old, because he was raised to.
- Moving the headquarters to Atlanta is his life's crusade: "Daddy died looking at their hotel. I'll die looking at their grave."
- Named Esther his heir on her 21st birthday (Saturday, September 20, 2003) at the Smilley Harlem gala, passing over Luke and Delphine. Luke threw a champagne glass at the ice sculpture.
- SECRET: Lucius was diagnosed with early-onset Parkinson's disease in 2003. Only his neurologist and Vivienne know. It's why he rushed the succession, and he hides a tremor behind a cane he claims is "for style."
- SECRET: He has long suspected that Luke is not his biological son.
- Voice: Velvet baritone, literary, poisonous. "We don't lose to the Donohues. We allow them to finish second, graciously, for now."

Vivienne Beaumont Smilley — The Brand

- Born: March 17, 1955, Washington, D.C. (the Gold Coast neighborhood) · Age: 49 · Looks: mid-30s
- A former Ebony Fashion Fair runway model, and the first Black woman to front a major French perfume campaign (1976).
- Chief Brand Officer, Smilley International. She created the Smile fragrance, the Odessa couture line, and Hart Home.
- An icy perfectionist who loves her children in order of usefulness.
- SECRET: Luke is Desmond's son. It came from a two-month affair with her brother-in-law in the spring of 1975. Desmond knows. Lucius suspects. Luke has no idea.
- Voice: Cool, elegant, surgical. "Darling, I don't dislike you. I simply don't see you."

Desmond Hart Smilley — The Snake

- Born: August 21, 1956 · Age: 48 · Looks: late 30s
- Lucius's younger brother. Vice Chairman, Smilley International. He runs the real estate division, Smilley Estates.
- Divorced (twice). Father of Quentin. Secretly Luke's biological father.
- Has resented being the "spare" his whole life. He plans to use Luke's claim, and then reveal Luke's true paternity, to push Esther out and seize the company.
- SECRET: He is in secret talks with Martin Olson, an enemy inside the enemy's house. Their deal: help each other remove the two heirs, Esther and Marc-Anthony.
- Voice: Easy laugh, dead eyes. "Family is everything. That's why I keep a copy of everyone's."

Lucius "Luke" Smilley Jr. — The Dethroned Prince

- Born: February 2, 1976 · Age: 28 · Looks: mid-20s

- Eldest child. Morehouse '98 (the Smilleys chose Atlanta for college as a statement), Harvard MBA '02.
- President, Smilley Hotels & Resorts. He's genuinely good at hotels.
- He was raised as the heir until 2003, and has been humiliated and furious ever since.
- Married: Noelle Price, May 26, 2001. They've been through years of failed fertility treatments, which makes Esther's "IVF twins" feel like a daily insult.
- Doesn't know Desmond is his biological father.
- Voice: Loud, entitled, wounded. "I did everything right. She did everything first."

Noelle Price Smilley — The Social Climber

- Born: June 1, 1978, Milwaukee · Age: 26 · Looks: early 20s
- Former Miss Black Wisconsin (1998) and a Chicago TV weather anchor. Luke's wife.
- Desperate for a baby, a title, and a seat at the Belmont Crest Country Club. She'd betray the Smilleys in a heartbeat for the Donohues' approval.
- Voice: Sweet as pie and twice as fattening. "I'm not jealous, I'm just paying attention."

Delphine Smilley-Ashe — The Ice Queen

- Born: October 5, 1979 · Age: 25 · Looks: early 20s
- Middle child. Parsons School of Design '01. President, Maison Smilley, the luxury department stores and lifestyle brands.
- A fashion icon and a Vogue favorite, with a taste for elegant revenge. She hates Esther with style.
- Married: Gideon Ashe, June 21, 2003, at the Smilley Harlem.
- Voice: Clipped, bored, lethal. "Esther got Daddy's company. I got his taste. We'll see which lasts."

Gideon Ashe — The Gambler

- Born: July 18, 1975, New York · Age: 29 · Looks: mid-20s
- Founder of Ashe Capital, a hedge fund. He's handsome and smooth, and he's lying about everything.
- SECRET: The fund is collapsing, and Gideon owes $212 million to underground high-stakes card games. Those games are run by the Blackwater Syndicate. Sovereign holds the Smilley son-in-law's marker, and Marc doesn't yet realize what leverage he has.
- Voice: Easy confidence, constant sweating. "It's a liquidity event, not a problem."

Esther Odessa Smilley — The Heiress

(Full profile in Document 02.)

- Age: 22. Designated heir. President, Smilley International Atlanta. She personally runs the move to Atlanta.
- Her masterstroke: In 2002 she began building a 72-story tower in Buckhead under a shell company called Peachtree Pinnacle Partners. Nobody knew who owned it until the December 2004 announcement. It was the same trick Alexander Donohue used to buy Belmont Crest in 1955. Victor noticed. Simone laughed out loud.
- Mother of Emma and Victoria ("the IVF twins").

Quentin Hart Smilley — The Wild Card

- Born: November 11, 1983 · Age: 21 · Looks: late teens
- Desmond's only child. He dropped out of Northwestern and is a DJ and club promoter who plans to "go to Atlanta and run the city."
- Alvin Donohue's new best friend in the club scene. Mallory Olson's forbidden attraction. He's sweeter than he pretends to be, and far less stupid.
- He has no idea he's his father's pawn.
- Voice: Charming, clowning, and secretly lonely. "I'm not the black sheep. I'm the sheep that brought the party."

Emma & Victoria Smilley — "The IVF Twins"

(Full profiles in Document 02.) Both are 2. Their nanny is Beatrix Pennington (Document 07). The Smilleys adore them. Their grandfather Lucius calls them "my dividends." Nobody in the family knows whose they are.

THE HISTORY OF SMILLEY INTERNATIONAL

Year	Milestone
1938	Cornelius opens The Smilley , a 90-room hotel on South Parkway in Bronzeville, with the Crystal Room supper club. Nat King Cole, Billie Holiday, and Count Basie perform there.
1941–1951	Green Book expansion across the North and Midwest: The Smilley Harlem (1946), Detroit, Cleveland, St. Louis, Kansas City, and Pittsburgh. Plus a lakeside resort at Idlewild, Michigan , the "Black Eden."
March 7, 1952	The Savannah Betrayal. The Donohue-Smilley merger collapses.
1953–1960	Smilley Realty is founded. During the era of predatory "contract buying," it builds and finances fair-mortgage apartment buildings for Black Chicagoans, and becomes Chicago's largest Black landlord.
1962	Smilley Resorts opens at Oak Bluffs, Martha's Vineyard and in Montego Bay, Jamaica .
1968	South Parkway is renamed Martin Luther King Drive. Cornelius keeps the flagship's lights on for 30 straight days in mourning.

Year	Milestone
1974–1979	Smilley Resorts expands to Barbados, Nassau, and the Riviera. The Smilley at Lake Shore , a 60-story luxury condominium tower, opens on Chicago's Gold Coast in 1979.
1983	Maison Smilley , the first Black-owned luxury department store on the Magnificent Mile, opens at 900 N. Michigan Avenue.
Wednesday, February 18, 1987	Donohue Chicago opens directly across from The Smilley.
Thursday, February 19, 1987	Cornelius dies of a heart attack the next morning. Lucius, 37, becomes Chairman & CEO.
1989	The company is renamed Smilley International, Inc. , and goes global with hotels in London (Mayfair), Paris, Dubai, and Monaco.
1990s	Lifestyle brands: Smile fragrance (1991), Odessa couture (1994), Hart Home (1997). Maison Smilley flagships open in New York, Beverly Hills, London, Paris, and Tokyo.
2001	Smilley Estates builds branded luxury residences in 20 cities.
September 20, 2003	Esther is named heir.
2002–2004	"Peachtree Pinnacle Partners" secretly builds a 72-story tower in Buckhead.
Thursday, December 9, 2004	The Announcement: Smilley International will move its world headquarters to Smilley Tower, 3434 Peachtree Road NE, Atlanta, GA 30326 , directly across Peachtree Road from Donohue Tower.
Monday, January 3, 2005	Smilley Tower officially opens on the morning of the series premiere.

Smilley International — Structure (2005)

Division	Business	Leader
Smilley Hotels & Resorts	1,400 luxury hotels and resorts in 90 countries. Brands: The Smilley, Crystal Room Hotels, Idlewild Resorts.	Luke Smilley
Smilley Estates	Luxury real estate, branded residences, commercial towers	Desmond Smilley
Maison Smilley	Luxury department stores (48 flagships), high-end retail	Delphine Smilley-Ashe
Smilley Lifestyle	Smile fragrance, Odessa couture, Hart Home, cosmetics, jewelry	Vivienne Smilley
Smilley Private Clubs	Members-only clubs in 20 cities	Lucius (direct)
Smilley International Atlanta	The new headquarters operation and the Southern expansion	Esther Smilley

- Employees: About 610,000 · Countries: 90 · Flagship: The Smilley, Chicago · HQ (2005): Smilley Tower, Atlanta
- The Smilley Fund: The family charity. It's generous, but always with a press release, a pointed contrast with the Donohues' "spare no expense, sign no name."

THE FEUD — Rules of Engagement

1. Every Donohue opening gets a Smilley counter-opening, usually within the same month.
 2. Neither family has attended the other's funeral since 1952.
 3. Hospitality is the main battlefield: Donohue Hotels & Resorts (a DGH division) vs. Smilley Hotels & Resorts. Natasha vs. Luke. Natasha vs. Esther.
 4. 2005 battlegrounds:
 - The Atlanta skyline (the rival towers)
 - The Belmont Crest Country Club (Noelle wants in)
 - Harmony's brokerage (Esther steers Smilley deals to her best friend)
 - The Olympic-sized fight over the "Auburn Avenue Revival" redevelopment bid. Whoever wins it rebuilds the street where Alexander started.
 5. Hidden alliances: Martin + Desmond. Noelle + anyone. Gideon and his debt to Blackwater. Mallory + Quentin.

THE BLACKWATER SYNDICATE & BLACKWATER SECURITY INTERNATIONAL

Document 06 · Locked Canon · MAXIMUM SECRECY

"Still water runs deep. Black water runs deepest."

Writers' Note — Two Faces of One Empire

	The Blackwater Syndicate	Blackwater Security International (BSI)
What	A criminal organization	A multinational private security and risk-management corporation
Founded	Friday, September 29, 2000 (secretly)	Tuesday, April 16, 2002 (publicly)
Founder	"Sovereign" (secretly Marc-Anthony Bullock , then 18)	Marc-Anthony Bullock , Founder, Chairman & CEO (then 20)
Status	The largest, most successful, powerful, influential, respected, beloved, feared, dangerous, deadly, charitable, and valuable criminal organization in the world	One of the largest, most successful, powerful, influential, respected, beloved, feared, and valuable companies in the world
Public knowledge	Known to exist. Its leader's identity is unknown .	Everyone knows it, and it's on every magazine cover.
The link	Secret . BSI is both a real, legitimate giant and the Syndicate's perfect shield.

Continuity convention: In the Beyond the Kingdom universe, there is no real-world company called "Blackwater USA." The name "Blackwater" belongs only to Marc-Anthony's empire.

PART ONE — THE BLACKWATER SYNDICATE

The Origin: The Night of July 15, 2000

- Saturday, July 15, 2000, about 11:50 PM. Grace Bullock, 16, sneaks out to a "summer white party" at a rented mansion off Habersham Road in Buckhead. It's thrown by a nightclub promoter named Vaughn "Silk" Harlow.
- Harlow's crew runs a trafficking ring that targets young women at parties. Grace is drugged.
- Marc-Anthony (18) and Amond (18) have followed her there because Marc had "a feeling." At 12:40 AM they find her half-conscious, being carried toward a black Suburban by two men.
 - What happens next takes four minutes. Both men are hospitalized. Amond drives Grace to Piedmont Hospital. Marc stays behind.

- The betrayal of the system:
 - Harlow is protected by APD Sergeant Dale Pruitt, who is on his payroll, and by a Fulton County commissioner who is his silent partner.
 - The toxicology report is "lost." The case is closed by August 22, 2000.
 - Even Robert Bullock's connections can't reopen it. Robert tells his son: "Sometimes the system just loses, son."
 - Marc answers: "Then I'll build a new one."

The Founding: The River Gate, September 29, 2000

- Friday, September 29, 2000, 11:59 PM, at the River Gate boathouse on the Chattahoochee below Belmont Crest.
- Present: Marc-Anthony Bullock (18), Amond Baker (18), and Rashad "Saint" Mayfield (19), son of the Bullocks' longtime driver, who grew up on the estate alongside Marc.
- The name:
 - When Marc was a boy, Great-Grandfather Alexander brought him to this same dock and told him: "At night the river looks black. People are scared of it. But it's the same water that carried our people north, that baptized them, and that hid them. Still water runs deep, boy. Black water runs deepest."
 - Marc took the name from the river.
- The first act: Marc sets a polished black onyx coin on the dock, engraved with a crown above a wave. It becomes the Syndicate's mark: the Onyx Coin.
- The first oath: "Nobody touches the innocent. Nobody touches the family. And nobody ever sees my face."

The First War: Dismantling the Harlow Ring (October–December 2000)

- Over 11 weeks, the Harlow ring falls apart:
 - Fourteen young women are found and brought home, with their families' bills paid anonymously.
 - Sergeant Pruitt resigns in disgrace in November 2000 after anonymous evidence reaches Internal Affairs and the newspapers.
 - The commissioner is indicted in December 2000.
 - Vaughn "Silk" Harlow and three of his lieutenants are never seen again. Each of their empty apartments has an Onyx Coin on the kitchen table.
 - SECRET (Blackwater's only failure): Harlow survived "the river" with his face destroyed. In April 2001 he paid Dr. Peter Olson $5 million to rebuild it in Cancún. In 2005 he returns to Atlanta as "Julian Cross" (see Document 07). Nobody in the Syndicate knows.

- The streets start whispering a name: "Sovereign."

Growth (2001–2004)

Date	Event
Early 2001	Recruitment of the core. The Syndicate takes over the ring's former territory and its illegal gambling operations and "cleans" them: no predators, no minors, no drugs sold to kids.
Spring 2001	Tobias Okafor , a 21-year-old MIT dropout, joins as "The Ledger." Keisha Lattimore ("Ghost"), a hacker, is recruited after she breaks into Harvard's systems to change Marc's parking tickets as a job application.
Summer 2001	Roman Gaines , a decorated Army Ranger discharged for striking an officer who used a slur, joins as "The Hammer." Dolores "Mama Dee" Whitfield joins as "The Tithe" after Sovereign finds her grandson's killer.
Tuesday, January 1, 2002, ~2:40 AM	Marc covers up Arianna Cummings' fatal accident (see Document 02). Blackwater and Silas Merriweather are still at peace, so the body goes to a Merriweather crematorium as a favor. SECRET: Silas keeps Darnell Divine's wallet as insurance.
Tuesday, April 16, 2002	BSI is founded.
2002–2003	Expansion across the Southeast, then nationally: Atlanta, Miami, Houston, New Orleans, Charlotte, D.C., New York, Chicago, Los Angeles.
Friday, March 14, 2003	The Nassau Accord. On Alexander's birthday, Sovereign meets through intermediaries with criminal organizations from the Caribbean, London, Lagos, Rotterdam, and Marseille in a Nassau villa. They all agree to Blackwater's terms, rules, and cut. The Syndicate goes global.
Summer 2004	"The Summer of Silence." A war with Silas "The Undertaker" Merriweather , Atlanta's old-school kingpin (Document 07), over Southside territory. Eleven Merriweather properties burn. Nobody talks.
Saturday, August 14, 2004	The Sweet Auburn Truce. Amond and Silas meet at a table in the back of Mama Dee's restaurant. Silas keeps his funeral homes and his pride. Blackwater keeps everything else.
Monday, November 15, 2004	The FBI Atlanta Field Office opens "Operation Deep Water," led by Special Agent Kathleen Doyle (Document 07).
Monday, December 20, 2004	At her swearing-in, Chief Elxa Jackson announces the APD Blackwater Task Force and promises: "Whoever Sovereign is, I will find him, and I will put him in a cell." Her brother is in the second row. He applauds louder than anyone.

Structure of the Syndicate (2005)

SOVEREIGN

- Marc-Anthony Bullock. Absolute authority. Known in person only to The Seven (and to Arianna Cummings, who is not a member).

- To everyone else, Sovereign is a voice on a secure line, a handwritten note in green ink, or an Onyx Coin.

THE SEVEN ("The Table")

Seat	Title	Member	Age (1/3/05)	Public Cover
1	Sovereign	Marc-Anthony Bullock	22	Chairman & CEO, BSI
2	The Right Hand (Underboss)	Amond Baker	22	SVP of Strategic Operations, BSI
3	The Ledger (Finance)	Tobias Okafor	24	Chief Financial Officer, BSI
4	The Ghost (Intelligence & Archive)	Keisha Lattimore	25	Director of Cyber & Information Assurance, BSI
5	The Hammer (Enforcement & Operations)	Roman Gaines	28	Director of Global Operations, BSI
6	The Tithe (Charity & Community)	Dolores "Mama Dee" Whitfield	53	Owner, Dee's Kitchen (West End)
7	The Saint (Streets & Territory)	Rashad "Saint" Mayfield	23	BSI Community Liaison / owner of Saint's Car Wash chain

THE EIGHTH CHAIR

- An eighth chair stands at the Table, and it's always empty.
- When asked, Sovereign says only: "It's for someone I haven't met yet."
- (Writers' foreshadowing: the Queen's Chair.)

THE HOUSES (Operational Divisions)

House	Run By	Activity (kept deliberately general on screen)
The Parlors	Saint & Ledger	Invitation-only, high-stakes underground gambling in 30 cities. Gideon Ashe owes the Parlors $212 million.
The Harbor	Hammer	Smuggling of contraband cargo and untaxed luxury goods through ports worldwide
The Archive	Ghost	Intelligence brokering. The Syndicate holds files on corrupt politicians, judges, CEOs, and police, and uses them.
The Ledger	Ledger	Moves and cleans money for the Syndicate and its allies through shell companies worldwide
The Shield	Right Hand	"Protection" of businesses the Syndicate controls, and political fixing
The Hunt	Hammer & Ghost	Tracking and destroying predators, traffickers, and anyone who breaks the Code
The Tithe	Mama Dee	The Syndicate's charitable arm

Scale (2005)

- Members: An estimated 40,000 worldwide across all affiliates. Only about 300 have ever spoken directly with one of The Seven.
 - Revenue: The FBI estimates more than $60 billion a year. The true figure is more than triple that.
 - Reach: Present in 58 countries through the Nassau Accord.

THE BLACKWATER CODE (The Ten Laws)

1. Nobody touches a child. Ever.
2. No trafficking in human beings. We hunt those who do.
3. No poison on our own streets. We don't sell hard drugs in our communities.
4. Women, elders, and the innocent are off-limits.
5. Loyalty is paid in full. Betrayal is paid in full.
6. Nobody sees Sovereign's face except The Seven.
7. The Tithe: A share of every dollar goes back to the people.
8. Don't bring heat home.
9. Clean cops are left alone. Dirty cops belong to us.
10. Family is sacred. Every member's family is under Blackwater protection, for life.

Breaking Laws 1 or 2 is the only unforgivable sin. The penalty is spoken of only as "the river."

THE TITHE — "Spare No Expense"

The Syndicate is the most charitable criminal organization in history. The Tithe:

- Pays off medical debt for entire hospital wards, anonymously. The receipts arrive with an Onyx Coin.
- "Blackwater Christmas": Every December 24 since 2000, toys, turkeys, and $500 envelopes appear on the doorsteps of 20,000+ families in Atlanta's poorest neighborhoods.
- The Envelope Scholarships: Full tuition, delivered in cash-funded trusts, to kids nobody else invests in.
- Funds women's shelters, funeral costs, and back rent. After the Summer of Silence, it rebuilt every Southside house that burned by accident.
- The result: In parts of Atlanta, Sovereign is a folk hero. Kids spray-paint the crown and wave on walls. Grandmothers pray for him by name. "Who is Sovereign?" is the city's favorite question.

The Onyx Coin

- A black onyx coin with a crown over a wave.
- Left at a scene: Blackwater did this.
- Given to a person: That person is under Blackwater protection. Anyone who touches them answers to Sovereign.
- Mama Dee carries the first 1,000 ever made.

PART TWO — BLACKWATER SECURITY INTERNATIONAL (BSI)

At a Glance (January 2005)

Item	Detail
Legal name	Blackwater Security International, Inc. (BSI)
Type	Privately held multinational private security and risk-management corporation
Founded	Tuesday, April 16, 2002 , Atlanta
Founder, Chairman & CEO	Marc-Anthony Bullock
President & COO	Lt. Gen. Walter Bassett, U.S. Army (Ret.)
Headquarters	BSI Tower, 1 Blackwater Plaza, Midtown, Atlanta, GA 30309. 58 stories of black glass. Marc's penthouse is on the 58th floor.
Training campus	The Sumter Center. 9,000 acres in Sumter County, Georgia, near Alexander Donohue's birthplace.
Employees	About 118,000 in 64 countries
2004 revenue	$31 billion
Valuation	About $210 billion , one of the most valuable private companies on Earth, built in under three years
Tagline	"Nothing touches what we protect."

The Founding Story (Official Version)

- After September 11, 2001, 19-year-old Harvard J.D./M.B.A. graduate Marc-Anthony Bullock saw that the world had become unsafe, and the security industry hadn't caught up.
- He founded BSI on April 16, 2002 with $3 billion from his personal trust and a first contract from Donohue Global Holdings.
- Within 12 months BSI had won port-security contracts in 11 countries, protection for 200 Fortune 500 executives, and the security contract for Belmont Crest. Fortune called it "the fastest-growing company in history."

BSI Divisions

Division	Services
BSI Executive Protection	Bodyguards for heads of state, CEOs, celebrities, and athletes
BSI Risk & Intelligence	Corporate intelligence, due diligence, political-risk analysis, investigations
BSI Maritime & Ports	Port and shipping security, anti-piracy
BSI Aviation	Airport and private aviation security, armored aviation
BSI Cyber & Information Assurance	Network security, data protection (advanced for 2005)
BSI Armored Logistics	Armored transport of cash, art, jewels, and sensitive cargo
BSI Crisis Response	Kidnap-and-ransom response, evacuations, disaster rescue
BSI Communities	Security for gated communities, campuses, stadiums, and events
The Sumter Center	Training academy for BSI, police departments, and allied governments

Why BSI Is Respected, Beloved, and Feared

- Respected: Flawless record. No protected client has ever been harmed.
- Beloved: BSI Crisis Response teams show up free at disasters: floods, fires, tornadoes. Every BSI job pays at least 40% above industry rates, with full college tuition for employees' kids. BSI hires veterans and people with records who have served their time: "Everybody deserves a second shot. Nobody gets a third."
- Feared: Competitors lose contracts overnight. Journalists who dig too deep find their sources gone quiet. And everyone notices that crime drops wherever BSI shows up.

BSI Leadership

Title	Name	Knows About the Syndicate?
Founder, Chairman & CEO	Marc-Anthony Bullock	He IS Sovereign
President & COO	Lt. Gen. (Ret.) Walter Bassett	No. An honorable soldier. His discovery would be a major future arc.
CFO	Tobias Okafor	Yes (The Ledger)
SVP, Strategic Operations	Amond Baker	Yes (The Right Hand)
Director, Global Operations	Roman Gaines	Yes (The Hammer)
Director, Cyber & Information Assurance	Keisha Lattimore	Yes (The Ghost)
Executive Assistant to the CEO	Brielle Sutton	No, but she suspects. Fiercely loyal.

Who's Hunting Sovereign (2005)

Hunter	Motive	Knows It's Marc?
Chief Elxa Jackson , APD Blackwater Task Force	Justice. The book. Her reputation.	No
Det. Jeremy Jackson , APD Homicide	The Harlow disappearances (a cold case)	No, but he's the first to notice patterns around the Bullocks
SA Kathleen Doyle & SA Daniel Reyes , FBI "Operation Deep Water"	A career-making federal case	No
Martin Olson	Destroy Sovereign, then use the Disgrace Clause	No, and when he finds out, it's war
Silas Merriweather	Revenge for the Summer of Silence	No
Desmond Smilley	Leverage	No

Future Arc Seeds (Writers Only)

1. Hurricane Katrina (Monday, August 29, 2005) is Elxa's 25th birthday. BSI Crisis Response and the Syndicate's Tithe mobilize massively in New Orleans, Simone's hometown. BSI rescues thousands, and Sovereign becomes a national legend.
2. The Eighth Chair is waiting for Esther.
3. Gideon's marker gives Blackwater a hidden hand inside the Smilley family.
4. Grace's night is the Syndicate's origin, and the reason she'd hide a body for her brother.
5. Harmony's missing brother is a Blackwater secret that could destroy Marc, Amond, and Arianna at once.

BEYOND THE KINGDOM — Supporting Cast

Document 07 · Locked Canon · The World Around the Kingdom

All ages exact as of Monday, January 3, 2005. Unless noted, every character is African American. Non-Black characters are marked †. They're the few the premise calls for.

THE DONOHUE ORBIT

Constance "Connie" Pryor Donohue — The Trophy With Teeth

- Born: August 14, 1966 · Age: 38 · Looks: late 20s
- Theodore's third wife, married 1998. She was a Delta flight attendant who met Theodore in first class.
- The family calls her a gold digger. She calls herself "a diversified portfolio."
- Screen rule: She has been in Monaco with Theodore since the 2003 Exile. First appearance: Episode #177.
- SECRET: From Monte Carlo, fed by an unnamed inside source at the Country Club, she secretly writes "CrestWatch," the anonymous gossip blog that has leaked Belmont Crest secrets since 2003. The whole city reads it, and nobody suspects the woman who always seems bored at dinner.
- Voice: "Honey, I didn't marry for money. I married for access. Money was just parked outside."

Reginald Donohue — The Forgotten Son

- Born: September 9, 1957 · Age: 47 · Looks: late 30s
- Theodore's only son, from his first marriage. He was a Georgia State Senator until he resigned in 1999 over a land-deal scandal. Theodore made that scandal go away quietly.
- Now President of Donohue Realty. Victor gave him the job as a peace offering, and Reginald treats it like an insult. He has run it from London since the 2003 Exile. First appearance: Episode #176.
- Divorced, bitter, and drinking. He knows where some of his father's vault files are buried.
- Voice: "My father was passed over. I was passed under."

Winston Fairley — The Butler

- Born: October 10, 1942, Kingston, Jamaica · Age: 62 · Looks: late 40s
- Head of Household, Donohue Manor, since 1968. He was trained at London's Savoy.
- He knows every secret in the Manor and will die before repeating one. Marc was the one who organized the staff's 1994 pay strike, and Winston has been his quiet ally ever since.
- Voice: "Sir, I don't listen at doors. Doors simply speak to me."

Ruby Mae Tolliver — "Nana Ruby"

- Born: December 25, 1938, Americus, Georgia · Age: 66 · Looks: mid-50s
 - Housekeeper at Belle Rive (the Bullock estate) since 1980. She raised Elxa, Marc, and Grace as much as Natasha did.
 - Marc loves her like a grandmother. Anyone who hurts Nana Ruby meets the monster.
 - She's from Americus, like Alexander. She knew the Donohue name before it was famous.
 - Voice: "Baby, I changed your diapers. Don't you dare 'Miss Tolliver' me."

BELMONT CREST FIXTURES

Percival "Percy" Langston — The Gatekeeper

- Born: May 5, 1949 · Age: 55 · Looks: early 40s
- General Manager, Belmont Crest Country Club since 1984. He guards the club's etiquette like scripture and its waiting list like Fort Knox.
- He loves the old guard and fears new money. Esther Smilley will be his worst nightmare.
- Voice: "Membership is not purchased, madam. It is bestowed."

Bishop Everett Lyons — The Shepherd

- Born: April 1, 1944 · Age: 60 · Looks: late 40s
- Senior Pastor, Greater Crest Tabernacle AME, since 1979. A civil-rights-era preacher and the Donohues' spiritual adviser.
- He baptized Marc, married Elxa, and hears confessions he shouldn't have to keep.
- Voice: "God forgives. Belmont Crest keeps minutes."

First Lady Pearl Lyons

- Born: August 30, 1947 · Age: 57 · Looks: mid-40s
 - She runs the church, the Magnolia Cotillion, and every piece of gossip that goes through the choir loft.
 - Voice: "I'm not gossiping. I'm putting it on the prayer list."

THE BAKER FAMILY (Magnolia Terrace, upper middle class)

Dr. Curtis Baker — The Dentist

- Born: January 19, 1954 · Age: 50 · Looks: early 40s
- Meharry Medical College DDS. Owns Baker Family Dentistry in Buckhead.
- A proud, decent, by-the-book man. He wants Amond to be "respectable." He has no idea his son is the underboss of the Blackwater Syndicate.
- Voice: "Son, a man is only as good as his name, and ours is clean."

Gloria Baker — The Principal

- Born: May 3, 1956 · Age: 48 · Looks: late 30s
- Principal of Frederick Douglass High School (Atlanta Public Schools). She's tough love incarnate. She adores Lyric and quietly resents that Harmony keeps her granddaughter at arm's length.
- Voice: "I've expelled better liars than you before first period."

Kiara Baker — The Little Sister

- Born: March 11, 1989 · Age: 15 · Looks: 15
 - Amond's little sister and a sophomore at Belmont Crest Academy. She's a hacker in training who idolizes "Uncle" Marc and is way too curious about Amond's late nights.
 - Voice: "I'm not snooping. I'm doing investigative journalism."

THE CUMMINGS FAMILY (Kingsridge, upper class)

Franklin Cummings — The Mogul

- Born: June 27, 1950 · Age: 54 · Looks: early 40s
- Chairman, Cummings Media Group, with 60 radio stations across the South. He's a Donohue Media board member and chairman of the Country Club board.
- He's grooming Arianna for Attorney General, then Governor. He'd sell his soul for her success, and he has sold a few pieces already.
- Voice: "In this state, you're either on the radio or you're being talked about on it."

Dr. Yvette Cummings — The Cardiologist

- Born: December 9, 1953 · Age: 51 · Looks: late 30s
- Chief of Cardiology, Atlanta Presbyterian Medical Center, Peter Olson's colleague.
- She senses her daughter changed after New Year's 2002 and has never been able to find out why.
- Voice: "I fix hearts for a living, Arianna. I know when one is breaking."

THE DIVINE FAMILY (Cascade Heights, middle class)

Calvin Divine — The Father

- Born: February 28, 1953 · Age: 51 · Looks: early 40s
- MARTA bus operator for 28 years (Route 71, Cascade Road). He's a deacon, a union man, and a gentle giant broken by his son's disappearance.
- Voice: "I drive the same route every day in case my boy's at one of the stops."

Loretta Divine — The Mother

- Born: September 12, 1955 · Age: 49 · Looks: late 30s
- ER Charge Nurse, Grady Memorial Hospital. She's fierce and funny, and she's decided she no longer believes in the police.
- Voice: "I've patched up half this city. The other half owes me."

Darnell "Dee" Divine — The Missing Son

- Born: July 7, 1979 · Last seen: New Year's Eve 2001, age 22 · Would be 25 today
- A barber and aspiring music producer who was the light of the family. He was walking home from a party off Northside Drive and never arrived.
- SECRET: He was killed by Arianna Cummings' car at about 2:40 AM on January 1, 2002. Marc-Anthony made his body disappear.

THE JACKSON FAMILY

Former Chief Harold Jackson — The Old Lion

- Born: April 4, 1947 · Age: 57 · Looks: late 40s
- Chief of Police, APD (1998–2004). He retired in December 2004 and was succeeded by his daughter-in-law.
- Old-school and proud. He has quiet doubts about how Elxa was appointed, and has quiet guilt about a case he buried in 2000: the Harlow file.
- Voice: "I carried a badge 35 years. I know what a favor smells like."

Denise Jackson — The Mother-in-Law

- Born: July 22, 1950 · Age: 54 · Looks: early 40s

- A retired schoolteacher. She thinks Elxa is too ambitious and the Donohues are too everything.
 - Voice: "I didn't raise my son to be the Chief's husband."

LAW, ORDER & POLITICS

Mayor Josephine "Jo" Whitaker

- Born: October 1, 1949 · Age: 55 · Looks: mid-40s
- Mayor of Atlanta in the show's universe. (Soap convention: the show uses fictional officeholders.)
- Brilliant, pragmatic, and compromised. She appointed Elxa after "conversations" with Victor Donohue and Robert Bullock.
- Voice: "I serve the people of Atlanta. The Donohues just happen to be a lot of people."

Deputy Chief Warren Hughes — The Passed-Over Cop

- Born: October 19, 1958 · Age: 46 · Looks: late 30s
- A 25-year APD veteran and Harold Jackson's protégé. He expected to be Chief, and he wants Elxa to fail.
- Voice: "I've got shoes older than the Chief."

† Special Agent Kathleen "Kate" Doyle — The Fed

- Born: March 8, 1970, South Boston · Age: 34 · Irish American
- FBI Atlanta Field Office, Organized Crime Squad. Lead agent on "Operation Deep Water."
- A relentless, divorced workaholic. She thinks the Blackwater Syndicate is hiding behind someone rich, and she's right.
- Voice: "Every king thinks the moat's deep enough."

† Special Agent Daniel "Danny" Reyes — The Partner

- Born: June 14, 1975, the Bronx · Age: 29 · Puerto Rican
- Doyle's partner. He's charming, a former accountant, and he follows the money. He's also a secret admirer of Sovereign's charity work.
- Voice: "This guy pays hospital bills. I'm supposed to arrest Robin Hood?"

Gordon Ellis — The Chief of Staff

- Born: February 14, 1968 · Age: 36 · Looks: late 20s
- Chief of Staff to Congresswoman Jasmine Olson since 1996. He's a political operative who knows where Jasmine's votes and bodies are buried.

- Voice: "Congresswoman, the truth tested poorly."

Lawrence Tate — The Fallen DA

- Born: July 19, 1951 · Age: 53
- The former Fulton County DA who lost to Arianna after the September 2004 bribery scandal. He's sure someone set him up, and he's right.
- Voice: "Somebody built my coffin and sold me the nails."

† Judge Harlan Whitcomb Jr. — The Independent Trustee

- Born: April 22, 1956 · Age: 48 · White
 - A retired Georgia Court of Appeals judge who holds Seat 9 on the Crown Council. He's the son of the attorney who secretly bought Belmont Crest's land for the Donohues. Honorable, independent, and the swing vote on any Disgrace Clause fight.
 - Voice: "My father risked everything for this family. I won't let it destroy itself."

THE UNDERWORLD

Silas "The Undertaker" Merriweather — The Old King

- Born: December 14, 1947 · Age: 57 · Looks: late 40s
- Owns Merriweather & Sons Funeral Homes (seven locations). He's also Atlanta's old-school kingpin in gambling, loan-sharking, and numbers.
- He lost the Summer of Silence (2004) to Blackwater, and he's waiting for his chance.
- Alvin Donohue owes him $4.2 million and several favors.
- Voice: "Everybody comes to see me eventually. I just like it better when they're breathing."

† Cyrus Knox — Martin's Shadow

- Born: March 2, 1968, Johannesburg · Age: 36 · White South African
 - A former mercenary and Martin Olson's private operator. He's a fixer, an assassin, and a ghost. He helped with two of Martin's three "accidents."
 - Voice: "Mr. Olson doesn't pay me to ask why. He pays me not to."

MEDIA & SPOTLIGHT

Celeste Vaughn — The Anchor

- Born: December 21, 1980 · Age: 24 · Looks: early 20s
- Weekend anchor and investigative reporter, WBKG Channel 8 Action News. She's ambitious and gorgeous, and she's Marc-Anthony's on-and-off girlfriend.
- Her secret goal: Break the story of who Sovereign is. She doesn't realize she's sleeping with the answer.
- Voice: "I don't chase stories, Marc. Stories chase me. You should know. You're running."

Bernadette Sinclair — The Columnist

- Born: February 27, 1945 · Age: 59 · Looks: late 40s
- Writes "Behind the Gates," the society and gossip column of The Atlanta Sentinel, and has since 1974. Her column can make a debutante or bury a marriage.
- She's Constance Donohue's lunch partner. She suspects Connie writes CrestWatch.
- Voice: "Darling, I never print rumors. I print previews."

† Vince Maretti — The Paparazzo

- Born: September 3, 1968, South Philadelphia · Age: 36 · Italian American
- The best celebrity photographer in the South. He's staked out the Belmont Crest gate for 10 years. His dream is the first photo of Esther Smalley's twins with their "donor."
- Voice: "Every gate's got a gap."

BULLOCK & ASSOCIATES

Camille Rhodes, Esq. — The Other Woman

- Born: March 3, 1966 · Age: 38 · Looks: late 20s
- Senior Partner, Bullock & Associates. Robert's legal right hand and his mistress since 1999. She's brilliant and patient, and her patience is running out.
- Voice: "I've kept your secrets six years, Robert. Don't make me keep a calendar."

GRACE'S WORLD

Lionel "Lo" Pierce — The Manager

- Born: July 4, 1965 · Age: 39 · Looks: early 30s
- Grace's manager since her Sweet Tea days. He's a hustler with a heart, and he's in deep with record-label people who don't take no for an answer.

- Voice: "Baby girl, platinum is just the beginning. Diamond is the goal."

Derrick Vance — The Co-Star

- Born: January 15, 1979 · Age: 25 · Looks: early 20s
 - An R&B singer turned actor, Grace's co-star and new boyfriend. He's charming on camera and controlling off it.
 - Warning sign for writers: He's Marc-Anthony's next "monster" trigger.
 - Voice: "Your brother doesn't scare me." (He should.)

THE SMILLEY ORBIT

Sebastian Kingsley — The Fiancé

- Born: April 29, 1977, London · Age: 27 · Looks: mid-20s · British-Ghanaian
- Investment banker, Harcourt & Lowe. He proposed to Esther on Christmas Eve 2004 in Paris, and she said yes. It's a strategic engagement: Esther wants a respectable husband before the Atlanta move, and Sebastian wants the Smilley fortune.
- SECRET: He's been hired by Desmond Smilley to report on everything Esther does.
- Voice: "Love is a merger, darling. I'm simply doing due diligence."

† Beatrix "Nanny Bea" Pennington — The Nanny

- Born: July 9, 1961, Surrey, England · Age: 43 · White British
- A Norland-trained nanny who has raised Emma and Victoria since birth. She's fiercely protective and adores them.
- She has noticed that the girls' "donor" must have been extraordinary, and that Esther flinches whenever the Bullock boy is on television.
- Voice: "Miss Victoria, we do not climb the curtains. We admire them."

Thaddeus Crowe — The Smilley Shield

- Born: November 20, 1964 · Age: 40 · Looks: early 30s
 - Head of Smilley family security. He's a former U.S. Secret Service agent. BSI is his professional rival, and Blackwater is his professional obsession.
 - Voice: "In my old job I took a bullet for the President. In this one I'd take it for the twins."

ALVIN'S SECRET FAMILY

Rochelle Banks — The Secret Keeper

- Born: May 21, 1972, College Park · Age: 32 · Looks: mid-20s
- A hair salon owner in College Park. She met Alvin Donohue (then 20) at a Freaknik party in April 1991 when she was 18. Their fling lasted until Thanksgiving 1991. She never told him about their son, because she "didn't want Donohue money to Donohue my baby."
- Voice: "I didn't need his name. I needed his absence."

Tremaine Banks — The Unknown Donohue

- Born: August 16, 1992 · Age: 12
 - A seventh-grader. He's brilliant, funny, and restless, and he has the Donohue eyes. He wants to know who his father is. Future storyline: Marc-Anthony meets Tremaine through his mentoring program and sees the resemblance first.

- Owns Dee's Kitchen, a legendary soul food restaurant on Ralph David Abernathy Blvd in the West End. She's the Syndicate's heart and its conscience. She's the only person who has ever slapped Sovereign and lived.
- Voice: "Eat first. Then we'll talk about who needs to disappear."

Rashad "Saint" Mayfield — "The Saint"

- Born: September 18, 1981 · Age: 23
- Son of the Bullocks' longtime driver, and Marc's childhood brother. He owns the Saint's Car Wash chain (14 locations). He runs the streets for Blackwater, and he's a founding member.
- Voice: "They call me Saint 'cause I forgive. Once."

Lt. Gen. Walter Bassett, U.S. Army (Ret.) — BSI President

- Born: June 6, 1944 · Age: 60 · Looks: early 50s
- A retired three-star general, born on D-Day. President & COO of BSI. He's honorable, and he's completely unaware of the Syndicate.
- Voice: "Son, in forty years I've never served a man I didn't trust. Don't make you the first."

Brielle Sutton — The Assistant

- Born: April 8, 1983 · Age: 21
- Spelman senior and Executive Assistant to Marc-Anthony. She's hyper-organized and funny, and she's noticed that her boss's calendar has holes in it.
- Voice: "Mr. Bullock, you have a 3 o'clock, a 3:15, and a 3:30 that doesn't exist. Should I keep pretending?"

NEW IN SEASON 1

Vaughn "Silk" Harlow, alias "Julian Cross" — The Man With a New Face

- Born: February 26, 1969, Memphis · Age: 35 · Looks: early 30s
- A former nightclub promoter and the ringleader of the 2000 trafficking ring that drugged Grace Bullock. He is believed dead.
- The truth: He survived "the river." In 2001, Dr. Peter Olson rebuilt his face in Cancún.
- He returns in April 2005 as Julian Cross, a charming "Houston investor." He buys into Alvin's nightclub and blackmails Peter.
- He wants revenge on Sovereign, and he's the one man alive who saw the two young men who rescued Grace.

- Voice: "I died once. It was educational."

Dwayne Pruitt — The Onyx Coin Triggerman

- Born: May 2, 1978 · Age: 26
- Son of disgraced APD Sergeant Dale Pruitt. Cyrus Knox hires him to commit the "Onyx Coin" killings that frame Blackwater. He's delivered bound to APD's front steps by Sovereign in Episode #42.
- Voice: "Man paid cash. Man had an accent. That's all I got."

Dale Pruitt — The Crooked Cop

- Born: January 9, 1952 · Age: 52
- The APD sergeant on Harlow's payroll in 2000. He resigned in disgrace, and now he drinks in Forest Park.

Andre Toussaint — Simone's Great-Nephew

- Born: October 3, 1963, New Orleans · Age: 41
- A Seventh Ward schoolteacher and jazz trumpeter, the grandson of Simone's brother. He refuses to evacuate before Hurricane Katrina.

Terrence Oakes — The Clean Cop

- Born: September 25, 1971 · Age: 33
- An APD detective and the third Onyx Coin victim (Episode #14). He survives. Because he was a clean cop, his shooting breaks Blackwater's Ninth Law and triggers Sovereign's hunt for the copycat.

Leon Hardaway — The Bought Councilman

- Born: March 19, 1961 · Age: 43
- An Atlanta City Councilman who takes Esther Smilley's bribe and casts the deciding vote on the Auburn Avenue Revival bid.

† Dr. Miriam Kessler — The Custody Evaluator

- Born: November 2, 1958 · Age: 46 · White
- A court-appointed family evaluator in Gloria Baker's grandparent-visitation case. She's unimpressed by money.

BEYOND THE KINGDOM — Cast Categories & Episode Counts

Document 08 · Locked Canon · Season 1 (Episodes #0001–#0180)

All counts are out of 180 Season 1 episodes.

How the Categories Work (Real Daytime Practice)

Category	What It Means	Credits	Typical S1 Range
Core / Contract Cast	The headliners. Multi-year contracts with a guaranteed minimum number of episodes per 13-week cycle. They carry the A-stories.	Opening titles	80–160
Featured Contract Cast	On contract, with a lower guarantee. They carry B-stories and step up during their arcs.	Opening titles	40–80
Recurring	Not on contract, but booked regularly across the season	Closing credits	15–60
Supporting	Named characters who appear occasionally when a story needs them	Closing credits	3–16
Day Players	One-day or short-arc roles, often "under-fives" (fewer than five lines)	Closing credits	1–5
Guest Stars	Special or limited appearances: flashbacks, returns, event cameos, and characters being introduced ahead of a promotion to contract	"Special Guest Star" billing	1–10

The rotation rule: Being a main character does not mean appearing in every episode. A typical week features 3–5 storylines. Core players usually work 2–4 episodes a week, then disappear for a week while another story gets the spotlight. Even Marc-Anthony, the show's center, sits out about 1 in 8 episodes.

Scheduling rules:

- Alvin Donohue first appears in Episode #90 (Monday, May 9, 2005), the halfway point of Season 1. Before that he's only mentioned ("Alvin's in Miami").
- Theodore, Connie, and Reginald Donohue first appear in Episodes #176–180 (September 12–16, 2005), the final week of Season 1. They are promoted to Core Contract Cast for Season 2.
 - Before that, Theodore exists only as a written proxy vote (Episode #90) and as the unheard person on the other end of Martin's one-sided calls.
 - Neither counts as an appearance.
- Child performers (Emma, Victoria, Lyric) have contracts, but their counts are limited by child-labor hour rules. They are billed in the closing credits.

- Opening titles: See Document 12. Victor, Joan, Natasha, and Jasmine (and Alvin from #90) get unique signature sequences. Every other adult contract player shares the standard "Hall of Portraits" format.

BEYOND THE KINGDOM — World Building

Document 09 · Locked Canon · The World, the Country, Georgia & Atlanta (1905 – January 3, 2005)

PART 1 — THE RULES OF THIS UNIVERSE

1. "The Real World, Plus." Beyond the Kingdom takes place in the real United States of 2005, with the real President, the real wars, the real weather, and the real songs, plus a layer of fictional families, companies, and institutions.
 2. Real history stays real. September 11, the Iraq War, the Indian Ocean tsunami, and Hurricane Katrina all happen on their real dates. The show reacts to them respectfully and never exploits them.
 3. Fictional officeholders (soap convention):
 - Real public officials below the national level are never named or impersonated.
 - Atlanta's Mayor (Josephine Whitaker), the APD Chief (Elxa Jackson), the Fulton County DA (Arianna Cummings), and Jasmine Olson's congressional district are fictional.
 - The Governor and the state Attorney General are referred to only by title.
 - National figures (the President, for example) exist in the background but are never shown doing anything the real person didn't do.
 4. No supernatural elements. Every twist has to be possible, even if it's outrageous. This is soap realism: big feelings, real consequences.
 5. Black excellence is the baseline, not the exception. In this world, the two richest families on Earth are Black. The show treats that as history that happened, not as fantasy.
 6. Continuity is sacred. Anything that has aired is permanent.

PART 2 — THE COUNTRY: THE UNITED STATES, JANUARY 2005

Politics

- President George W. Bush won re-election on November 2, 2004, and his second inauguration is Thursday, January 20, 2005 (a preempted airdate). The country is bitterly divided after the 2004 election.
- The 109th Congress convenes Tuesday, January 4, 2005. Congresswoman Jasmine Olson (D-GA), the Donohues' eldest daughter, is sworn in for her 10th term that day (Episode #2).
- The Iraq War is nearly two years old, and Afghanistan is in its fourth year. Military families and veterans are a real presence in Atlanta. BSI hires veterans aggressively.

- Homeland security is a boom industry after September 11, 2001. That boom made BSI's meteoric rise possible (2002–2005).

The Economy

- The housing boom is at its peak. Easy mortgages, flipping, and luxury condos are everywhere. It's the perfect moment for Harmony to become a broker, and for Smilley Estates to invade Atlanta.
- Gas averages about $1.80 a gallon. It will spike after Katrina.
- Wall Street is recovering from the dot-com bust. The Donohues bought the bottom (2000–2002).

Technology (what people actually have in 2005)

- Phones: Flip phones (the Motorola RAZR is the status phone), BlackBerrys for executives, T-Mobile Sidekicks for the young and fabulous, and two-way pagers. Texting is new and addictive. No smartphones, no iPhone (2007), no apps.
- Music: iPods, burned CDs, ringtones.
- Internet: Dial-up is dying and broadband is spreading. People use AOL Instant Messenger (AIM), MySpace, BlackPlanet, LiveJournal, Xanga, Blogger, message boards, and email forwards. Facebook is limited to college students. YouTube launches this year. Twitter and Instagram don't exist.
- TV: Cable news, BET, UPN (Girlfriends, and in this universe Grace's Sweet Tea), Chappelle's Show, American Idol. DVRs (TiVo) are new.

Culture — The Soundtrack of 2005

- Atlanta runs hip-hop and R&B: OutKast, Usher, Ludacris, T.I., Ciara, Lil Jon and the crunk movement, and Jermaine Dupri's So So Def. The Atlanta sound is everywhere.
- Kanye West's The College Dropout is the album of the moment.
- In film, Jamie Foxx is winning everything for Ray, and Atlanta's own Tyler Perry is about to open Diary of a Mad Black Woman (Friday, February 25, 2005).
- In this universe: Grace Bullock's platinum album Amazing Grace (October 2004) and her single "Crown Me" are real chart hits.

Sports

- The Atlanta Falcons won the NFC South. They beat the Rams in the playoffs on Saturday, January 15, 2005, and lose the NFC Championship to the Eagles on Sunday, January 23, 2005. That's great background texture for January episodes.
- The Super Bowl is Sunday, February 6, 2005, in Jacksonville.

PART 3 — THE DIVERGENCE: HOW THE DONOHUES, SMILLEYS & BLACKWATER CHANGED THE WORLD

"The Donohue Economy"

- Donohue Global Holdings is worth $10 trillion, roughly a fifth of the entire world economy. Its scale makes it a quasi-sovereign power:
 - Victor Donohue is invited to G8 summits as an "observer."
 - Presidents of both parties call him on the first ring.
 - Economists track the "Donohue Index": when DGH moves capital, markets move with it.
- The Donohue Foundation gives away more than $30 billion a year. In this universe, HBCUs are among the best-endowed universities in America. Spelman, Morehouse, Howard, and Xavier compete with the Ivy League for students and faculty, thanks to decades of Donohue money.
- The Donohue Code of Conduct: DGH's labor standards (the highest pay floor in every industry it touches) have quietly raised wages worldwide. Unions love Joan. Rivals hate Victor.

The Smilley Counterweight

- Smilley International ($1.9 trillion) is the world's second-most-valuable private company. It is glamour to the Donohues' gravity. Its move to Atlanta in January 2005 is called "the Second Great Migration of money."
- Cultural divide: Team Donohue (old Southern legacy, faith, discretion) versus Team Smilley (Northern glamour, fashion, flash). Black America debates it at barbershops, beauty salons, and Sunday dinners.

Blackwater

- BSI has made private security a respectable, even beloved, industry in America, especially after its free disaster-relief deployments.
- The Blackwater Syndicate has quietly changed the underworld. Human trafficking in the Southeast has collapsed by 80%, because "Sovereign" hunts traffickers. Law enforcement can't prove any of it.
- "Who is Sovereign?" is a national parlor game, the way "Who shot J.R.?" once was.

Black Wealth in This Universe

- There are "two Americas" of Black wealth. There's the Donohue and Smilley stratosphere (families worth hundreds of billions). Then there's the thriving Black professional class beneath it: the Bakers, the Cummingses, the Divines. That class exists in real life, and the show honors it.
- The show never forgets the middle class. Harmony, Calvin, and Loretta Divine remind everyone how the other 99% of Atlanta lives.

PART 4 — GEORGIA, 2005

- Capital: Atlanta. The Gold Dome (the State Capitol) is where Jasmine's gubernatorial ambitions and Arianna's Attorney General dreams will play out.
- Politics: Georgia is shifting. Rural Georgia and the suburbs lean one way, and Atlanta leans hard the other. The Donohues are the state's biggest political donors, through Alvin's fundraising and Victor's checkbook.
- Georgia places on the show's map:

Place	Story Use
Americus / Sumter County	Alexander's birthplace. BSI's 9,000-acre Sumter Center training campus is here.
Savannah	The Savannah Betrayal (1952). The Jones Street house. The Port of Savannah (the Onyx coin crates).
Sea Island / St. Simons	Where Georgia's elite summer. The Crest Resorts compound.
Metter (Candler County)	The one-room roadside motel (Episodes #156–157)
College Park	Rochelle Banks' salon. Tremaine's world. Near Hartsfield-Jackson.

PART 5 — ATLANTA, 2005: "THE BLACK MECCA"

The City

- The city has roughly 450,000 people, and the metro area nearly 5 million.
- Hartsfield-Jackson is the busiest airport on Earth.
- Atlanta is home to Spelman, Morehouse, Clark Atlanta, and Morris Brown (the Atlanta University Center), the King Center, Ebenezer Baptist, and Sweet Auburn.
- In this universe, Atlanta is also the world headquarters of the two most valuable companies on Earth. The Buckhead skyline is defined by the rival towers: Donohue Tower (88 stories) and Smilley Tower (72 stories), which face each other across Peachtree Road.
- Atlanta's nickname in-universe: "The Capital of Black Royalty."

BEYOND THE KINGDOM — Season 1 Storylines

Document 10 · Locked Canon · Season 1: "The Arrival" (Episodes #0001–#0180, January 3 – September 16, 2005)

The Season in One Sentence

When the Smilleys plant their tower across Peachtree Road from the Donohues, Atlanta's Black royalty goes to war, and the secrets buried under Belmont Crest (a masked night, a missing man, a dead man who isn't dead, and a king nobody can see) begin to surface, one by one, until they explode at a wedding.

Season Architecture

Phase	Episodes	Dates	Engine
I. The Arrival	#1–#22	Jan 3 – Feb 2	The Smilleys land. The Onyx Coin killings begin. Near-misses between Marc and Esther.
II. February Sweeps: "The Countdown"	#23–#42	Feb 3 – Mar 2	The Onyx Coin Killer. The Sovereign Broadcast. Marc and Esther's first meeting.
III. Crowns & Letters	#43–#82	Mar 3 – Apr 27	The Centennial Ball. The stolen Savannah Letter. The man with a new face.
IV. May Sweeps: "The Crash-Out"	#83–#102	Apr 28 – May 25	Grace's abuser. Marc's arrest. Alvin returns (#90) . The 100th episode kiss. The House of Smiley implodes.
V. The Long Hot Summer	#103–#166	May 26 – Aug 25	Dee's wallet. The Right Hand walks. Harlow hunts. The queens' road trip. The DNA test.
VI. The Storm & the Wedding	#167–#180	Aug 26 – Sep 16	Katrina. Theodore returns (#176) . The wedding. Gunfire. "The girls are yours."

A-STORIES (Tentpole Arcs)

1. "THE WOMAN IN THE GOLD MASK" — Marc & Esther

Logline: Heirs to rival dynasties fall in love while one of them hides that they already share two daughters.

- Never-before-seen hook: The father meets his daughters before he formally meets their mother. Marc bonds with Victoria at Lenox Square (#18), rescues her again when she crosses the ravine (#91), and plays the dragon at Lyric's party (#77), all before he knows. The audience watches a father fall in love with his children in real time while he has no idea.

- Beats:
 - Near-misses: the Crown Gate (#3), the jasmine at church (#11), the adjoining rooms (#33)
 - First meeting (#42–43)
 - Three dances at the Centennial Ball (#50)
 - The library standoff (#68)
 - "She's got my laugh" (#92)
 - First kiss, in the rain on the Hotel Donohue roof (100th episode)
 - Celeste's kiss sends Esther away (#105)
 - The motel confession: he's been searching for the gold-mask girl for four years (#157)
 - Katrina brings them together (#170–171)
 - "Give me one reason" (#178)
 - Finale: "The girls are yours!" (#180)
- Season 2 question: Did Marc hear her?

2. "WHO IS SOVEREIGN?" — The Hunt

Logline: The Chief of Police, the FBI, a star reporter, and a murderous cousin all hunt Atlanta's invisible crime king, and he's at their Sunday dinner.

- Never-before-seen hook: The Sovereign Broadcast (#38). The villain-hero hijacks a live local newscast to promise the police chief, who is secretly his sister, a killer delivered to her door in seven days, and then keeps the promise (#42).
- Beats:
 - The Onyx Coin killings frame Blackwater (#1–#23)
 - "SOVEREIGN = BULLOCK": Robert is questioned (#23–24)
 - Celeste's exposé ends her relationship with Marc (#26)
 - The countdown (#38–#42)
 - Martin's investigation: Harlow tells him "two boys came" (#149), Martin stages a test (#165), and he knows (#180)
 - Doyle learns Robert is Sovereign's lawyer (#146)
 - Hughes leaks Amond as a target (#161)
 - Harmony wears a wire (#162–163)

3. "THE GHOST OF DEE DIVINE" — Harmony, Arianna, Marc & Amond

Logline: A woman searching for her missing brother turns to the new DA for help, not knowing the DA killed him and her best friend's secret love buried the truth.

- Never-before-seen hook: The killer is the one assigned to solve the case. Harmony begs Arianna to reopen it (#4) and hires Marc's company to search for Dee (#40), so the two people who buried him are officially looking for him.
- Beats:
 - The flashback special reveals the truth to the audience (#35)
 - Esther's investigators find Northside Drive (#64), and Esther uses it against Arianna (#67)
 - Arianna writes a confession letter, and Knox steals it (#117–118). Martin blackmails her (#120).
 - Silas mails Dee's wallet (#134), and the Divines learn Dee is dead (#135)
 - Amond learns Blackwater delivered a body (#136) and punches Marc into the Chattahoochee (#137)
 - A funeral without a body (#139)
 - Harmony confronts Arianna, and Martin interrupts (#142)
 - The mailed confession arrives on the wedding day (#179–180)

4. "HOUSE OF SMILLEY" — The Enemy's Civil War

Logline: The Smilleys' move into enemy territory unravels their own family: a secret illness, a secret father, and an heir nobody wanted.

- Beats:
 - Luke and Delphine's resentment (#7, #16)
 - Noelle steals the Savannah Letter (#54–55)
 - Lucius collapses (#94) and his Parkinson's is leaked (#95)
 - Desmond tells Martin "Luke is mine" (#96). Delphine finds the 1975 letters (#97) and throws the truth at Luke (#101).
 - Lucius hears everything from his hospital bed (#102) and rewrites the succession (#103)
 - Desmond and Luke join Martin's alliance (#104)

B-STORIES

5. "THE TOWER WAR" — The Auburn Avenue Revival

Logline: DGH and Smiley International fight over the $4 billion redevelopment of Sweet Auburn, where Alexander Donohue began.

- Never-before-seen twist: Esther wins by bribing a councilman (#98). Marc answers with the deeds to Alexander's original 31 parcels, and turns her victory into a forced partnership (#99–100). The rivals become business partners without a single handshake.

6. "LYRIC'S LAW" — Amond & Harmony

Logline: Two strangers who share a daughter are forced into one penthouse by danger, and into each other's arms by everything else.

- Beats:
 - Gloria's grandparent-visitation petition (#9)
 - The evaluator (#17)
 - The nursery break-in (#29) and moving into the penthouse (#30)
 - Sleeping together after the ball (#52)
 - The Grady night (#116)
 - The Juneteenth kiss (#119)
 - Amond's break with Marc (#137)
 - The wire (#162–163)
 - She reads the confession and looks at him (#180)

7. "THE NEPOTISM CHIEF" — Elxa & Jeremy

Logline: A by-the-book police chief learns her appointment was bought by the family she refuses to owe.

- Beats:
 - Hughes' leaks (#9)
 - The no-confidence hearing and the Hardaway letter (#72)
 - Jeremy hides the truth (#73) and finally tells her (#108)
 - The resignation letter (#108), which the mayor refuses (#110)
 - A pregnancy revealed in an evidence bag (#160)
 - Katrina hits on her forgotten 25th birthday (#168)

8. "GRACE UNDER FIRE" — Grace, Derrick & the Monster

Logline: A pop star hides her abuse from her family until her brother sees one photograph.

- Never-before-seen hook: The hero's arrest is the sweeps climax. Marc flips the abuser's Bentley in the middle of Peachtree Road, and his own sister, the Chief, arrests him (#84). That arrest triggers the Disgrace Clause vote, which Alvin, returning from Miami, decides with his first on-screen act (#90).

9. "GRACE & GLORY" — The Beauty War

Logline: Two heiresses build a brand on their great-grandmother's 1935 formulas, until the enemy copies them.

- Beats:
 - Simone's condition: "Beat the Smilleys" (#4)
 - The formula is copied as "Odessa Glow" (#62)
 - The lawsuit shows the leak was a bribed chemist (#112)
 - The launch sells out in 11 minutes (#145)

10. "FORBIDDEN FRUIT" — Mallory & Quentin

Logline: Romeo and Juliet in Buckhead: the Olsons' miracle child and the Smilleys' wild card.

- Beats:
 - "Q" (#8)
 - The sunflower (#13)
 - The gazebo kiss (#51)
 - Desmond orders Quentin to spy (#61)
 - The confession, and the gift thrown into Lake Simone (#111)
 - Quentin saves her from a sabotaged car (#126) and defies his father (#127)
- Mallory's choice to wait is treated with respect. Quentin's love is proven by his patience.

11. "THE MAN WITH A NEW FACE" — Harlow Returns

Logline: The monster Blackwater thought it destroyed in 2000 comes back wearing a face built by a Donohue son-in-law.

- Never-before-seen hook: The villain's face was sculpted by a member of the hero's family. Peter unknowingly created the disguise that lets Harlow into Belmont Crest society, and Alvin unknowingly gives him a nightclub.
- Beats:
 - The anonymous photos (#13, #57)
 - "You gave me a new life" (#74)
 - The Cancún flashback (#75)
 - The threat to Mallory (#76), and her brakes fail (#126)
 - Marc sees his eyes (#128)
 - The white rose (#130)
 - The fingerprint (#132), which is thrown out (#133)
 - "Two boys came" (#149)
 - He walks the wedding grounds as a florist (#175)
 - The gunfire (#180)

12. "THE PRODIGAL PRINCE" — Alvin (from Episode #90)

Logline: The family's black sheep lands in the middle of a family civil war, and brings a wolf with him.

- Beats:
 - His helicopter entrance and swing vote (#90)
 - The Sunday roast and Silas's funeral wreath (#93)
 - The bender with Harlow, where he leaks Grace's secret (#115)
 - Defending "Julian" (#133)
 - Coming face to face with his unknown son Tremaine (#159)

13. "KINGS AND PAWNS" — Martin's Conspiracy

Logline: The passed-over grandson assembles a secret alliance of enemies to destroy the Heir Apparent, guided by a voice from exile.

- Never-before-seen hook: For 175 episodes, the audience hears only Martin's side of his calls. The identity of the "Voice" is the season's slow-burn mystery, solved when Theodore Donohue returns (#176).
- Beats:
 - The Desmond pact (#8)
 - Knox and the Onyx killings (#10–#41)
 - The Disgrace petition (#85), which fails at the swing vote (#90)
 - The alliance widens to Desmond, Luke, Knox, and Harlow (#104, #148)
 - Arianna's letter (#118)
 - The DNA test: 99.99% (#166–173)
 - "Come home. It's time." (#173)

14. "THE OTHER WOMAN WEARS A WIRE" — Robert, Natasha & Camille

Logline: A wife discovers her husband's mistress and hires her, and the mistress turns out to be working for the FBI.

- Beats:
 - The Smile perfume (#6)
 - Natasha buys the hotel where they meet (#32)
 - Natasha hires Camille as DGH's General Counsel at triple salary (#65)
 - The Bullocks reunite as partners in crime (#107)
 - Camille wears the wire (#114) and catches "Sovereign's people pay" (#146)
 - She's discovered: "I'm pregnant. It's his." (#147)
 - The grand jury (#175)

C-STORIES & RUNNERS

15. "THE SAVANNAH LETTER" — Simone & Odessa

Logline: Two matriarchs in their 80s and 90s discover the truth behind their families' 53-year war, and decide to keep it to themselves.

- Never-before-seen hook: Daytime's first road trip between two elderly queens. Simone and Odessa escape their security and drive to Savannah together in a 1958 Cadillac (#154–157). Their grandchildren chase them, and it traps the lovers in a one-room motel.
- Beats:
 - The Centennial Ball face-off (#50)
 - The theft (#50–55)
 - Tea at the Swan Coach House (#63)
 - They read the letter together: "It was always me." (#123)
 - The secret pact (#124)

16. "THE CONGRESSWOMAN'S GAMBIT" — Jasmine & Peter

Jasmine's 2006 run for governor (#57, #124) collides with Peter's secret surgery on Harlow (#125). Her public ambition stays blind to Martin's private darkness.

17. "THE UNKNOWN DONOHUE" — Tremaine

Marc spots Victor's eyes on a boy in his mentoring program (#113). Alvin meets his son (#159). This runner gets a full arc in Season 2.

18. "THE STORM" — Katrina

- Real-event arc, handled with respect. BSI Crisis Response and Blackwater's Tithe pour into New Orleans, Simone's hometown.
- Esther opens every Smilley hotel to evacuees, the rival heirs run a joint relief center, and Simone's great-nephew is rescued.
- Every Atlanta shelter is funded anonymously with an Onyx Coin (#172), and Sovereign becomes a national legend.

19. "THE RETURN OF THE EXILES" — Theodore's Branch (#176–180)

The two-year exile ends. Theodore, Reginald, and Connie arrive in finale week. The "Voice" is revealed, Connie is revealed to be CrestWatch (#179), and an emergency Crown Council is called for October. They become Core Contract Cast in Season 2.

THE SEASON FINALE — "The Wedding" (Episode #180, Friday, September 16, 2005)

Cliffhangers (the Season 2 questions):

1. Who was shot? Blood spreads across Esther's gown. Is it Marc's, Esther's, or one of the twins'?
 2. Did Marc hear "The girls are yours"?
 3. Harmony has Arianna's confession. What will she do, and how much does Amond know?
 4. Martin knows everything. He knows Sovereign's identity and the twins' paternity, and he has Theodore at his side.
 5. Was Harlow the shooter, or was someone else in the trees?
 6. Did Esther say "I do"?
 7. Camille's grand jury testimony and her baby. Can Robert survive either one?
 8. The October Crown Council. Theodore is back for the crown.

JANUARY 2005

Week of January 3

- #0001 · Mon., Jan. 3 — SERIES PREMIERE. At dawn, Smilley Tower opens directly across Peachtree Road from Donohue Tower while Victor watches from the 88th floor. Esther Smilley arrives in Atlanta with her twins, Chief Elxa Jackson holds her first press conference, and Marc-Anthony reads to sick kids at Egleston between calls about BSI's tsunami relief in Sri Lanka. Cliffhanger: A body turns up in Piedmont Park clutching a black Onyx Coin, and Sovereign never ordered it.
- #0002 · Tue., Jan. 4 — Jasmine is sworn in for her 10th term in Washington. Martin takes a late-night call from "overseas" (we hear only his side). Amond and Harmony's silent Lyric handoff in the Phipps Plaza deck turns into a screaming match. Marc gathers The Seven: "Somebody's using our coin."
- #0003 · Wed., Jan. 5 — Marc's 23rd birthday at Belle Rive. Grace sings "Crown Me" and Simone gives him Alexander's pocket watch. Esther, curious about her new neighbors' invitation, gets as far as the Crown Gate, sees Marc's face on the guardhouse monitor, and orders her driver to turn around.
- #0004 · Thu., Jan. 6 — Harmony marches into new DA Arianna Cummings' office and begs her to reopen her missing brother Darnell's case. Arianna, shaking, promises she will. Grace and Mallory pitch Grace & Glory to Simone, who agrees to hand over her 1935 formulas on one condition: "Beat the Smilleys."
- #0005 · Fri., Jan. 7 — A second Onyx Coin victim, a Southside loan shark, is found. Elxa launches the APD Blackwater Task Force under Jeremy, and FBI Special Agent Kate Doyle crashes the scene claiming jurisdiction. Cliffhanger: Arianna calls Marc, hysterical: "She asked ME to find him, Marc."

Week of January 10

- #0006 · Mon., Jan. 10 — Marc promises Arianna he'll handle it. Amond, who doesn't know the truth, offers Harmony BSI's help finding Dee, and she slaps him for thinking money fixes everything. Natasha smells an unfamiliar perfume on Robert's collar: Smile, by Vivienne Smilley.
- #0007 · Tue., Jan. 11 — At her first Smilley Atlanta board meeting, Esther names her secret weapon: Harmony will broker every Smilley land deal in Atlanta. Overnight, Harmony becomes the most envied agent in Buckhead. Luke and Delphine are livid.
- #0008 · Wed., Jan. 12 — At Velvet, Mallory meets a charming DJ who calls himself only "Q," and they talk until 3 a.m. Across town, Martin meets Desmond Smilley in the Ritz-Carlton Buckhead bar: "It seems we have the same problem."
- #0009 · Thu., Jan. 13 — Gloria Baker serves Harmony with a grandparent-visitation petition. Harmony blames Amond, who knew nothing about it. Elxa's first command-staff meeting leaks to the press within the hour, courtesy of Deputy Chief Hughes.
- #0010 · Fri., Jan. 14 — The Seven trace the counterfeit Onyx Coins to a private mint in Johannesburg. Jeremy finds security footage from Piedmont Park showing a tall white man. Cliffhanger: Martin slides Cyrus Knox a thick envelope: "Again. Bigger."

Week of January 17

- #0011 · Mon., Jan. 17 — MLK Day at Greater Crest Tabernacle: Bishop Lyons honors Joan's civil-rights legacy. Esther slips out of the back pew just as Marc walks in late. He catches the scent of jasmine, turns, and sees only a closing door.
- #0012 · Tue., Jan. 18 — Victor learns the mayor will open bids on the $4 billion Auburn Avenue Revival, the street where Alexander started, and that the Smilleys are bidding. Natasha: "Over my dead body." Vivienne, across town: "That can be arranged."
- #0013 · Wed., Jan. 19 — Mallory discovers "Q" is Quentin Smilley and storms out of the Olson Estate. He follows her to the parking deck with one sunflower and an apology. Peter opens an anonymous envelope holding a 2001 photo of a masked patient on an operating table.
- Thu., Jan. 20 — No new episode: network coverage of the Presidential Inauguration.
- #0014 · Fri., Jan. 21 — Elxa and Doyle clash in front of the cameras. Marc offers APD free BSI forensics, and Elxa refuses on live TV: "I don't need my little brother's company." Cliffhanger: The third Onyx victim is Detective Terrence Oakes, a clean cop, which breaks Blackwater's Ninth Law.

Week of January 24

- #0015 · Mon., Jan. 24 — Odessa Smilley's 85th birthday dinner at Ravenhurst: "To Atlanta. May Simone live long enough to watch." At Grady, Oakes survives surgery. Sovereign tells The Seven the hunt for the copycat is now personal.

- #0016 · Tue., Jan. 25 — Luke storms into Esther's office over the Harmony deals. Noelle overhears every word and sells the gossip to Delphine for a seat at her next luncheon. CrestWatch posts it by midnight.
- #0017 · Wed., Jan. 26 — Amond and Harmony meet court evaluator Dr. Miriam Kessler, who writes that Lyric's parents "clearly despise each other." Amond proposes a truce. Harmony proposes he jump off the Jackson Street bridge.
- #0018 · Thu., Jan. 27 — Victoria gives Nanny Bea the slip at Lenox Square. Marc finds the tiny escape artist in FAO Schwarz and makes her laugh until Bea arrives, and neither knows who the other is. Across the atrium, Esther sees Marc holding her daughter and can't breathe.
- #0019 · Fri., Jan. 28 — Jeremy traces the counterfeit coins to a crate at the Port of Savannah owned by a Donohue Shipping subsidiary, which puts the family in the frame. Cliffhanger: Elxa has to decide whether to subpoena her own grandfather.

Week of January 31 — February Sweeps

- #0020 · Mon., Jan. 31 — Elxa subpoenas Donohue Shipping. Victor receives her at Donohue Tower: "You'll get your records, Chief. And you'll remember who taught you to read." That night Camille Rhodes, in Robert's office, dabs on Smile perfume.

FEBRUARY 2005

- #0021 · Tue., Feb. 1 — Martin smoothly "cooperates" with APD and steers Jeremy toward Bullock & Associates as the crate's legal agent. Esther tells Harmony it frightened her to see Marc-Anthony Bullock hold Victoria. Harmony assumes it's just the feud.
- #0022 · Wed., Feb. 2 — Grace brings her co-star boyfriend, Derrick Vance, to Belle Rive for the first time. Marc likes him, and Nana Ruby doesn't. Gideon Ashe loses $30 million in one night at an underground Blackwater Parlor.
- #0023 · Thu., Feb. 3 — FEBRUARY SWEEPS BEGIN. The fourth Onyx victim is a West End barber who paid for Blackwater protection. On the shop's wall, spray-painted in red: SOVEREIGN = BULLOCK. APD brings Robert Bullock in for questioning.
- #0024 · Fri., Feb. 4 — Jeremy grills Robert for six hours while Elxa watches through the glass. Robert just smiles. Natasha arrives with three lawyers and a subpoena for Jeremy's personnel file. Cliffhanger: In the parking lot, Martin phones overseas: "It's working."

Week of February 7 — February Sweeps

- #0025 · Mon., Feb. 7 — Simone calls an emergency Crown Council and orders the family to close ranks. Marc quietly realizes that someone inside the family is pointing the law at his father.
- #0026 · Tue., Feb. 8 — Celeste Vaughn's WBKG exclusive asks, "Is Atlanta's Top Defense Lawyer Sovereign?" Marc confronts her, she chooses the story over him, and their relationship ends on the Pavilion steps.
- #0027 · Wed., Feb. 9 — Arianna refuses to charge Robert without evidence, and Doyle is furious. Privately, Arianna warns Marc the pressure is coming from Martin's circle. Esther reads three years of Harmony's "Find Dee" archive and quietly hires private investigators.
- #0028 · Thu., Feb. 10 — Ghost links the Johannesburg mint to a mercenary named Cyrus Knox. Mallory and Quentin's secret rooftop dinner at the Four Seasons ends in an almost-kiss and a security guard.
- #0029 · Fri., Feb. 11 — Knox spots BSI surveillance and goes to ground. Cliffhanger: Harmony comes home to her front door kicked in, Lyric's nursery torn apart, and an Onyx Coin on the crib.

Week of February 14 — February Sweeps

- #0030 · Mon., Feb. 14 — Valentine's Day. Lyric was safe at Gloria's, but a terrified Harmony accepts Amond's offer to move into his Buckhead penthouse. Elxa and Jeremy's anniversary dinner is interrupted by a call, and Mallory receives 99 roses from "Q."
- #0031 · Tue., Feb. 15 — Amond tells Marc he's done with limits: "They came to my daughter's crib." Marc: "Then there are no lines." The Seven vote unanimously to hunt Knox.
- #0032 · Wed., Feb. 16 — Natasha follows Robert to a Midtown hotel and watches Camille walk into his suite. She says nothing. By morning, she owns the hotel.
- #0033 · Thu., Feb. 17 — Marc's and Esther's lawyers face off in bid talks at City Hall. The two principals sit in adjoining rooms separated by one wall, each listening. Harmony and Amond's first night under one roof ends in a fight over bedtime stories.
- #0034 · Fri., Feb. 18 — Roman Gaines corners Knox's triggerman in a Stewart Avenue motel: Dwayne Pruitt, son of the crooked cop who covered for Harlow in 2000. Cliffhanger: Pruitt escapes, but not before he sees Amond's face.

Week of February 21 — February Sweeps

- #0035 · Mon., Feb. 21 — SPECIAL FLASHBACK EPISODE: "New Year's, 2002." The audience learns the truth: 19-year-old Arianna hit and killed Darnell Divine on a dark road, and Marc made it all disappear before sunrise. In the present, Arianna watches Harmony's candlelight vigil from her car.

- #0036 · Tue., Feb. 22 — Pruitt describes the man who hunted him, and Knox tells Martin it was Amond Baker. Martin smiles: "Marc's best friend." At a photo shoot, Grace hides a purple bruise on her wrist under long sleeves.
- #0037 · Wed., Feb. 23 — Jeremy connects Dwayne Pruitt to the buried 2000 Harlow case and pulls the file. The closing signature is his father's.
- #0038 · Thu., Feb. 24 — THE SOVEREIGN BROADCAST. During Celeste's live 6 p.m. newscast, a distorted voice hijacks WBKG's signal: "The Onyx killer is not Blackwater. Chief Jackson, in seven days I will deliver him to your door." Atlanta loses its mind.
- #0039 · Fri., Feb. 25 — The FBI accuses APD of a leak, and Hughes suggests aloud that the Chief knows Sovereign personally. Cliffhanger: Martin realizes the countdown will expose Knox and orders Pruitt killed first.

Week of February 28 — February Sweeps

- #0040 · Mon., Feb. 28 — Day 5 of the countdown. Harmony hires BSI to find her brother, and Marc personally accepts the case with a smile that hides a scream.

MARCH 2005

- #0041 · Tue., Mar. 1 — Knox reaches Pruitt first, but Roman is already waiting. A chase down the Downtown Connector ends with Knox escaping and Pruitt in the Syndicate's hands.
- #0042 · Wed., Mar. 2 — FEBRUARY SWEEPS FINALE. Day 7, dawn: Dwayne Pruitt is found bound on the steps of APD headquarters at City Hall East with an Onyx Coin in his mouth and a signed confession. Elxa stands over him as cameras flash. Cliffhanger: At City Hall, Marc walks into the bid hearing, and the woman at the Smilley table turns around. Esther.
- #0043 · Thu., Mar. 3 — THE MEETING. Marc and Esther's first face-to-face is 20 white-hot minutes of war over Auburn Avenue that leaves both of them flustered and the whole room staring. He catches jasmine again. "Have we met?" "Never."
- #0044 · Fri., Mar. 4 — Pruitt's confession names only "a white man with an accent," so Martin is safe for now. Marc can't stop thinking about Esther. At home, Esther unlocks a box and holds the gold mask she has hidden for three and a half years.

Week of March 7

- #0045 · Mon., Mar. 7 — The rivalry turns into a door-to-door race for Auburn Avenue parcels, and both heirs show up at the same widow's porch at 7 a.m. Mallory learns Vivienne's lab has asked a supplier for Grace & Glory's exact ingredients.
- #0046 · Tue., Mar. 8 — Sebastian Kingsley arrives from London and announces the wedding date to the Sentinel: Friday, September 16, at Ravenhurst. Marc reads it and pretends not to care. Grace skips Sunday dinner, and Nana Ruby knows why.
- #0047 · Wed., Mar. 9 — Jeremy confronts his father about the Harlow file. Harold admits he closed it on "orders from above." Camille confesses to Robert that the FBI has approached her. She says she told them nothing.
- #0048 · Thu., Mar. 10 — Simone announces a Centennial Founders' Ball for Alexander's 100th birthday and invites Odessa Smiley. The family is horrified. Victor: "Mother, why?" Simone: "Because I want to watch her face."
- #0049 · Fri., Mar. 11 — Chaos before the ball: Harmony and Amond are forced to be each other's dates, Mallory sneaks Quentin in as a waiter, and Esther decides to go. Cliffhanger: Odessa's limousine glides through the Crown Gate, the first Smiley ever admitted to Belmont Crest.

Week of March 14

- #0050 · Mon., Mar. 14 — THE CENTENNIAL BALL (Alexander's 100th birthday). Simone and Odessa have their legendary face-off in the Simone Ballroom. Marc asks Esther to dance to settle a bet, and they don't let go for three songs. Cliffhanger: In the Dowager House, Simone's jewelry box stands open, and the Savannah Letter is gone.
- #0051 · Tue., Mar. 15 — Simone orders Marc to find the letter quietly. The suspects are Odessa, Vivienne, and every staffer on duty. Mallory and Quentin share their first kiss in the Lake Simone gazebo.
- #0052 · Wed., Mar. 16 — Tipsy after the ball, Harmony and Amond sleep together and wake up furious with themselves. Grace arrives at brunch in sunglasses and claims it's allergies.
- #0053 · Thu., Mar. 17 — Martin tells Desmond the ball proved one thing: "Marc is in love with your niece. That's a weapon." At Ravenhurst, Esther breaks a wineglass remembering the dance.
- #0054 · Fri., Mar. 18 — Winston cross-checks BSI gate logs and finds that Noelle Smiley spent six unexplained minutes alone in the Dowager House wing. Cliffhanger: In her car, Noelle opens a yellowed 1952 envelope and gasps.

Week of March 21

- #0055 · Mon., Mar. 21 — Noelle sells the letter to Odessa for a promised seat on the Smilley board. Odessa pays in cash and warns her never to speak of it again.
- #0056 · Tue., Mar. 22 — Elxa and Jeremy agree to quietly reopen the Harlow case. In the file is Grace's July 2000 hospital admission record.
- #0057 · Wed., Mar. 23 — At Jasmine's 45th birthday luncheon, party leaders urge her to run for Governor in 2006, and Martin sees his own path to power. Peter receives a second photo. This one shows him, in surgical scrubs, in 2001.
- #0058 · Thu., Mar. 24 — Elxa asks Grace about the night of July 15, 2000. Grace lies flawlessly, then calls Marc from the parking lot, sobbing. He realizes the Harlow case is breathing again.
- #0059 · Fri., Mar. 25 — Alone at Ravenhurst, Odessa reads the Savannah Letter: Cornelius was bluffing. She laughs, then weeps. Cliffhanger: She locks the letter in her safe and calls the Dowager House: "Simone. We should have tea."

Week of March 28

- #0060 · Mon., Mar. 28 — Easter Monday. At yesterday's service, Delphine photographed Mallory and Quentin holding hands. Harmony takes a pregnancy test, and it's negative. She cries, and can't tell whether it's relief.
- #0061 · Tue., Mar. 29 — Delphine gives the photo to Desmond, who orders his son to keep dating the Olson girl and "bring me her brand." Quentin refuses, and Desmond freezes his accounts.
- #0062 · Wed., Mar. 30 — Vivienne unveils "Odessa Glow," a skincare line eerily identical to Grace & Glory's formula. Mallory is devastated, and Grace blames "your Smilley boy."
- #0063 · Thu., Mar. 31 — At the Swan Coach House, the two queens trade 50 years of insults over tea. Odessa lets slip that she has "read something you should have shown me in 1952."

APRIL 2005

- #0064 · Fri., Apr. 1 — April Fools' Day. Marc runs a prank war at BSI Tower, and Brielle wins. Esther's investigators deliver a report: Darnell Divine's last known location was Northside Drive at 2:15 a.m. on January 1, 2002, three miles from a party. Cliffhanger: Esther circles one name on the guest list. Arianna Cummings.

Week of April 4

- #0065 · Mon., Apr. 4 — Natasha confronts Robert about Camille in the lobby of the hotel she bought. Then she hires Camille as General Counsel of Donohue Global Holdings at triple salary, stealing Robert's best lawyer and keeping her enemy close.
- #0066 · Tue., Apr. 5 — Robert is stunned. Doyle smells an opportunity: an informant who could reach both DGH and Robert's bed. Amond notices that BSI's search for Dee has mysteriously stalled.
- #0067 · Wed., Apr. 6 — Esther invites Arianna to lunch and, all smiles, mentions Northside Drive. Arianna walks out and throws up in the alley.
- #0068 · Thu., Apr. 7 — Arianna warns Marc that Esther knows something. Marc goes to Ravenhurst for the first time, and they face off at midnight in Esther's library. "What do you want?" "Auburn Avenue."
- #0069 · Fri., Apr. 8 — Marc refuses to be blackmailed, and Esther refuses to back down. Cliffhanger: As he leaves, Victoria pads down the staircase in pajamas, beams, and says, "Hi, Marc!" Esther goes white.

Week of April 11

- #0070 · Mon., Apr. 11 — Marc is charmed by Victoria and puzzled by Esther's terror. Nanny Bea notices the little girl laughs exactly like the man at the door.
- #0071 · Tue., Apr. 12 — At Grace's 21st birthday at Sanctuary, Derrick grabs her arm hard in front of Mallory. Grace begs her cousin not to tell anyone.
- #0072 · Wed., Apr. 13 — Hughes engineers a City Council no-confidence hearing on the Chief. Elxa testifies brilliantly. Then Councilman Hardaway waves a letter suggesting Victor lobbied the mayor. Elxa: "That is a lie."
- #0073 · Thu., Apr. 14 — Jeremy discovers the letter is real. Mayor Whitaker privately admits that Victor and Robert "made calls." Jeremy decides not to tell his wife.
- #0074 · Fri., Apr. 15 — Peter meets his blackmailer in the Olson surgical suite: a strikingly handsome man calling himself Julian Cross, wearing the face Peter built. Cliffhanger: "Doctor, you gave me a new life. Now I want my old one back."

Week of April 18

- #0075 · Mon., Apr. 18 — In flashback, Peter remembers April 2001: $5 million in cash, a masked man with a destroyed face, and a Cancún clinic with no names. In the present, Julian Cross tells him who he really is: Vaughn "Silk" Harlow.

- #0076 · Tue., Apr. 19 — Harlow demands that Peter get him into Belmont Crest society. Peter refuses, and Harlow slides over a photo of Mallory leaving Spelman. At Joan's birthday brunch, Peter can't swallow.
- #0077 · Wed., Apr. 20 — Lyric's 3rd birthday at the Bakers'. Marc is her godfather, and this time Harmony won't let Esther make excuses. The twins and Lyric play princesses with "Uncle Marc" as the dragon, while Esther watches with her heart breaking.
- #0078 · Thu., Apr. 21 — Gloria overhears Harmony and Amond fighting about the night after the ball. Then 15-year-old Kiara announces to the whole party: "Aunt Esther's twins have Uncle Marc's dimples!" The room goes silent.
- #0079 · Fri., Apr. 22 — Esther laughs it off. Marc laughs, and so does Harmony. Amond doesn't. Cliffhanger: Tidying Esther's dressing room, Nanny Bea finds a gold mask in a locked box, along with a 2001 Black Enterprise cover with Marc's face circled.

Week of April 25 — May Sweeps

- #0080 · Mon., Apr. 25 — Bea confronts no one. She simply tells Esther: "I raise them. I'll protect them from everyone." Esther understands that Bea knows.
- #0081 · Tue., Apr. 26 — The Auburn Avenue finalists are announced: DGH and Smiley. In a parked car, Esther hands Councilman Hardaway an envelope.
- #0082 · Wed., Apr. 27 — As Julian Cross, Harlow charms Buckhead society and buys the absent Alvin's partners out of Velvet: "Alvin's in Miami. He'll love me." In the April heat, Grace wears a scarf.
- #0083 · Thu., Apr. 28 — MAY SWEEPS BEGIN. At a movie-premiere afterparty, Derrick shoves Grace down a marble staircase. Paparazzo Vince Maretti captures the aftermath, and Marc sees the photo.
- #0084 · Fri., Apr. 29 — THE CRASH-OUT. Outside Sanctuary, Marc drives a BSI armored truck into Derrick's empty Bentley and flips it onto its roof in the middle of Peachtree Road. Then he drags Derrick into the street by his collar. Cliffhanger: Sirens. Elxa steps out of her car: "Marc-Anthony Bullock, you're under arrest."

MAY 2005

Week of May 2 — May Sweeps

- #0085 · Mon., May 2 — Marc's mugshot is on every front page, and Martin files a formal Disgrace Clause petition with the Crown Council. From her hospital bed, with her wrist in a cast, Grace tells the police the truth about Derrick.
- #0086 · Tue., May 3 — Arianna recuses herself and a special prosecutor takes Marc's case. Robert defends his son, and Joan sits behind him in the courtroom for the first time since she retired.
- #0087 · Wed., May 4 — At the Magnolia Cotillion, Kiara Baker is presented. Quentin crashes to dance with Mallory in front of both families, and Delphine and Natasha nearly come to blows over a centerpiece.
- #0088 · Thu., May 5 — Derrick withdraws his complaint after a visit from men he won't describe. Grace tells her story in an exclusive to Celeste on WBKG. Marc thanks Celeste, and old sparks flicker.
- #0089 · Fri., May 6 — The special prosecutor reduces the charge to a misdemeanor, so Martin's petition now needs a two-thirds Council vote. Cliffhanger: Simone schedules the vote for Monday morning.

Week of May 9 — May Sweeps

- #0090 · Mon., May 9 — THE PRODIGAL PRINCE. As the Crown Council meets to vote on Martin's petition, a helicopter lands on the Summit helipad. Alvin Donohue is home from Miami, sunburned, charming, and ready to vote. He votes no, and the petition fails 6–1–1. The lone "yes" is Theodore's written proxy from Monaco.
- #0091 · Tue., May 10 — The twins' 3rd birthday at Ravenhurst. Victoria vanishes mid-party, crosses the Nancy Creek ravine, and knocks on the door of the Bullock Pavilion. Marc carries her home.
- #0092 · Wed., May 11 — At the Ravenhurst gate, in the rain, Esther thanks Marc. Lucius orders him off Smilley land, and Marc bows to him. Then he turns to Esther: "She's got my laugh, you know. Weird." Esther nearly faints.
- #0093 · Thu., May 12 — At Sunday dinner, Alvin roasts everyone and hugs Marc too long, then slips out to meet his new business partner at Velvet: Julian Cross. Silas Merriweather sends Alvin a funeral wreath with his name on the ribbon.
- #0094 · Fri., May 13 — Friday the 13th. Lucius collapses in the middle of a Smilley board meeting. Cliffhanger: Luke rushes to his side, and behind him Vivienne and Desmond exchange a look.

Week of May 16 — May Sweeps

- #0095 · Mon., May 16 — CrestWatch leaks Lucius's Parkinson's diagnosis within the hour. With Esther's succession in question, Luke demands the board name an interim CEO: himself.
- #0096 · Tue., May 17 — Martin and Desmond plot to put Luke on the throne. Desmond lets slip the family's darkest secret: "Luke is mine."
- #0097 · Wed., May 18 — Delphine finds Vivienne's 1975 love letters to Desmond. She realizes Luke is Desmond's son and hides the letters to use as a weapon.
- #0098 · Thu., May 19 — At the final Auburn Avenue presentation, Esther wins 8–7 with Councilman Hardaway's vote. Natasha overturns a table.
- #0099 · Fri., May 20 — Ghost uncovers the bribe. Instead of exposing Esther, Marc walks Auburn Avenue at dawn holding deeds: DGH still owns Alexander's original 31 parcels, the heart of the project. Cliffhanger: "Congratulations, Esther. You just won a partnership with me."

Week of May 23 — May Sweeps

- #0100 · Mon., May 23 — THE 100TH EPISODE: "Auburn Crown." Forced into a joint venture, Marc and Esther hold their first partnership meeting on the roof of Alexander's old Hotel Donohue. A summer storm hits, they fight, and they share their first kiss in the rain.
- #0101 · Tue., May 24 — Esther runs, and Sebastian notices her smudged lipstick. At the hospital, Delphine throws the truth at Luke in a rage: Desmond is his father.
- #0102 · Wed., May 25 — MAY SWEEPS FINALE. Luke confronts Vivienne, and she confirms it. In his hospital bed, Lucius hears every word. Cliffhanger: Lucius tears out his IV: "Get my lawyer. I'm changing everything."
- #0103 · Thu., May 26 — Lucius signs a new directive confirming Esther as heir, removing Luke from Smiley Hotels, and stripping Desmond of the vice chairmanship. The House of Smiley implodes.
- #0104 · Fri., May 27 — Desmond and Luke, now openly father and son, join Martin's alliance, and Knox goes on loan to them. Cliffhanger: Alone in the nursery, Esther whispers to the twins' photo: "I have to tell him."

Week of May 30

- Mon., May 30 — No new episode: Memorial Day.
- #0105 · Tue., May 31 — At Victor's 69th birthday dinner (held Memorial Day), he toasts "the next hundred years" and gives Marc control of the Auburn partnership. Esther drives to Belmont Crest to tell Marc the truth and finds Celeste kissing him on the Pavilion steps.

JUNE 2005

- #0106 · Wed., Jun. 1 — Esther retreats and commits harder to Sebastian. Celeste tells Marc she's back for good, and Marc isn't sure he wants her to be.
- #0107 · Thu., Jun. 2 — At Natasha's 44th birthday, Robert gives her a diamond. She gives him a file proving Camille has met the FBI twice. The Bullocks are a team again.
- #0108 · Fri., Jun. 3 — Jeremy tells Elxa the truth about how she was appointed. Cliffhanger: Elxa types her resignation letter.

Week of June 6

- #0109 · Mon., Jun. 6 — Elxa confronts Victor and Robert in the Manor library: "You took the one thing I earned." Joan overhears everything and turns on her husband.
- #0110 · Tue., Jun. 7 — Mayor Whitaker refuses the resignation: "Your record is yours. Their sins are theirs." Elxa stays, but stops speaking to her father.
- #0111 · Wed., Jun. 8 — After Mallory's 20th birthday, Quentin confesses that his father ordered him to spy on her. Mallory throws his gift into Lake Simone.
- #0112 · Thu., Jun. 9 — Grace & Glory's lawyers prove Odessa Glow was stolen. The leak was a chemist Vivienne bribed, not Quentin, and Mallory realizes she punished the wrong man.
- #0113 · Fri., Jun. 10 — Marc meets Tremaine Banks, a new 12-year-old in his mentoring program who argues like a Donohue and has Victor's eyes. Cliffhanger: Tremaine: "My mama says my daddy's somebody famous who parties too much."

Week of June 13

- #0114 · Mon., Jun. 13 — Cornered by Doyle, Camille agrees to wear a wire inside DGH. On her first day she records Natasha arranging a "consulting fee" for a Monaco zoning board.
- #0115 · Tue., Jun. 14 — Harlow takes Alvin on a lavish bender. Drunk, Alvin tells family stories, including Grace's "bad night" in 2000.
- #0116 · Wed., Jun. 15 — Lyric spikes a fever, and Harmony and Amond spend the night together in the Grady ER under Loretta's watchful eye. The tenderness between them comes back.
- #0117 · Thu., Jun. 16 — Consumed by guilt, Arianna writes a confession letter addressed to Harmony and locks it in her desk.

- #0118 · Fri., Jun. 17 — On Martin's orders, Knox breaks into the DA's office looking for dirt on Marc and takes the letter. Cliffhanger: Martin reads the first line: "Harmony, I killed your brother."

Week of June 20

- #0119 · Mon., Jun. 20 — At the Juneteenth Lawn Party, on Harmony's 23rd birthday, Amond gives her a locket with Lyric's picture and they kiss in front of everyone. Martin watches with Arianna's letter in his pocket.
- #0120 · Tue., Jun. 21 — Martin blackmails Arianna: build a case against Blackwater's underboss, Amond, or Harmony gets the letter.
- #0121 · Wed., Jun. 22 — Arianna tells Marc everything. He tells her to stall and sends Ghost after the letter. Harmony moves out of Amond's penthouse, into a house he secretly bought for her.
- #0122 · Thu., Jun. 23 — Odessa returns the Savannah Letter to Simone in person at the Dowager House, on one condition: "We read it together."
- #0123 · Fri., Jun. 24 — The queens read it aloud: Cornelius bluffed, Alexander stole the plans, and Simone copied them. Cliffhanger: Odessa: "So it was you all along." Simone: "It was always me."

Week of June 27

- #0124 · Mon., Jun. 27 — The two queens make a secret pact that neither family learns the truth until both agree. Jasmine forms a gubernatorial exploratory committee.
- #0125 · Tue., Jun. 28 — Peter confesses Harlow's blackmail to Jasmine. Her answer: "Fix it before my announcement."
- #0126 · Wed., Jun. 29 — Peter anonymously tips the FBI about Julian Cross, and Harlow retaliates. Mallory's brakes fail on West Paces Ferry Road, and Quentin, who was following her to apologize, pulls her from the wreck.
- #0127 · Thu., Jun. 30 — At Piedmont Hospital, Mallory and Quentin reconcile, and Quentin publicly defies his father. Peter realizes Harlow is willing to kill.

JULY 2005

- #0128 · Fri., Jul. 1 — Peter goes to the one person Harlow seems to fear, without knowing why: Marc. Cliffhanger: Peter shows Marc a photo of "Julian Cross." Marc recognizes Harlow's eyes, and his glass hits the floor.

Week of July 4

- Mon., Jul. 4 — No new episode: Independence Day.
- #0129 · Tue., Jul. 5 — At the Fourth on the Lake fireworks, Marc tells The Seven: "Harlow's alive. The river gave him back." Amond realizes their first job was never finished.
- #0130 · Wed., Jul. 6 — Harlow sends Grace a single white rose, the same kind from the 2000 party. She has a panic attack in the recording booth.
- #0131 · Thu., Jul. 7 — Marc moves Grace into the Pavilion. Robert and Natasha put BSI details on every family member, and Victor demands to know what his grandson isn't saying.
- #0132 · Fri., Jul. 8 — Jeremy matches a fingerprint on Julian Cross's club paperwork to Vaughn Harlow. Cliffhanger: "A dead man just bought a nightclub from Alvin Donohue."

Week of July 11

- #0133 · Mon., Jul. 11 — Elxa brings Julian Cross in for questioning, but his lawyers get the fingerprint thrown out as contaminated. Alvin defends his partner, and Marc's jaw tightens.
- #0134 · Tue., Jul. 12 — Still owed money by Alvin, and still bitter over the Summer of Silence, Silas Merriweather anonymously mails Harmony a package. Inside is Darnell Divine's wallet.
- #0135 · Wed., Jul. 13 — The Divines realize Dee is dead. Calvin collapses at the wheel of his MARTA bus on Cascade Road.
- #0136 · Thu., Jul. 14 — A shattered Harmony turns to Amond, who traces the wallet through Silas's courier and learns that Blackwater delivered a body to a Merriweather crematorium on January 1, 2002.
- #0137 · Fri., Jul. 15 — Five years to the night since Grace's rescue, Amond confronts Marc at the River Gate boathouse: "Whose body, Marc?" Cliffhanger: Marc says, "I can't tell you," and Amond punches him into the Chattahoochee.

Week of July 18

- #0138 · Mon., Jul. 18 — The Right Hand walks away from the Table, and for the first time The Seven are six. Marc sits alone between two empty chairs.
- #0139 · Tue., Jul. 19 — The Divines hold a funeral without a body at Greater Crest Tabernacle. DA Arianna Cummings reads scripture, and Harmony thanks her.

- #0140 · Wed., Jul. 20 — Investigating alone, Amond narrows the night of January 1, 2002 to three names in Marc's call log. One is Arianna.
- #0141 · Thu., Jul. 21 — Watching Harmony grieve, Esther finally hands over her investigators' file with Northside Drive and Arianna's name. Harmony drives straight to the DA's office.
- #0142 · Fri., Jul. 22 — Harmony asks Arianna point-blank. Cliffhanger: Arianna opens her mouth to confess, and Martin knocks on the door.

Week of July 25

- #0143 · Mon., Jul. 25 — Pretending to help Harmony, Martin offers "proof" pointing to Sovereign as Dee's killer and turns her rage toward Blackwater. Harmony becomes a civilian informant for Elxa's task force.
- #0144 · Tue., Jul. 26 — Elxa learns Amond has abruptly left BSI, and Jeremy flags him as a possible Blackwater lieutenant.
- #0145 · Wed., Jul. 27 — Grace & Glory launches at Phipps Plaza, sells out in 11 minutes, and outsells Odessa Glow ten to one. Simone attends in a tiara.
- #0146 · Thu., Jul. 28 — Camille's wire picks up Robert telling Natasha "Marc can never know about the mayor," and then: "Sovereign's people pay their retainers on time." Doyle realizes Robert Bullock is Sovereign's lawyer.
- #0147 · Fri., Jul. 29 — Robert finds the wire in Camille's compact, and Camille flees. Cliffhanger: On the phone with Doyle, Camille says: "I'm pregnant. It's his."

AUGUST 2005

Week of August 1

- #0148 · Mon., Aug. 1 — Theodore turns 71 in Monaco, and Martin calls to wish him happy birthday (we still hear only Martin's side): "Marc's head, legally. Understood." Martin brings together Desmond, Luke, Knox, and now Harlow.
- #0149 · Tue., Aug. 2 — In a parking deck, Harlow tells Martin: "The night I took Grace Bullock, two boys came. The one who broke my face had the Donohue eyes." Martin begins to understand.
- #0150 · Wed., Aug. 3 — Natasha visits Camille with a check, and Camille tears it up. Robert learns he'll be a father again at 46.

- #0151 · Thu., Aug. 4 — Marc and Esther co-host the Auburn Crown groundbreaking. She insists she's still marrying Sebastian. He tells her he knows she's lying about something. He just doesn't know what.
- #0152 · Fri., Aug. 5 — Drunk at Velvet, Amond is baited by Harlow: "How's your boss?" He realizes Harlow knows everything. Cliffhanger: Amond calls Marc for the first time in weeks: "He's back, and he knows my face."

Week of August 8

- #0153 · Mon., Aug. 8 — Marc and Amond reach a fragile peace. Amond: "I'm back for Lyric, not for you." All seven chairs at the Table are filled again.
- #0154 · Tue., Aug. 9 — The two queens slip their security and drive to Savannah in Simone's 1958 Cadillac with Winston at the wheel.
- #0155 · Wed., Aug. 10 — In Savannah, Simone and Odessa visit the Jones Street house where it all began and bury the feud's origin under the courtyard magnolia. Back home, both families panic.
- #0156 · Thu., Aug. 11 — Marc and Esther are sent to bring their grandmothers home. A blowout outside Metter strands them at a roadside motel with one room left.
- #0157 · Fri., Aug. 12 — At the motel, Esther almost tells Marc about the twins. Instead, he tells her about the girl in the gold mask. Cliffhanger: Esther realizes he has been searching for her for four years.

Week of August 15

- #0158 · Mon., Aug. 15 — Back in Atlanta, Esther asks Sebastian to postpone the wedding. Sebastian, secretly on Desmond's payroll, refuses and threatens to tell the press her "donor" story is a lie.
- #0159 · Tue., Aug. 16 — Alvin wanders into Rochelle's College Park salon and comes face to face with Tremaine, a 12-year-old with his face. Rochelle: "Don't."
- #0160 · Wed., Aug. 17 — Elxa learns she's pregnant and tells Jeremy with the positive test sealed in an evidence bag. They find joy in the middle of the storm.
- #0161 · Thu., Aug. 18 — Their joy is shattered when Hughes leaks that Amond Baker, "a close associate of the Chief's brother," is a Blackwater target.
- #0162 · Fri., Aug. 19 — Doyle asks Harmony to wear a wire on Amond. Cliffhanger: Harmony says yes.

Week of August 22

- #0163 · Mon., Aug. 22 — Harmony wears the wire to dinner. Amond confesses that he loves her, and nothing else. She cries in the restroom.
- #0164 · Tue., Aug. 23 — Drowning in guilt, Arianna tells Marc she's going to confess to Harmony. Marc begs her to wait until he can protect them all.
- #0165 · Wed., Aug. 24 — Martin tests Harlow's theory by staging a threat at a Grace & Glory event. Marc and Amond respond like trained soldiers, and Martin watches their every move. Now he knows.
- #0166 · Thu., Aug. 25 — With Sebastian's help, Knox takes a strand of hair from Victoria's brush in the Ravenhurst nursery, and Martin sends it for DNA testing against a glass Marc drank from.
- #0167 · Fri., Aug. 26 — The news tracks a Category 5 hurricane named Katrina heading into the Gulf. Simone calls her family in New Orleans' Seventh Ward. Cliffhanger: Her great-nephew Andre tells her they're staying.

Week of August 29

- #0168 · Mon., Aug. 29 — THE STORM. Katrina makes landfall on Elxa's 25th birthday, and nobody in the war room remembers. Marc launches BSI Crisis Response and, secretly, the Syndicate's Tithe toward the Gulf.
 - #0169 · Tue., Aug. 30 — The levees fail. Marc flies into New Orleans with Roman's teams while Esther opens every Smilley hotel in the South to evacuees free of charge.
 - #0170 · Wed., Aug. 31 — Marc's boat crews pull families off Seventh Ward rooftops. Esther arrives in Baton Rouge to personally run a joint Smilley–Donohue relief center.

SEPTEMBER 2005

- #0171 · Thu., Sep. 1 — Marc finds Andre Toussaint and his family alive on a roof. At 3 a.m. in the relief center, Esther falls asleep on Marc's shoulder. Cliffhanger: In Atlanta, a lab courier hands Martin a sealed envelope.
- Fri., Sep. 2 — No new episode: network news coverage of Hurricane Katrina.

Week of September 5

- Mon., Sep. 5 — No new episode: Labor Day.

- #0172 · Tue., Sep. 6 — Back in Atlanta, Simone embraces Andre's family at the Dowager House. Every evacuee shelter in the city has been funded anonymously, and every donation arrived with an Onyx Coin. Sovereign becomes a national legend.
- #0173 · Wed., Sep. 7 — Martin opens the envelope. The result: 99.99%. Marc-Anthony is the twins' father. He tells no one, then places a call overseas: "Come home. It's time."
- #0174 · Thu., Sep. 8 — Changed by the storm, Esther hires BSI to secure her wedding and asks for Marc personally. He accepts, to be near her one last time.
- #0175 · Fri., Sep. 9 — Robert and Natasha learn Camille will testify before a federal grand jury. Cliffhanger: At Ravenhurst, a man in a florist's apron walks the wedding grounds. It's Harlow.

Week of September 12

- #0176 · Mon., Sep. 12 — THE RETURN. A black Maybach stops at the Crown Gate, and for the first time in two years the lights come on at Ashgrove. Theodore Donohue steps out, home from Monaco with his son Reginald. Victor: "Hello, brother."
- #0177 · Tue., Sep. 13 — Theodore greets the family with smiles and gifts, and Connie Donohue makes her grand entrance. Privately, Theodore and Martin confirm their plan. Simone studies her eldest son: "You came home for a funeral. Whose?"
- #0178 · Wed., Sep. 14 — At the rehearsal dinner, Esther asks Marc: "Give me one reason not to marry him." Marc gives her four years of reasons, and she walks away in tears. Theodore calls an emergency Crown Council for October.
- #0179 · Thu., Sep. 15 — The audience learns that Connie is CrestWatch as she posts "WEDDING OF THE CENTURY, OR A FUNERAL?" Arianna mails her confession to Harmony by overnight courier.
- #0180 · Fri., Sep. 16 — SEASON FINALE. Esther walks down the aisle at Ravenhurst. When the officiant asks for objections, three-year-old Victoria runs to Marc crying "I want my Marc!" Harmony reads Arianna's letter and turns to stare at Amond, and Martin whispers to Theodore, "I know who Sovereign is, and whose daughters those are." As Esther opens her mouth to answer, shots ring out from the tree line. Marc throws himself over Esther and the twins, and as blood spreads across her white gown, Esther screams: "Marc, stay with me! They're yours! The girls are yours!"
Fade to black.

BEYOND THE KINGDOM — Opening Title Sequence

Document 12 · Locked Canon · Main Titles & Opening Credits (Season 1)

Overview

Item	Detail
Length	About 70 seconds for Episodes #1–#89. About 75 seconds from Episode #90, when Alvin's sequence is added.
Placement	After the Teaser (cold open), before Act One
Theme	"Kingdom (Main Title Theme)." Orchestral strings, a gospel choir humming the melody, a four-note piano motif (the Crown motif), and Atlanta 808 drums underneath. It's old money over a new beat.
Concept	"The Hall of Portraits." The camera glides through the portrait gallery of Donohue Manor, and each gilded frame comes to life.
Who's credited	All adult Contract and Featured Contract Cast
Not credited in opening	Child performers (Emma, Victoria, Lyric), Recurring, Supporting, Day Players, and Guest Stars. They appear in the closing credits , following real daytime practice.
Billing order	Standard group in alphabetical order by performer surname (the real daytime convention, which keeps egos level). Until casting, this document orders by character surname. The five signature sequences always come last, in rising prestige.

Structure of the Sequence

Timecode	Segment	Description
0:00–0:07	Prologue: "Black Water"	Night. The Chattahoochee River runs black beneath the Belmont Crest bluffs. A gold crown shimmers in the water, and a hand's reflection slowly passes over it. The piano plays the Crown motif. The Crown Gate swings open, and the camera passes the scorched pillar and its plaque: " October 24, 1959. We stayed. "
0:07–0:42	The Hall of Portraits (Standard Group)	Inside Donohue Manor's portrait gallery. One continuous dolly move down a corridor of gilded frames. As each frame fills the screen, the painting dissolves into live action (2–3 seconds per actor), then turns back into a painting as the camera moves on.
0:42–1:05	The Signature Sequences	Alvin (from #90), Jasmine, Natasha, Joan, and Victor, each in a unique, fully produced vignette.

Timecode	Segment	Description
1:05–1:12	Main Title	Crane up over Buckhead at night: Donohue Tower and Smiley Tower face each other across Peachtree Road. The two towers' lights reflect in the river. The gold logo BEYOND THE KINGDOM rises between them, crowned. The choir holds the final note.

The Portrait Frame Code (a visual language the fans will decode)

- Gold frames: the Donohue family and their blood (the Bullocks and Olsons)
- Silver frames: the Smilleys and their circle
- Bronze frames: everyone else: friends, law, media
- Easter egg: In Marc-Anthony's gold frame, the painting's reflection in the glass shows a black onyx coin for 6 frames (a quarter-second). Only the sharpest fans on the message boards will catch it.
- Easter egg: Esther's silver frame has a gold mask hanging on the painted wall behind her.

THE STANDARD GROUP — "The Hall of Portraits"

Each credit shows one performer in their character's signature setting, 2–3 seconds long, with the performer's name in white serif lettering on a gold rule. For example: [Performer] as Marc-Anthony Bullock.

#	Character	Frame	Live-Action Moment (2–3 sec)	In Titles
1	Amond Baker	Gold	Buttoning his suit jacket in a mirror. His reflection doesn't smile.	#1–180
2	Grace Bullock	Gold	At a studio mic in headphones, belting a note, confetti falling	#1–180
3	Marc-Anthony Bullock	Gold	Laughing with his head thrown back on the Pavilion terrace. Then he turns to camera, and his smile drops for exactly one beat.	#1–180
4	Robert Bullock	Gold	Closing arguments. He slams a folder shut in front of a jury.	#1–180
5	Julian Cross	Bronze	His face half in shadow in a nightclub VIP booth. He touches his jaw as if it doesn't belong to him.	#74–180
6	Arianna Cummings	Bronze	Swearing an oath with her hand on a Bible. Her other hand trembles behind her back.	#1–180
7	Harmony Divine	Bronze	Stapling a "HAVE YOU SEEN DEE?" flyer to a pole, then turning with a SOLD real estate sign	#1–180
8	Simone Donohue	Gold	On the Dowager House porch in a rocking chair, a shotgun across her lap and a teacup in her hand	#1–180
9	Elxa Jackson	Gold	Pinning on her Chief's stars in front of a mirror	#1–180

#	Character	Frame	Live-Action Moment (2–3 sec)	In Titles
10	Jeremy Jackson	Bronze	Under an interrogation-room light, sliding a photo across a table	#1–180
11	Sebastian Kingsley	Silver	Adjusting cufflinks at a London window, then glancing at a ring box	#46–180
12	Mallory Olson	Gold	Spinning in an office chair, then snapping shut a Grace & Glory compact	#1–180
13	Martin Olson	Gold	Lining up a rifle scope at a shooting range. He lowers it and smiles.	#1–180
14	Peter Olson	Gold	Snapping on surgical gloves under operating-room lights	#1–180
15	Desmond Smilley	Silver	Pouring two glasses of cognac and sliding one to someone off-screen	#1–180
16	Esther Smilley	Silver	Walking toward camera in the Smilley Tower lobby, her heels echoing. She stops and removes her sunglasses.	#1–180
17	Lucius Smilley	Silver	Leaning on his silver-headed cane in the Crystal Room. His hand shakes for one frame.	#1–180
18	Luke Smilley	Silver	Tossing a champagne glass into a fireplace	#1–180
19	Odessa Smilley	Silver	At a vintage microphone in a 1940s gown, singing to an empty supper club	#1–180
20	Quentin Smilley	Silver	Behind DJ turntables, crowd lights sweeping. He winks.	#1–180
21	Vivienne Smilley	Silver	Spritzing Smile perfume into the air and stepping through it	#1–180
22	Delphine Smilley-Ashe	Silver	On a Maison Smilley runway, cutting a ribbon with gold scissors	#1–180
23	Celeste Vaughn	Bronze	At the WBKG anchor desk as the ON AIR light flicks on	#1–180

Notes:

- Julian Cross is credited under his alias for all of Season 1 to protect the secret on screen. The audience learns he's Vaughn Harlow in Episode #75, but the credit never changes. Fans will argue about it on the message boards.
- Sebastian Kingsley joins the titles in Episode #46, his first appearance. Julian Cross joins in Episode #74.

THE SIGNATURE SEQUENCES (Unique, 5 seconds each)

These five characters don't appear in the Hall of Portraits. Each gets a unique, fully produced vignette with its own variation of the theme, and a billing card that stays on screen longer. They're billed in rising prestige, and Victor comes last.

1. ALVIN DONOHUE — "The Prince" (added in Episode #90, Monday, May 9, 2005)

- Music variation: The theme drops into a Miami bass / crunk remix, the only time the titles break genre.
- Shots:
 1. Helicopter blades spin over a sunset ocean.
 2. Smash cut to the neon VELVET sign flickering on.
 3. Alvin sprays champagne over a VIP crowd in slow motion.
 4. He pulls his sunglasses down, grins at camera, and tosses the bottle to someone off-screen.
- Final image: The bottle lands in the hand of an elegant man in shadow. (Julian Cross. Fans won't notice until July.)
- Billing card: with [Performer] as ALVIN DONOHUE, in neon-gold script that flickers like a club sign
- Why it's unique: Alvin is the only character whose sequence is loud. He crashes the elegance of the titles the same way he crashes the family.

2. CONGRESSWOMAN JASMINE DONOHUE OLSON — "The Stateswoman"

- Music variation: A brass fanfare (a "Hail to the Chief" feel) over the choir
- Shots:
 1. Dawn over the U.S. Capitol dome.
 2. Jasmine strides through the Capitol Rotunda, her heels echoing, with staffers hurrying behind her.
 3. At the House podium she turns to a wall of camera flashes.
 4. In reverse angle, the flashes become stars on an American flag, which dissolves into the Georgia state flag, and then into a Georgia Governor's Mansion gate that she stops in front of and studies.
- Billing card: [Performer] as CONGRESSWOMAN JASMINE DONOHUE OLSON, in marble-white lettering carved like a Capitol inscription
- Why it's unique: It's the only sequence set outside Atlanta. Her power is national, and the gate at the end foreshadows her run for governor.

3. NATASHA DONOHUE BULLOCK — "The Empress"

- Music variation: The full orchestra hits the Crown motif hard, with a snapping percussive beat.
- Shots:
 1. The doors of the DGH boardroom on the 88th floor of Donohue Tower swing open.
 2. Natasha walks the length of the boardroom table in a white power suit as 30 executives stand.
 3. She drops a ring of island keys on the table without stopping.

4. She sits at the head of the table, the Chief Executive's chair, turns to the window, and the whole world skyline is reflected in the glass: Atlanta, London, Paris, Lagos, Tokyo.
 5. She winks.
- Billing card: and [Performer] as NATASHA DONOHUE BULLOCK, with the subtitle Chief Executive Officer, Donohue Global Holdings appearing in small caps for one beat
 - Why it's unique: It's the only sequence where a character breaks the fourth wall. Natasha bends every rule, including this one.

4. THE HONORABLE JOAN DONOHUE — "The Judge"

- Music variation: Solo cello and a single gospel voice carry the Crown motif, the quietest sequence.
- Shots:
 1. A black-and-white, 1960s-style shot: young Joan on the steps of a Southern courthouse with a briefcase, facing a hostile crowd.
 2. The shot bleeds into color as a gavel falls in slow motion in a federal courtroom.
 3. In the present day, Joan sits in the Donohue Manor library among law books, removes her reading glasses, and looks up with a small, knowing smile.
 4. Behind her, the photograph of her 1979 swearing-in catches the light.
- Billing card: and [Performer] as THE HONORABLE JOAN DONOHUE, in gold with a small scale-of-justice emblem
- Why it's unique: It's the only sequence that spans 40 years, a lifetime of moral authority in five seconds.

5. VICTOR DONOHUE — "The King" (always last)

- Music variation: The entire theme builds to its full crescendo, with orchestra, choir, and drums together.
- Shots:
 1. Dusk, in Victor's office on the 88th floor of Donohue Tower. Victor stands at the window with his back to camera and his hands folded behind him.
 2. The camera slowly circles him. On the wall behind him hangs the portrait of Alexander Donohue.
 3. He lifts a black king from the chess board on his desk and sets it down in the middle of the board with a soft click.
 4. As he turns to face the camera, Smiley Tower's lights switch on across Peachtree and reflect in his glasses.
 5. He doesn't smile.
- Billing card: and [Performer] as VICTOR DONOHUE, in engraved gold with the subtitle Chairman, Donohue Global Holdings. It holds for a full two seconds, the longest card in the sequence.

- Why it's unique: Victor is the last face before the title, because every other story in the show happens in his kingdom.

TITLE SEQUENCE VERSIONS (Season 1)

Version	Episodes	Airdates	Change	Length
A	#1–#45	Jan 3 – Mar 7, 2005	Premiere version: 21 portraits plus 4 signature sequences	~70 sec
B	#46–#73	Mar 8 – Apr 14, 2005	+ Sebastian Kingsley (portrait)	~70 sec
C	#74–#89	Apr 15 – May 6, 2005	+ Julian Cross (portrait)	~71 sec
D	#90–#180	May 9 – Sep 16, 2005	+ Alvin Donohue (signature sequence)	~75 sec

Final Season 1 opening-credit count:

- 23 portraits in the Hall of Portraits
- 5 signature sequences: Alvin, Jasmine, Natasha, Joan, Victor
- 28 credited performers in total

Special Episode Variations

- Episode #1 (Premiere): An extended 90-second version, with an extra aerial shot of the new Smilley Tower's opening morning.
- Episode #35 (the "New Year's, 2002" flashback special): The titles play in black and white. Arianna's frame is the only one in color.
- Episode #100 ("Auburn Crown"): The titles end on the Hotel Donohue roof in the rain instead of the two towers.
- Episode #168 (The Storm): No music. The Crown motif plays on solo piano over a black screen, with the notice: "Dedicated to the people of the Gulf Coast."
- Episode #180 (Season Finale): The standard titles play, but the last portrait frame, Esther's, cracks.

CLOSING CREDITS (for reference)

- Format: A split screen. The episode's final scene freezes on the left while the credits roll on the right over the black-water river.
- Order:
 1. Children: Emma Smilley, Victoria Smilley, Lyric Solace Baker
 2. Recurring Cast

3. Supporting
 4. Day Players
 5. "Special Guest Star" cards, including Theodore, Reginald, and Connie Donohue in Episodes #176–#180
 6. Crew
- Closing theme: A 30-second piano-and-choir reprise of "Kingdom."

SEASON 2 (planned)

- Theodore, Reginald, and Connie Donohue join the opening titles when they are promoted to Core Contract Cast. They join the standard Hall of Portraits unless the creator designates signature sequences for them.
- Theodore's frame is planned to be the only black frame in the gallery.

BEYOND THE KINGDOM — Ownership & Share Structures

Document 13 · Locked Canon · Who Owns What (as of Monday, January 3, 2005)

Donohue Global Holdings · Donohue Enterprises · Smilley International

Why These Structures Are Realistic

Real family empires almost never hold 100% of their companies outright. They split voting control (who decides) from economic ownership (who gets the money). Beyond the Kingdom uses structures modeled on real companies:

Real-World Model	What It Does	Where We Use It
Robert Bosch GmbH (Germany)	A family trust holds ~93% of the votes but almost none of the equity. A foundation holds most of the economic value.	The Crown Trust: 100% of DGH's votes with only 2% of its value
Tata Sons (India)	A private holding company owns controlling stakes in separately listed operating companies	DGH's controlling stakes in its divisions
Cargill / Mars (U.S.)	Private, multi-generational family trusts plus employee ownership	Dynasty trusts for each branch, plus the Alexander Share Plan
Dual-class family companies (e.g., newspaper dynasties)	Class A voting shares for the family, Class B economic shares for everyone else	Smilley International

The one rule to remember: Votes are power. Shares are money. Many of the season's fights come from characters who have one and want the other.

PART ONE — DONOHUE GLOBAL HOLDINGS, LTD.

Capital Structure

Item	Detail
Valuation	$10 trillion
Total shares outstanding	100,000,000
Value per share	$100,000
Class A (voting)	2,000,000 shares. 2% of the equity, 100% of the votes
Class B (non-voting, economic)	98,000,000 shares. 98% of the equity, 0% of the votes
Dividend policy	About 1.5% yield: roughly $150 billion a year paid to shareholders

Item	Detail
Listed?	No. Privately held. Class B shares can be sold only to holders the Crown Trust approves.

Voting Control — 100% the Crown Trust

- The Crown Trust (the Alexander & Simone Donohue Family Trust, created March 1, 1971) owns all 2,000,000 Class A shares. Every DGH vote is the Trust's vote.
- The Trust is directed by the Crown Council (nine seats; see Document 03). Nobody, not even Victor, can sell, merge, or move DGH without the Council.
- This is why the Disgrace Clause matters. The Heir Apparent eventually leads the Council, and whoever leads the Council controls the most valuable company on Earth, no matter how few shares they personally own.

Economic Ownership — Who Gets the Money

Holder	Class	% of DGH	Value	Notes
The Crown Trust	A	2.00%	$200B	Held for the family as a whole. Dividends fund family trusts and the Manor.
Donohue family dynasty trusts (breakdown below)	B	24.00%	$2.4T	Non-voting. Held in trust for each branch of the family.
The Donohue Foundation	B	4.20%	$420B	This stake is the Foundation's endowment. Its dividends plus family gifts fund $30B+ in annual giving.
The Alexander Share Plan (employee ownership trust)	B	9.00%	$900B	Owned by about 4.1 million employees worldwide. Alexander started it for his hotel staff in 1936.
The Auburn Founders' Shares	B	3.00%	$300B	Descendants of the Sweet Auburn families, churches, and Donohue Mutual policyholders who backed Alexander between 1924 and 1945. Some of Atlanta's quietest millionaires.
The Whitcomb Gambit Shares	B	0.50%	$50B	Given in 1958 to attorney Harlan Whitcomb for secretly buying Belmont Crest's land. Now held by Judge Harlan Whitcomb Jr. and his family.
Sovereign wealth funds (Norway, Singapore, Abu Dhabi, Nigeria, and others)	B	18.00%	$1.8T	Private placements made in 1987 (after Black Monday) and in 2001–2002

The Donohue family's total economic stake is 26%, or $2.6 trillion. That's the Crown Trust's 2% plus the dynasty trusts' 24%, and it's the family fortune of more than $2.5 trillion.

The Family Dynasty Trusts (the 24%)

Alexander's estate plan (1971, amended by the 1996 Codicil) divides the family's economic stake by branch. The "Blood Rule": Only Alexander and Simone's descendants, and Joan by marriage to Victor, hold DGH shares. In-laws (Robert, Peter, Jeremy, and Constance) own nothing.

Beneficiary	% of DGH	Value	Story Notes
Simone Donohue , lifetime trust	6.00%	$600B	When Simone dies, her 6% passes to the Heir Apparent's line under the Codicil. That makes Simone's life a trillion-dollar plot point.
Victor & Joan Donohue , marital trust	6.00%	$600B
Theodore Donohue	2.50%	$250B	Theodore votes his Crown Council seat by proxy from Monaco
Reginald Donohue	1.00%	$100B
Jasmine Donohue Olson	1.50%	$150B	Held in a blind trust while she's in Congress (House ethics rules)
Martin Olson	0.50%	$50B	A third of Marc's stake. Martin checks the math every day.
Mallory Olson	0.50%	$50B
Natasha Donohue Bullock	1.50%	$150B
Elxa Bullock Jackson	0.25%	$25B	She has never touched a dividend. It sits in trust while she lives on a police chief's salary.
Marc-Anthony Bullock , personal trust	0.50%	$50B
The Heir Apparent Trust (Marc-Anthony)	1.00%	$100B	Created by the 1996 Codicil. Sealed until he turns 25 (January 5, 2007).
Grace Bullock	0.25%	$25B
Alvin Donohue	1.50%	$150B	Dividends paid monthly. The trustees wish they weren't.
The Future Issue Trust	1.00%	$100B	Reserved by the Codicil's "Line of Issue" clause for the Heir Apparent's children. SECRET: Emma and Victoria Smilley are its only living beneficiaries, and nobody knows.
TOTAL	24.00%	$2.4T

Branch Totals (Crown Trust excluded)

Branch	% of DGH	Value
Simone (lifetime)	6.00%	$600B
Victor & Joan	6.00%	$600B
Bullock branch (Natasha, Elxa, Marc, Heir Trust, Grace)	3.50%	$350B
Theodore branch (Theodore, Reginald)	3.50%	$350B
Olson branch (Jasmine, Martin, Mallory)	2.50%	$250B
Alvin	1.50%	$150B
Future Issue Trust	1.00%	$100B

Why Theodore wants the crown: His branch holds as much money as the Bullocks, but none of the power. He has one Council seat and no path to the chair. Martin is his way in.

About Marc's Forbes number: Forbes lists Marc at $38.6 billion because it counts only what it can verify. That's mostly his BSI stake, at a conservative valuation. Sealed trust interests (his $150B in DGH) aren't counted, and neither is anything off the books. The real figure is far higher.

DGH Board of Directors (Corporate Board, separate from the Crown Council)

The Crown Trust appoints all 13 directors.

Seat	Director	Role
1	Victor Donohue	Chairman
2	Natasha Donohue Bullock	Chief Executive Officer
3	Joan Donohue	Director (also Chair of the Donohue Foundation)
4	Marc-Anthony Bullock	Board Observer (non-voting until age 25)
5	Judge Harlan Whitcomb Jr.	Independent Director
6	Franklin Cummings	Independent Director
7–13	Seven independent directors (a former Treasury Secretary, two former Fortune 50 CEOs, an HBCU president, a sovereign-fund representative, a pension-fund representative, and a Nobel economist)	Independent

- Not on the board: Jasmine (House ethics rules bar her), Theodore (in exile), Alvin (figurehead titles only), and Martin (an executive, not a director).
- Martin's goal: a board seat, then Seat 4.

PART TWO — DONOHUE ENTERPRISES, INC.

Donohue Enterprises is the operating empire, the management company that runs the day-to-day businesses. It was incorporated November 2, 1931, and has been owned by DGH since 1966.

Share Structure

Holder	Class	% of Votes	% of Economics	Notes
Donohue Global Holdings	Common	100%	95.0%	Wholly controlled subsidiary
Enterprise Partners' Plan	Non-voting profit units	0%	4.5%	Incentive equity for about 400 senior executives: division presidents, the C-suite, and Natasha as CEO. Vests over 10 years.
The Bellmen's Trust	Non-voting	0%	0.5%	In 1936 Alexander gave shares to the original staff of the Hotel Donohue (bellmen, cooks, maids). Their grandchildren still receive checks.
Certificate No. 1 (the Founder's Share)	1 golden share	Veto	—	See below

Certificate No. 1 — The Golden Share

- This is Donohue Enterprises' original 1931 share certificate, signed by Alexander and kept framed in the Dowager House.
- It carries one power: a veto over any sale or merger of Donohue Enterprises, and over moving its headquarters out of Atlanta.
- Holder: Simone Donohue. On her death, it passes to the Heir Apparent.
- Story use: It's the one thing the Smilleys can never buy, and the one thing Theodore would need if he ever tried to sell off the empire.

DGH's Controlling Stakes (Tata-Style)

DGH holds its operating businesses through subsidiaries, trusts, investment vehicles, and controlling stakes. Some divisions are wholly owned. Others have publicly traded minority shares.

Division	DGH Stake	Other Holders	Listed?
Donohue Enterprises, Inc.	95% (100% of votes)	Executives, the Bellmen's Trust	No
Donohue Hotels & Resorts	100%	—	No. It's the crown jewel and the family's first business.
Donohue Financial	72%	Public shareholders	Yes, NYSE: DFN
Donohue Energy	64%	Public shareholders, Nigerian state partners	Yes, NYSE: DNRG

Division	DGH Stake	Other Holders	Listed?
Donohue Pharmaceuticals & Health & Beauty	58%	Public shareholders	Yes, NYSE: DPHR
Donohue Technologies	61%	Public shareholders	Yes, NASDAQ: DTEC
Donohue Media	100%	—	No
Donohue Aerospace & Defense	70%	U.S. and allied defense investors	No
Donohue Shipping & Logistics	81%	Port authorities, co-investors	No
Donohue Realty	100%	—	No
Donohue Foods & Agriculture	90%	Farmer cooperatives	No
Donohue Sports & Entertainment	100%	—	No

Why it matters on screen: The four listed companies have public stock prices. When a Donohue scandal breaks, DFN, DNRG, DPHR, and DTEC fall on camera, giving the drama a visible scoreboard in the business news.

PART THREE — SMILLEY INTERNATIONAL, INC.

Capital Structure

Item	Detail
Valuation	$1.9 trillion
Total shares outstanding	190,000,000
Value per share	$10,000
Class A (voting)	19,000,000 shares. 10% of the equity, 100% of the votes. Family only.
Class B (non-voting)	171,000,000 shares. 90% of the equity. Family plus outside investors.
Listed?	No. Privately held.

The key difference from the Donohues: There is no single trust. Cornelius left his voting shares directly to individual family members. The Smilleys vote as individuals, and they are always one vote away from civil war.

Class A — Voting Power (Family Only)

Holder	% of Votes	Class A Shares
Lucius Smilley	34%	6,460,000
Odessa Smilley	20%	3,800,000
Desmond Smilley	16%	3,040,000

Holder	% of Votes	Class A Shares
Esther Smilley	12%	2,280,000 (the " Heir's Grant ", transferred from Lucius's votes on September 20, 2003)
Luke Smilley	6%	1,140,000
Delphine Smilley-Ashe	6%	1,140,000
Vivienne Smilley	4%	760,000
Quentin Smilley	2%	380,000
TOTAL	100%	19,000,000

The Voting Math (the Smilley Soap Engine)

- Naming a CEO requires a majority (over 50%) of Class A votes. Lucius is Chairman & CEO today, but if Lucius is incapacitated or dies, the family votes on his successor.
- Esther's bloc: Lucius (34) + Esther (12) = 46%. Not enough.
- Desmond's bloc (once Luke learns Desmond is his father in May): Desmond (16) + Luke (6) + Delphine (6) + Quentin (2) = 30%. Add Vivienne (4) and it's 34%.
- The kingmaker: Odessa (20%).
 - If Odessa backs Esther, Esther wins with 66%.
 - If Odessa backs Desmond, Desmond wins with 54%.
- So the 84-year-old grandmother holds the fate of a $1.9 trillion company, and she's the woman who reads the Savannah Letter and starts making peace with Simone Donohue. (Season 1 seeds. Season 2 pays it off.)
- The Episode #103 directive: After his collapse, Lucius rewrites his will so that all 34% of his votes go to Esther when he dies. That would give her 46% alone, still short of a majority without Odessa. Desmond's only move is to force a vote before Lucius dies.
- Quentin's 2% looks tiny until the vote is close. Then Mallory's boyfriend becomes the most courted man in Atlanta.

Economic Ownership — Who Gets the Money

Holder	Class	% of Smilley	Value
Smilley family (Class A)	A	10.00%	$190B
Smilley family (Class B)	B	23.70%	$450.3B
The Smilley Fund (family charity)	B	2.00%	$38B
Gulf sovereign wealth funds (Dubai & Abu Dhabi)	B	22.00%	$418B
"The Lakeshore Consortium" (private equity, invested 1999 for global expansion)	B	17.00%	$323B
Pension funds (Illinois teachers, municipal and union funds)	B	12.00%	$228B
Groupe Valcourt (a Paris luxury conglomerate; strategic partner in Maison Smilley)	B	7.30%	$138.7B

Holder	Class	% of Smilley	Value
Smilley Employee Share Plan	B	6.00%	$114B
TOTAL		100.00%	$1.9T

The Smilley family's total economic stake is 33.7%, or about $640 billion, the second-largest family fortune on Earth.

Realism note: The Smilleys own a larger percentage of their company than the Donohues do (33.7% vs. 26%), but their company is about one-fifth the size. They also answer to outside investors with real leverage. The Gulf funds and the Lakeshore Consortium can pressure the board, and the Atlanta move is partly a performance for them.

Individual Smilley Holdings (Class A equity + Class B)

Family Member	Votes	Total % of Smilley	Value
Lucius Smilley	34%	10.20%	$193.8B
Odessa Smilley	20%	7.00%	$133.0B
Desmond Smilley	16%	5.10%	$96.9B
Esther Smilley	12%	3.40%	$64.6B
Luke Smilley	6%	2.40%	$45.6B
Delphine Smilley-Ashe	6%	2.40%	$45.6B
Vivienne Smilley	4%	1.90%	$36.1B
Quentin Smilley	2%	1.10%	$20.9B
The "Dividends Trust" (Emma & Victoria, created by Lucius)	—	0.20%	$3.8B
FAMILY TOTAL	100%	33.70%	$640.3B

- In-laws own nothing here either. Noelle (Luke's wife) and Gideon (Delphine's husband) hold no shares. Gideon's $212 million gambling debt is his own, and he can't pay it with Smilley stock. That's exactly why Blackwater's marker on him is so dangerous.
- The twins own a piece of both empires. They hold $3.8B of Smilley through the Dividends Trust, and secretly, as the only living beneficiaries of the Donohue Future Issue Trust, $100B of DGH. Two three-year-olds are among the richest people on Earth, and nobody knows it.
